Mahasweta Devi in Defence of the Human Anuradha Ghosh, Mahmoud Al-Zayed, 2025-06-06 This book re-thinks the literary and social worlds of Mahasweta Devi the prolific and influential writer and social activist in connection to her praxis It brings into focus Devi's preoccupation with the human nature and life and unwritten or distorted histories that underline her poetics of translating resistance in terms of a radical alterity The defining feature of Devi's writings is the position she adopts in defence of the human questioning the nature of the abject in her discourse on the oppressed Essays in this volume focus on her subversive retellings from the Mahabharata the political aspects of translation adaptation of her works in literature cinema and visual arts and comparative readings of her works by women authors from the Global South as well as the Indian diaspora They examine her early publications her writings for children and the notion of aesthetic ethics and in aesthetics as a gesture to pave forward a discourse on liberation and social justice that remains a challenge for the world The book will be of significant interest to scholars and researchers of postcolonial and decolonial studies critical translation and adaptation studies comparative literature the visual arts myth and folklore studies gender and sexuality studies caste and ethnicity studies culture studies ethics in and aesthetics activism studies democratic and indigenous rights discourse South Asian studies and Global South studies Unhinging Hinglish Nanette Hale, Tabish Khair, 2001 A

Theatre of Their Own: Indian Women Playwrights in Perspective Dr. Pinaki Ranjan Das, 2021-04-29 In an age where academic curriculum has essentially pushed theatre studies into post script and the cultural space of making and watching theatre has been largely usurped by the immense popularity of television and mainstream cinemas it is important to understand why theatre still remains a space to be reckoned as one's own This book argues for a theatre of their own of the Indian women playwrights and directors and explores the possibilities that modern Indian theatre can provide as an instrument of subjective as well as social political cultural articulations and at the same time analyses the course of Indian theatre which gradually underwent broadening of thematic and dramaturgic scope in order to accommodate the independent voices of the women playwrights and directors LITERATURE AS A SITE OF ACTIVISM: A SELECT STUDY OF WOMEN WRITING IN INDIA

G. Sathya, 2018-03-05 In the study Literature as a Site of Activism: A Select Study of Women Writing in India an attempt is made to bring the well known contemporary women writers who are very much part of the mainstream society These women writers use their fictional as well as their non fictional writings to exhibit their activist concern They use their writings to criticize certain social happenings Though the writers hail from different parts of our country the issues raised by them in their writings unify them Their concern over various issues is discussed in a particular sense here

Subaltern Perspectives in Indian Context Dipak Giri, 2021-02-03 Translation Today, 2004 Family Fictions and World Making Sreya Chatterjee, 2021-04-29 Family Fictions and World Making Irish and Indian Women's Writing in the Contemporary Era is the first book length comparative study of family novels from Ireland and India On the one hand despite an early as well as late colonial experience Ireland is often viewed exclusively within a metropolitan British and Europe centered frame India on the other hand once seen as a model of decolonization for the non Western world has witnessed a crisis of democracy in recent years This book charts the idea of world making through the fraught itineraries of the Irish and the Indian family novel The novels discussed in the book foreground kinship based on ideological rather than biological ties and recast the family as a nucleus of interests across national borders The book considers the work of critically acclaimed women authors Anne Enright Elizabeth Bowen Mahasweta Devi Jennifer Johnston Kiran Desai and Molly Keane These writers are explored as representative voices for the interwar years the late modern period and the globalization era They not only push back against the male nationalist idiom of the family but also successfully interrogate family fiction as a supposedly private genre The broad timeframe of Family Fictions and World Making from the interwar period to the globalization era initiates a dialogue between the early and the current debates around core and periphery in postcolonial literature
