Mothers of the Disappeared Josephine Fisher,1989 Puts the struggle of the Mothers of the Disappeared in the context of modern Argentine history and compares their experience with the resistance of other Latin American women Mothers of the Disappeared Jo Fisher,1989 Puts the struggle of the Mothers of the Disappeared in the context of modern Argentine history and compares their experience with the resistance of other Latin American women Mothers of the Disappeared (J McNee #4) McLean Russell D (author),1901 Report of Aid Given to Destitute Mothers and Infants Society for Helping Destitute Mothers and Infants,1907 Responses to Nonviolent Campaigns Majken Jul Sørensen,2015-08-09 This booklet introduces a model that can be used to analyse responses to a variety of civil resistance campaigns whether they are aimed at overthrowing dictatorships ending occupations or are social movements in democracies The model includes five main types of response with several subcategories from Introduction page 3 Daughters of Rizpah Sharon A. Buttry,Daniel L. Buttry,2020-10-13 Trauma recovery and healing get a lot of attention these days but in situations of war and violence trauma is also a social experience set within the larger conflict context The authors examine an ancient biblical story full of violence and trauma that makes most readers turn the page quickly The reader is invited instead to sit with the story listen to the voices of the characters and feel the full range of their emotions There is much to be learned through the story that offers insight for trauma healing and reconciliation and motivation for deep and abiding social change The biblical story becomes a doorway into a journey of discovery about traumatized people specifically women who choose not to remain as victims Instead they rise up in transformative nonviolent action The authors lift up the Rizpah story and contemporary stories of Daughters of Rizpah from around the world to inspire hope amid the traumatizing turmoil of the twenty first century

Stories That Make History Lynn Stephen,2021-09-20 Lynn Stephen examines the writing of Elena Poniatowska showing how it shaped Mexican political discourse and provides a unique way of understanding contemporary Mexican history politics and culture The Great Mental Models, Volume 3 Shane Parrish,Rhiannon Beaubien,Rosie Leizrowice,2024-10-15 From the New York Times bestselling author of Clear Thinking and Farnam Street founder Shane Parrish The third book in the timeless Great Mental Models series Time and time again great thinkers such as Charlie Munger and Warren Buffett have credited their success to mental models representations of how something works that can scale onto other fields Mastering a small number of mental models enables you to rapidly grasp new information identify patterns others miss and avoid the common mistakes that hold people back Volume 3 of The Great Mental Models series focuses on systems and mathematics simplifying more than twenty four key concepts from these technical fields into easy to understand terms It provides insights into the unseen mechanisms that influence our environment and teaches you how to apply these principles to benefit your life Some of the mental models covered in this book include Margin of Safety Engineers design for extremes not averages To create a robust system ensure a meaningful gap between what the system is capable of handling and what it is required to handle Compounding The most powerful force in the universe can work in domains other than money The law of diminishing returns Inputs to a system lead to more output up until a point where each further unit of input will lead to a decreasing amount of output Regression to the mean Above or below average performance tends to correct towards the average over the long term The Great Mental Models series demystifies once elusive concepts and illuminates rich knowledge that traditional education overlooks This series is the most comprehensive and accessible guide on using mental models to better understand our world solve problems and gain an advantage

Riddell (Mrs),1878 Made for Life \(PLE: Emotion\) Johanna Turner,2014-11-20 Originally published in 1980 this title considers the relationship between feeling able to cope and being able to learn that is the interdependence of affect and cognition in children under five It argues that in order to make full use of his cognitive capacities the child must first develop the belief that he is able to cope and be effective When the child enters school at the age of five his behaviour will reflect the influence of various important developmental factors It is only by understanding the nature of the interactions of these influences that one can sympathetically appreciate and if necessary modify the child s perception of the situation with which he is faced The argument presented follows the discrete strands of development which form the plait of individual differential perception and draws upon the case of work of clinicians using psychoanalytic concepts experimental investigations of infants and children naturalistic observations and longitudinal studies since it is believed that these contemporary yet distinct approaches draw attention to different aspects of the multifaceted human child As such the book was both a useful survey of this important complex field of study at the time and is still a stimulating contribution to the debate New York
