

The background of the cover is a detailed medieval manuscript illustration. It depicts a battle scene in a town square or courtyard. In the foreground, several knights in chainmail and surcoats are engaged in combat. One knight in a white surcoat is being pushed back, while others are clashing with spears and swords. In the background, a large stone castle with multiple towers and battlements stands on a hill. A river or moat flows in the foreground, with a stone bridge featuring three arches crossing it. A body is visible in the water under one of the bridge arches. The style is characteristic of late 15th-century Flemish manuscript illumination, with vibrant colors and fine detail.
