Smart! Barry Penney,Gina Teague,2016-01-07 Australia is different a vast island continent with distances so great that the capital of Western Australia is closer to Singapore than it is to Sydney The landscape embraces magnificent tropical rainforests and deserts the size of several European states temperate areas that sustain a flourishing wine industry making Australia the world s fourth largest wine exporter a sixteen thousand mile coastline of breathtaking beaches and its unique fauna is testament to the country s down underness Indigenous Australians have inhabited the continent for more than fifty thousand years yet European settlement is just over two hundred years old Since the end of the Second World War the country has opened its doors to a hugely diverse immigrant population and slowly shaken off the mantle of British influence transforming what was perhaps one of the dullest nations into one of the most stimulating The Australians old settler mentality regarding themselves as battlers and embarrassed by their lack of sophistication has given way to a new national confidence The achievements of Australia s artists sportspeople entertainers scientists and businesspeople puts them on the global stage Despite the diversity of ethnicities there is a pervasive homogeneity among Australians a generosity of spirit and a forthrightness sometimes disarming for the visitor A sense of fairness and equality is valued as is the ability not to take oneself too seriously Culture Smart Australia introduces you to a young nation with one of the world's highest standards of living where people work to live in order to enjoy a lifestyle that many across the globe covet and in which Australians take great pride and don't mind telling you about Ethics and Public Policy Andrew Bradstock, David Eng, 2011-08-01

Exploring the ethical frameworks and principles upon which governments can and should base their policies this study draws on papers from the 2009 Ethical Foundations of Public Policy conference held in Wellington covering topics such as ethics in decision making and advice giving sustainability equality and justice and measuring progress The examination contends that interplay between ethical considerations and policy creation is often complex controversial and challenging but that the careful management of this interplay is vital to the effective functioning of liberal democratic government Demonstrating the inextricable link between ethics and public policy this is essential reading for policymakers students and those interested in the policy process Indigenous Tourism Michelle Whitford, Lisa Ruhanen, Anna Carr, 2017-06-30 This volume presents a collection of unique case studies focusing on issues pertaining to indigenous tourism in two of the world's recognised leading destinations for indigenous tourism planning and development Britain - Culture Smart!
