Measuring Visualizing Learning Information Rich Classroom:

Measuring and Visualizing Learning in the Information-Rich Classroom Peter Reimann, Susan Bull, Michael Kickmeier-Rust, Ravi Vatrpu, Barbara Wasson, 2015-11-19 Integrated information systems are increasingly used in schools and the advent of the technology rich classroom requires a new degree of ongoing classroom assessment. Able to track web searches, resources used, task completion time, and a variety of other classroom behaviors, technology rich classrooms offer a wealth of potential information about teaching and learning. This information can be used to track student progress in languages, STEM, and in 21st Century skills, for instance. However, despite these changes, there has been little change in the kind of data made available to teachers, administrators, students, and parents. Measuring and Visualizing Learning in the Information Rich Classroom collects research on the implementation of classroom assessment techniques in technology enhanced learning environments. Building on research conducted by a multinational and multidisciplinary team of learning technology experts and specialists from around the globe, this book addresses these discrepancies. With contributions from major researchers in education technology, testing and assessment, and education psychology, this book contributes to a holistic approach for building the information infrastructure of the 21st Century school.

Visualizations and Dashboards for Learning Analytics Muhittin Sahin, Dirk Ifenthaler, 2021-12-16 This edited volume fills the gaps in existing literature on visualization and dashboard design for learning analytics. To do so, it presents critical tips to stakeholders and acts as a guide to efficient implementation. The book covers the following topics: visualization and dashboard design for learning analytics; visualization and dashboard preferences of stakeholders; learners' patterns on the dashboard; usability of visualization techniques; and the dashboard dashboard and intervention design; learning and instructional design for learning analytics; privacy and security issues about the dashboard; and future directions of visualization and dashboard design. This book will be of interest to researchers with interest in learning analytics and data analytics; teachers and students in higher education institutions; and instructional designers, as it includes contributions from a wide variety of educational and psychological researchers, engineers, instructional designers, learning scientists, and computer scientists interested in learning analytics.

Learning Analytics Explained Niall Sclater, 2017-02-17 Learning Analytics Explained draws extensively from case studies and interviews with experts in order to discuss emerging applications of the new field of learning analytics. Educational institutions increasingly collect data on students and their learning experiences, a practice that helps enhance courses, identify learners who require support, and provide a more personalized learning experience. There is, however, a corresponding need for guidance on how to carry out institutional projects, intervene effectively with students, and assess legal and ethical issues. This book provides that guidance while also covering the evolving technical architectures, standards, and products within the field.

Analytics to Support Study Success Dirk Ifenthaler, Dana-Kristin Mah, Jane Yin-Kim Yau, 2019-01-17 Students often enter higher education academically unprepared and with unrealistic perceptions and expectations of university life which are critical factors that influence students decisions to leave their institutions prior to degree completion Advances in educational technology and the current availability of vast amounts of educational data make it possible to represent how students interact with higher education resources as well as provide insights into students learning behavior and processes

This volume offers new research in such learning analytics and demonstrates how they support students at institutions of higher education by offering personalized and adaptive support of their learning journey. It focuses on four major areas of discussion: Theoretical perspectives linking learning analytics and study success; Technological innovations for supporting student learning; Issues and challenges for implementing learning analytics at higher education institutions; Case studies showcasing successfully implemented learning analytics strategies at higher education institutions. Utilizing Learning Analytics to Support Study Success ably exemplifies how educational data and innovative digital technologies contribute to successful learning and teaching scenarios and provides critical insight to researchers, graduate students, teachers, and administrators in the general areas of education, educational psychology, academic and organizational development, and instructional technology.

Cases on Responsive and Responsible Learning in Higher Education Alias, Nor Aziah, Syed-Aris, Sharipah Ruzaina, Hashim, Hamimah, 2023-02-24 Responsive learning and responsible learning have not been considered and utilized appropriately in the past, especially in light of the post-pandemic higher education landscape. A discussion and consideration of the different elements that make up responsive and responsible learning, such as agency, agility, mindfulness, connectedness, resourcefulness, active and seamless learning, and regulation of learning, are required to advance the field of higher education. Cases on Responsive and Responsible Learning in Higher Education encompasses cases on responsive and responsible learning in higher education and focuses on how the concepts are translated into practice by instructors, learning facilitators, and higher education managers. The book also deals with various practicalities and strategies and adopts existing models and frameworks for 21st-century learning. Covering key topics such as learner agency, mindfulness, and personalized learning, this reference work is ideal for administrators, policymakers, researchers, academicians, practitioners, scholars, instructors, and students.
