Most Deserving of Death? Kenneth Williams, 2016-04-15 The role of capital punishment in America has been criticised by those for and against the death penalty by the judiciary academics the media and by prison personnel This book demonstrates that it is the inconsistent and often incoherent jurisprudence of the United States Supreme Court which accounts for a system so lacking in public confidence Using case studies Kenneth Williams examines issues such as jury selection ineffective assistance of counsel the role of race and claims of innocence which affect the Court's decisions and how these decisions are played out in the lower courts often an inmate's last recourse before execution Discussing international treaties and their lack of impact on capital punishment in America this book has international appeal and makes an important contribution to legal scholarship It also provides a unique understanding of the dynamics of an alarmingly problematic system and will be valuable to those interested in human rights and criminal justice

Miller Jr, 2012-09-10 What could be more fun than a deer hunting trip to the mountains near Prescott Arizona in November 1895 At least it seems that way to Southern Pacific Railroad Detective Pima Gallagher his 12 year old stepdaughter Scout Walker and several other family members and friends until one of the group ends up with a knife in the back Complicating matters are a howling blizzard and the sudden appearance of three murdering outlaws With Pima slogging through the snow chasing outlaws and Scout hot on Pima's trail things go from bad to worse until Pima and Scout's survival hangs by a thread Back home in Tucson with the original murder unsolved Scout afraid she's going to be accused of the murder runs away to a nearby mission to hide Finally everything is resolved but not until after a confession of murder
