African Americans and the Color Line in Ohio, 1915-1930 William Wayne Giffin,2005
A study of African Americans in Ohio notably Cleveland Columbus and Cincinnati Giffin argues that the color line in Ohio hardened as the Great Migration gained force His data shows too that the color line varied according to urban area hardening progressively as one traveled South in the state

Black Women's Health Michele Tracy Berger,2021-04-06
The struggles African American women and their adolescent daughters face in living healthy active lives From heart disease and diabetes to HIV and obesity Black women and girls face serious health risks lagging behind their white counterparts by every measure of health well being and fitness In Black Women s Health Michele Tracy Berger shows us why this is the case exploring how the health needs of Black women and girls are uniquely rooted in their experiences with racism sexism and class discrimination Drawing on interviews with mothers and their daughters as well as compelling medical data Berger provides insight into the larger patterns that place Black women at such high risk on a national level She shows how Black mothers communicate with their daughters about health sexuality and intimacy including how they attempt to promote healthy living standards even as they navigate widespread systemic challenges Ultimately Berger highlights the important role that family and specifically the relationship between mothers and daughters plays in improving public health outcomes Black Women s Health takes a much needed intimate look at how Black women and girls navigate different paths to wellness

Cinderella Cox,1893 The Christian Advocate ,1929 Word from the Mother Geneva Smitherman,2006-04-18
Written by the hugely respected linguist Geneva Smitherman this book presents a definitive statement on African American English Enriched by her evocative and inimitable prose style the study presents an overview of past debates on the speech of African Americans as well as providing a vision for the future Featuring cartoons which demonstrate the relationship between language and race as well as common perceptions of African American Language she explores its contribution to mainstream American English and includes a summary of expressions as a suggested linguistic core of AAL As global manifestations of Black Language increase she argues that through education we must broaden our conception of AAL and its speakers and further examine the implications of gender age and class on AAL Perhaps most of all we must appreciate the artistic and linguistic genius of AAL presented in this book through rap and Hip Hop lyrics and the explorations of rhyme and rhetoric in the Black speech community Word from the Mother is an essential read for students of African American English language culture and sociolinguistics as well as the general reader interested in the worldwide crossover of black popular culture The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1899
