Muhammad in the Digital Age Ruqayya Yasmine Khan,2015-11-15 The early twenty first century has experienced an unrivaled dissemination of information and misinformation about Islam its prophet Muhammad and its followers largely facilitated by the fact that the tragedy of 9 11 roughly coincided with the advent of the digital age In the first collection of its kind Ruqayya Khan has compiled essays that treat Muhammad and the core elements of Islam as focal points in an exploration of how the digital era including social media and other expressions have both had an effect on and been affected by Islam Scholars from a variety of fields deal with topics such as the 2005 cartoon controversy in Denmark and the infamous 2012 movie trailer Innocence of Muslims that some believe sparked the attacks on the US consulate in Benghazi as well as how the digitization of ancient texts have allowed the origins of Islam to be studied in new ways Other essays examine how Muhammad s wives have been represented in various online sources including a web comic the contrasting depictions of Muhammad as both a warrior and peacemaker and how the widespread distribution of the look of Islamic terrorists has led to attacks on Sikhs whose only point of resemblance to them may be a full beard These findings illuminate the role of the Internet in forms of representation advocacy and engagement concerning Islam and Muslims in our world today

Shadow of the Swords Kamran Pasha,2010-06-22 An epic saga of love and war Shadow of the Swords tells the story of the Crusades from the Muslim perspective Saladin a Muslim sultan finds himself pitted against King Richard the Lionheart as Islam and Christianity clash against each other launching a conflict that still echoes today In the midst of a brutal and unforgiving war Saladin finds forbidden love in the arms of Miriam a beautiful Jewish girl with a tragic past But when King Richard captures Miriam the two most powerful men on Earth must face each other in a personal battle that will determine the future of the woman they both love and of all civilization Richly imagined deftly plotted and highly entertaining Shadow of the Swords is a remarkable story that will stay with readers long after the final page has been turned Mom Candy Jena Pincott,2013-04-15 A treasury of quotes for mothers shares insights into topics ranging from a baby's arrival to the bonds shared with grown children in a work that includes thoughts from such women as Hillary Clinton Michelle Obama and Tina Fey Shadows of My Memories Riffat Chaudhry,2013-11-25 Shadows of My Memories is more than just a memoir it is a labor of love borne of the strength and faith of an extraordinary woman who exemplifies the American dream Kelly Alpert Vest Director of Community International Relations Suffolk Y Jewish Community Center Commack New York America is a better place not only because families like hers have made their home here but also because they have brought generous attitudes with them The Reverend Thomas Goodhue Executive Director Long Island Council of Churches New York Riffat Chaudhry shares with us a remarkable journey of struggle triumph and transformation In her story we can see the true power of faith at work in a Muslim woman's life Kamran Pasha Author of Mother of the Believers and Shadow of the Swords Every English speaking person with origins in the Asian subcontinent should read this book to keep humanity alive Chapter 3 is a must read Arvind Vora Chairman Long Island Multi Faith Forum New York When Islam Is Not a Religion Asma T Uddin,2019-07-09 American Muslim religious liberty lawyer Asma Uddin has long considered her work defending people of all faiths to be a calling more than a job Yet even as she seeks equal protection for Evangelicals Sikhs Muslims Native Americans Jews and Catholics alike she has seen an ominous increase in attempts to criminalize Islam and exclude Muslim Americans from those protections Somehow the view that Muslims aren't human enough for human rights or constitutional protections is moving from the fringe to the mainstream along with the claim Islam is not a religion This conceit is not just a threat to the First Amendment rights of American Muslims It is a threat to the freedom of all Americans Her new book reveals a significant but overlooked danger to our religious liberty Woven throughout this national saga is Uddin's own story and the stories of American Muslims and other people of faith who have faced tremendous indignities as they attempt to live and worship freely Combining her experience of Islam as a religious truth and her legal and philosophical appreciation that all individuals have a right to religious liberty Uddin examines the shifting tides of American culture and outlines a way forward for individuals and communities navigating today's culture wars The Lives of Muhammad Kecia Ali,2014-10-07 Kecia Ali delves into the many ways the Prophet's life story has been told from the earliest days of Islam to the present by both Muslims and non Muslims Emphasizing the major transformations since the nineteenth century she shows that far from being mutually opposed these various perspectives have become increasingly interdependent Love, InshAllah Nura Maznavi,Ayesha Mattu,2012-02-17 This book that strips off the traditional trappings of Islamic womanhood to expose the special strengths and vulnerabilities that lie beneath The Washington Post affirms the reality of the romantic lives of Muslim women Romance dating sex and Muslim women In this groundbreaking collection twenty five American Muslim writers sweep aside stereotypes to share their search for love openly for the first time showing just how varied the search for love can be from singles events and online dating to college flirtations and arranged marriages all with a uniquely Muslim twist These stories are filled with passion and hope loss and longing A quintessential blonde California girl travels abroad to escape suffocating responsibilities at home only to fall in love with a handsome Brazilian stranger she may never see again An orthodox African American woman must face her growing attraction to her female friend A young girl defies her South Asian parents cultural expectations with an interracial relationship And a Southern woman agrees to consider an arranged marriage with surprising results These compelling stories of love and romance create an irresistible balance of heart warming and tantalizing always revealing and deeply relatable A beautiful collection that reminds us all not only of the diversity of the American Muslim community but the universality of the human condition especially when it comes to something as magical and complicated as love Reza Aslan 1 New York Times bestselling author of God A Human History Portraits of private lives that expose a group in some cases kept literally veiled yet that also illustrate that American Muslim women grapple with universal issues The New York Times

Shahid Zafar Qasmi, The Mothers of the Believers Halime Demiresçik, 2023-08-17 One of the most important characteristics which form a perfect and concrete example of the Prophet Muhammad saw is the way he lived his family life He established a superior most virtuous and happiest home with his wives who had different ages cultures abilities and characters That home that he established was so full of patience and beauty that the scent of happiness covered them even though for days they were not able to cook a single hot meal due to lack of food In addition in that holy home the room of each wife was merely a place to lay one's head. However in that home the most delicious provisions were acceptance, patience and submission. His education method that he practiced in his family life filled their hearts with a limitless devotion and affection. No wife can love their husband to the degree that the Holy Mothers loved the Prophet saw. No husband can love his wife to the degree of the Messenger's love for his holy wives. No child can love his or her father to the degree that Hz Fatima loved her father. No father can love their child as much as Allah's Messenger loved Hz Fatima. This is also true for grandchildren. Our mother Hz Fatima, the apple of the eye of the Ehl Bayt, who was one of the rare roses of this exceptional rose garden, means many things to the mothers and fathers these days. Her life was short but adorned with taqwa, the awareness of Allah swt. She shows them in a lively way that raising a child required a big effort and responsibility and that the children's futures were in Allah's hands. The only purpose in that spiritual home, which had between its members a sense of deep affection, sacrifice and attachment, was the reaching of Allah's acceptance. In that home the biggest worry was about losing Allah's swt and His Messenger's saw affection and acceptance. The Prophet's saw exceptional wives were the recipients of the honor of being the Mothers of the Believers by Allah's command. They observed the Prophet saw as he received the inspirations of Quran and while he was praying while he was reading Quran, eating, speaking and sleeping. Shortly in every point of life they were cognizant of his spiritual mysteries which were far from all other eyes. They past their lives with the sensitivity of deserving this big honor and virtue and they became to the women of the ummah community the best guides and teachers. Thousands of hadiths were reported from them which explain the characteristics, attitude and sunnet actions and sayings of the Prophet saw. The book that is in your hands which tells the story of the perfect human and family head and also that of his family life and his wives is like the summary of this very important and detailed subject. In society today where many social and family problems are lived and divorce increases day by day and the struggling children of these broken homes increase, we need to know the holy and model home of the Prophet saw very much to the degree that we can smell the compassion, mercy, peace and inspiration.
