Nice Memory Theater Simon Critchley:

Memory Theater Simon Critchley, 2015-11-17 From this renowned philosopher comes a debut work of fiction at once a brilliant précis of the history of philosophy a semiautobiographical meditation on the absurd relationship between knowledge and memory and a very funny story A French philosopher dies during a savage summer heat wave Boxes carrying his unpublished papers mysteriously appear in Simon Critchley's office Rooting through them Critchley discovers a brilliant text on the ancient art of memory and a cache of astrological charts predicting the deaths of various philosophers Among them is a chart for Critchley himself laying out in great detail the course of his life and eventual demise While waiting for his friend's prediction to come through Critchley receives the missing final box which contains a maquette of Giulio Camillo's sixteenth century Venetian memory theater a space supposed to contain the sum of all knowledge With nothing left to hope for Critchley devotes himself to one final project before his death the building of a structure to house his collective memories and document the remnants of his entire life

Memory Theatre Simon Critchley, 2014 This is part novel part prose poem illuminated by a series of photographs of New York buildings gradually making and unmaking themselves Exploring the Affective Dimensions of Educational Leadership Alysha J. Farrell, 2019-08-22 Bridging the gap between academic parlance and arts based inquiry this unique text presents a socio affective exploration of educational leadership The text challenges inherited ideological and normative assumptions and invites its reader to reimagine leadership as a dynamic emotional and relational process Exploring the Affective Dimensions of Educational Leadership combines the ambiguity of arts based work with the interpretative power of psychoanalysis to illustrate the role of mutuality personal interpretations and formative relations on leadership practices By emphasizing leadership as the constant striving for recognition the chapters expose the affective dimensions that infuse educational leadership practice and in doing so propose a new way for educational leaders to respond to complex and emotionally charged incidents in school contexts thereby promoting democratic practice and positive collegial relations An engaging and insightful text this book will be of great interest to graduate and postgraduate students researchers academics and professionals in the fields of educational leadership educational research and psychoanalysis

Theatre, Performance and Commemoration Miriam Haughton, Alinne Balduino P. Fernandes, Pieter Verstraete, 2023-04-20 How does the act of performance speak to the concept of commemoration How and why does commemorative theatre operate as a conceptual historical and political site from which to interrogate ideas of nationalism and nationhood This volume explores how theatre and performance create a stage for acts of commemoration considering crises of hate nationalism and migration as well as political racial and religious bigotry It features case studies drawn from across Europe the Middle East Asia Africa and Latin America The book's four parts each explore commemoration through a different theoretical lens and present a new set of dramaturgies for research and study While Section 1 offers a critical survey of 20th and 21st century discourses Section 2 uncovers the commemorative practices underpinning contemporary dramaturgy and applies these practices to plays and performance pieces These include works by Martin Lynch Frank McGuinness Sanja Mitrovic Theater RAST Les SlovaKs Dance Collective Estela Golovchenko Wajdi Mouawad in Stapleton CoisC im ANU Productions Aubrey Sekhabi and Indian and African dance practices The final sections investigate how individual and collective memory and performances of commemoration can become tools for propaganda and political agendas

Genre Transgressions Ramona Mosse, Anna Street, 2023-12-01 This collection gathers a set of provocative essays that sketch innovative and interdisciplinary approaches to Genre Theory in the 21st century Focusing on the interaction between tragedy and comedy both renowned and emerging scholarly and creative voices from philosophy theater literature and cultural studies come together to engage in dialogues that reconfigure genre as social communal and affective In revisiting the challenges to aesthetic categorization over the course of the 20th century this volume proposes a shift away from the prescriptive and hierarchical reading of genre to its crucial function in shaping thought and enabling shared experience and communication In doing so the various essays acknowledge the diverse contexts within which genre needs to be thought afresh media studies rhetoric politics performance and philosophy

Rousseau Between Nature and Culture Anne Deney-Tunney, Yves Charles Zarka, 2016-03-07 Rousseau has been seen as the inventor of the concept of nature in this collective volume philosophers and literary specialists from France and the United States

examine how Rousseau's philosophy can be reinterpreted from the point of view of a constant dialectical debate between nature and culture In this Rousseau is our true contemporary Text & Presentation, 2014 Graley Herren,2014-12-17

Text Presentation gathers some of the best work presented at the 2014 Comparative Drama Conference in Baltimore The subjects explored in this volume range from ancient to contemporary and encompass great cultural and intellectual diversity The highlight of the conference was a presentation by award winning playwright David Henry Hwang A transcript of Hwang's conversation is the lead piece followed by twelve research papers one review essay and ten book reviews This volume accurately represents the diversity of the annual conference and represents the latest research in the fields of comparative drama performance and dramatic textual analysis The Shakespearean World Jill L Levenson,Robert Ormsby,2017-03-27

The Shakespearean World takes a global view of Shakespeare and his works especially their afterlives Constantly changing the Shakespeare central to this volume has acquired an array of meanings over the past four centuries Shakespeare signifies the historical person as well as the plays and verse attributed to him It also signifies the attitudes towards both author and works determined by their receptions Throughout the book specialists aim to situate Shakespeare's world and what the world is because of him In adopting a global perspective the volume arranges thirty six chapters in five parts Shakespeare on stage internationally since the late seventeenth century Shakespeare on film throughout the world Shakespeare in the arts beyond drama and performance Shakespeare in everyday life Shakespeare and critical practice Through its coverage The Shakespearean World offers a comprehensive transhistorical and international view of the ways this Shakespeare has not only influenced but has also been influenced by diverse cultures during 400 years of performance adaptation criticism and citation While each chapter is a freshly conceived introduction to a significant topic all of the chapters move beyond the level of survey suggesting new directions in Shakespeare studies such as ecology tourism and new media and making substantial contributions to the field This volume is an essential resource for all those studying Shakespeare from beginners to advanced specialists Violence Brad Evans,Natasha Lennard,2018-12-04

Through a series of penetrating conversations originally published in the New York Times and the Los Angeles Review of Books Brad Evans and Natasha Lennard talk with a wide range of cutting edge thinkers including Oliver Stone Simon Critchley and Elaine Scarry to explore the problem of violence in everyday life politics culture media language memory and the environment To bring out the best of us writes Evans we have to confront the worst of what humans are capable of doing to one another In short there is a need to confront the intolerable realities of violence in this world These lively in depth exchanges among historians theorists and artists offer a timely and bracing look at how the increasing expression and acceptance of violence in all strata of society has become a defining feature of our times Many of us live today with a pervasive sense of unease worried that our own safety is at risk or that of our loved ones or that of people whose bad circumstances appear to us through networked media Violence feels ever present Natasha Lennard and Brad Evans help us to analyze those feelings

talking with a wide range of thinkers in order to gain insight into the worst of what humans do and challenging us to imagine a world in which violence is no longer a given Their book is full of surprising insights and intelligent compassion Sarah Leonard co editor of The Future We Want Radical Ideas for the New Century In Violence Brad Evans and Natasha Lennard have created alongside their interview subjects a kaleidoscopic exploration of the concept of violence in terrains expected and not in prose taut and unexpectedly gorgeous Their philosophical rigor provides the reader with an intellectual arsenal against the violence of the current moment Molly Crabapple author of Drawing Blood We would be wise to read this collection with a similar eye toward service and in so doing open ourselves up to the rare mercy of no longer having to stand on our own Alana Massey author of All The Lives I Want The range of interviews with leading academics to filmmakers and artists is impressive at once immediate and relevant but also profoundly philosophical More essentially though the conversations underline the need and suggest ways to resist and organize in a visionary way in the extraordinary times we live in Razia Iqbal BBC News Notable contemporary thinkers and creators give their individual perspectives in this compelling look at violence A provocative volume that challenges humanity to correct its runaway course toward an increasingly violent future by learning from its violent past Kirkus Reviews The purpose of the work is to challenge humanity to create more meaningful solutions when it comes to these kinds of violence or at least to name violence without inadvertently inciting even more anger passion roars through every chapter This book delivers on what it promises which is an achievement Alison Gately The Los Angeles Review of Books If you wish to read the intellectualization of violence Violence is a phenomenal anthology Brad Evans and Natasha Lennard the interviewers and the authors of the anthology have done a remarkable job in bringing together perceptive and intelligent contributors from various fields to scout the reaches of violence Their piercing questions brought out brilliant responses from the interviewees L Ali Khan New York Journal of Books Violence Humans in Dark Times is an intriguing beginning to a much needed sustained intellectual and aesthetic response to the horrors of modern times Zoe Vorsino Theater after Film Martin Harries, 2025-05-23 A study of the impact of film and mass culture on drama after World War II In Theater after Film Martin Harries argues that after 1945 as cinema became omnipresent in popular culture theater had to respond to cinema s hegemony Theater couldn t break that hegemony but it could provide a zone of contestation Theater made film s domination of the cultural field visible through hyperbole refusal and other strategies thereby unsettling its power Postwar theatrical experiment Harries shows often channeled and represented film s mass cultural force while knowing that it could never possess that force Throughout the book Harries brings critical theory into contact with theories of performance Although Theater after Film treats the theatrical work of many figures its central focus falls on Tennessee Williams Samuel Beckett and Adrienne Kennedy Discussions of these dramatists consider their ways of addressing spectators the politics of race between film and theater and the place of the theatrical apparatus Readings of these central figures in twentieth century theater exemplify the book s historical engagement with the media surround that drama confronted This confrontation Harries shows was central to the development of some of the most continually compelling postwar drama Philosophy and Fiction Schuy R. Weishaar, 2022-11-18 Fiction lies in order to tell the truth and seeks reality through shadows Philosophy attempts to dispel false realities it pursues clear understanding of things as they are While the relation of philosophy and fiction is perhaps paradoxical they implicate one another's picture of human experience This book uses fiction to help readers process philosophical themes and the philosophical reflection in turn helps clarify the fiction The study moves through roughly a hundred years of modern fiction from Washington Irving's The Devil and Tom Walker 1824 through James M Cain's Double Indemnity 1936 Several classic works of literary fiction are examined a few largely forgotten stories and several popular novels Reading fiction through the lens of philosophy helps readers perceive the complexity and richness of fiction reinvigorating the pursuit of wisdom that lies just beneath the surface of the words on the page Exploring Text, Media, and Memory Patrizia Lombardo, Lars SAetre, Lars S'tre, Sara Tanderup Linkis, 2018-12-31 Exploring Text Media and Memory investigates the link between memory and media by asking a series of questions pertinent to our time How do individual and collective memories blend How do traumatic experiences from past events and catastrophic projections of the future reveal the human condition in the epoch of frenetic technological reproduction of works of art How is the human body tied to narrations and why A group of international scholars tackle questions like these across art forms media and cultural history In nineteen essays they argue that modern and contemporary literary texts and visual arts show how photography film tape recording television and internet are not just means of storing memory and information but objects that we interact with every day challenging static visions of places and the linear notions of past present and future
