Ben-Pazi, 2025-09-30 The philosophy of Emmanuel Levinas introduces a groundbreaking shift in ethical discourse by prioritizing the uniqueness of the Other Levinas redefines morality by emphasizing the existential precedence of the Other over the self challenging the self centered nature of modern individualism This book offers a fresh perspective on Levinas thought contextualizing his philosophy through his intellectual influences dialogues with contemporaries and imagined conversations with thinkers from both Eastern and Western traditions It provides a profound exploration of the interplay between Jewish thought and universal philosophy bridging particularistic commitments and global ethical perspectives Accessible yet deeply scholarly the book brings Levinas philosophy into broader social religious political and interpretative contexts making it an essential read for intellectual audiences

Transnational Visual Activism for Women's Reproductive

Rights Basia Sliwinska, 2024-09-30 Focusing on art practices that advocate raise consciousness and educate about the human right to reproductive health this book analyses and compares forms of feminist activism to interrogate bodily rights while closely examining the lived experiences of women and their right of free choice The transnational framing engages with resurgent imperialist and colonial ambitions across global politics and with the attempts at disrupting these positionings by prioritising feminist care as instrumental for democracy and social justice Key foci of this book include the ways in which arts activism operates and its strategies and methods related to for example the types of artistic practice employed approaches to dissemination and reach and engaging the public The analysis of these topics interrogates the potential of arts activism to work while other forms of activism may stumble leading social change in thinking practice and finally legislation Countries covered include Finland Poland Portugal Latvia the United Kingdom Chile Brazil the United States and Australia The book will be of interest to students and scholars studying art history art theory and practice gender studies and women s studies Chapters 2 and 3 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Chapter 4 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license

Refiguring the Postmaternal Maria Fannin, Maud Perrier, 2018-10-16 This book explores the concept of the postmaternal as a response to changing cultural political and economic conditions for motherhood and responds to Julie Stephens contention that gender neutral feminism has led to a forgetting of the maternal within feminist memory In Confronting Postmaternal Thinking: Feminism, Memory, Care 2011 Stephens identifies a significant cultural anxiety about care giving nurturing and human dependency she calls postmaternal thinking Stephens argues that maternal forms of care have been rejected in the public sphere and marginalised to the private domain through an elaborate process of cultural forgetting in turn contributing to the current dominance of a degendered form of feminism This book argues that refiguring postmaternalism requires opening up the maternal beyond the category of mothers and the nuclear family The chapters in this edited volume contribute to the field of maternal studies by investigating the connections between maternalism feminism and neoliberalism through diverse feminist theories cases and methodologies We challenge Stephens diagnosis of the forgetting of certain forms of maternal practices from feminism s history by highlighting the ongoing contested place of the maternal in feminist scholarship and activism for the last five decades We argue that the memorializing of the maternal in feminist scholarship needs to reflect its diverse legacies in the analyses of black feminism socialist feminism and ecofeminism in order to destabilise the association of the maternal with neoliberalism and the depoliticization of feminism This book was originally published as a special issue of Australian Feminist Studies

Philosophical Inquiries into Pregnancy, Childbirth, and Mothering Sheila Lintott, Maureen Sander-Staudt, 2013-03-01 Philosophical inquiry into pregnancy childbirth and mothering is a growing area of interest to academic philosophers This volume brings together a diverse group of philosophers to speak about topics in this reemerging area of philosophical inquiry taking up new themes such as maternal aesthetics and pursuing old ones in new ways such as investigating stepmothering as it might inform and ground an ethics of care The theoretical foci of the book include feminist existential ethical aesthetic phenomenological social and political theories These perspectives are then employed to consider many dimensions of pregnancy childbirth and mothering which are of central importance to human existence but are only rarely discussed in philosophical canons Topics include pregnancy and embodiment breast feeding representations or the lack thereof of pregnant and birthing women adoption and post partum motherhood

Body Aesthetics Sherri Irvin, 2016-09-06 The body is a rich object for aesthetic inquiry We aesthetically assess both our own bodies and those of others and our felt bodily experiences as we eat have sex and engage in other everyday activities have aesthetic qualities The body whether depicted or actively performing features centrally in aesthetic experiences of visual art theatre dance and sports Body aesthetics can be a source of delight for both the subject and the object of the gaze But aesthetic consideration of bodies also raises acute ethical questions the body is deeply intertwined with one's identity and sense of self and aesthetic assessment of bodies can perpetuate oppression based on race gender identity sexual orientation age size and disability Artistic and media representations shape how we see and engage with bodies with consequences both personal and political This volume contains sixteen original essays by contributors in philosophy sociology dance disability theory critical race studies feminist theory medicine and law Contributors take on bodily beauty sexual attractiveness the role of images in power relations the distinct aesthetics of disabled bodies the construction of national identity the creation of compassion through bodily presence the role of bodily style in moral comportment and the somatic aesthetics of racialized police violence Thinking about Friendship Damian Caluori, 2012-10-24 It's hard to imagine a good life without friends But why is friendship so valuable What is friendship at all What unites friends and distinguishes them from others Is the preference given to friends rationally and morally justifiable This collection examines answers given by classic philosophers and offers new answers by contemporary thinkers
