Cast a Dark Shadow S.C. Rackes, 2013-09-26 Do you realize how long it's been Dallas spoke trying to keep her voice as unemotional as possible Bart hated scenes Dallas knew she should back off drop the subject and leave Bart alone It was the only safe way to deal with him lately Tonight was a final desperate effort on her part It was their wedding anniversary If anything was left between them she should be able to reach it on what was supposed to be a day of celebration Early returns weren't promising Let's face it Dallas thought Your carefully constructed web of pretense is fraying and fraying fast with a whole lot of help from your husband Why can't you admit it's over and just take your losses and get out Because I hate to give up and throw twenty years down the rabbit hole At least without giving it one last shot Bart didn't answer Dallas didn't even acknowledge the question He was staring past her at a spot somewhere over and slightly to the right of her head His moods had gotten increasingly dark and difficult lately his patience with her nonexistent As Dallas watched him lift the glass he held and drain its contents she thought He's drinking way too much Dallas looked away feeling totally defeated As she did she heard Bart rattle the ice cubes in his glass That was her cue to get him a refill Let him get his own damned refill she decided with a rare burst of irritation and rebellion He has feet Tonight as soon as she'd given him his anniversary gift she knew she'd made a mistake His face closed up his jaw tensed and he acted like she'd handed him a bomb he expected would go off at any minute The gift still sat unopened on the table At first Dallas hoped it was because he forgot about the anniversary and didn't have anything for her But it was more than that There was something different about Bart tonight something Dallas couldn't identify something that intensified the uneasy feelings she'd had for the last six months More and more she felt like she was living with a stranger Doesn't twenty years of marriage mean a thing to you Bart Dallas asked At last Bart decided to acknowledge her presence He let his gaze drop to her slender ankles and work its way up to her face His hazel eyes were cold and his mouth was set in a thin line I fail to see twenty years of marriage as an excuse for you to run around dressed like a cheap tramp Dallas he said I'm not dressed like a tramp Dallas wore a white lace teddy she bought especially for the occasion It was about as successful as the fancy dinner she cooked and Bart barely touched Another mistake obviously she decided My whole life seems to be a mistake lately She sighed I wanted you to make love to me That's all Nothing else works I thought this was worth a try Bart's silence and the unyielding intensity of his gaze made Dallas look

away again She stared past him out the sliding glass patio doors where a crescent moon floated on the horizon It washed the night with pale light and made it look as cold and empty as Dallas felt I will make love to you when I want to Bart finally said Do you understand And if I never want to again that part of your life will be over Whether you like it or not Dallas swallowed hard bit her lip and fought back the tears of resignation and defeat that gathered on her lower lids If there was anything her husband hated worse than emotional scenes it was tears You are no different from any other tramp in the world are you Dallas Always willing to get some poor slob to do what you want him to do Then when he does you turn on him You all turn on him Barts words and the vehemence behind them dried Dallass tears up before they had a chance to spill over What in Gods name is he talking about now Dallas wondered Not for the first time in her dealings with Bart lately had she tried to label uneasiness that crossed the line and became somet

Brad Schwartz,2025-09-23 On the evening of October 30 1938 radio listeners across the United States heard a startling report of a meteor strike in the New Jersey countryside With sirens blaring in the background announcers in the field described mysterious creatures terrifying war machines and thick clouds of poison gas moving toward New York City As the invading force approached Manhattan some listeners sat transfixed while others ran to alert neighbors or to call the police Some even fled their homes But the hair raising broadcast was not a real news bulletin it was Orson Welles s adaptation of the H G Wells classic The War of the Worlds In Broadcast Hysteria A Brad Schwartz boldly retells the story of Welles s famed radio play and its impact Did it really spawn a wave of mass hysteria as The New York Times reported Schwartz is the first to examine the hundreds of letters sent to Orson Welles himself in the days after the broadcast and his findings challenge the conventional wisdom Few listeners believed an actual attack was under way But even so Schwartz shows that Welles s broadcast became a major scandal prompting a different kind of mass panic as Americans debated the bewitching power of the radio and the country s vulnerability in a time of crisis When the debate was over American broadcasting had changed for good but not for the better As Schwartz tells this story we observe how an atmosphere of natural disaster and impending war permitted broadcasters to create shared live national experiences

Music in the Shadows Sheri Chinen Biesen, 2014-03-27 An analysis of Hollywood films that blend elements of musicals and film noir from the author of Blackout World War II and the Origins of Film Noir Welcome to the world of noir musical films where tormented antiheroes and hard boiled musicians battle obsession and struggle with their music and ill fated love triangles Sultry divas dance and sing the blues in shrouded nightclubs Romantic intrigue clashes with backstage careers In her pioneering study Music in the Shadows film noir expert Sheri Chinen Biesen explores musical films that use film noir style and jazz to inhabit a disturbing underworld and reveal the dark side of fame and the American Dream While noir musical films like A Star Is Born 1954 include musical performances their bleak tone and expressionistic aesthetic more closely resemble the visual style of film noir Their narratives unfold behind a stark noir lens distorted erratic angles and imbalanced hand held shots allow the audience to experience a tortured disillusioned perspective While many musicals glamorize the quest for the Hollywood spotlight brooding noir musical films such as Blues in the Night Gilda The Red Shoes

West Side Story and Round Midnight stretch the boundaries of film noir and the musical as film genres collide Deep shadows dim lighting and visual composition evoke moodiness cynicism pessimism and subjective psychological points of view Biesen draws on extensive primary research in studio archives to situate her examination within a historical industrial and cultural context Biesen builds a fascinating and quite convincing case for a genre hybrid the noir musical that took root in the 1940s but has continued to evolve ever since Thomas Schatz The University of Texas at Austin
