by which we refer to this as non knowledge or agnosis There has also been a lack of scholarship which examines how human victimization and power intersects by and through the systematic orchestration of forced ignorance and doubt upon daily human life This book s focus is an examination of the ways in which people find themselves in social spaces without empirical clarity and understand that absence as satisfaction stability or perhaps even pleasure It discusses a range of topics including for example people s sense of relative safety despite empirical realities suggesting otherwise This book seeks to make visible the role of ignorance in governing society highlighting how the late modern human experience in a post World War II human rights era subsumes subverts and sublimates the complex relationship between knowledge and denial the empirical gulf between knowledge and resistance may indeed breed complicit bliss      Maternal Geographies Jennufer L.

Johnson,2019-05-01 This collection broaches the intersections of critical motherhood studies and feminist geography Contributors demonstrate that an important dimension of the social construction of motherhood is how mothering happens in space and place leading to the articulation of diverse maternal geographies Through 16 concise chapters divided into three thematic sections the contributors provide an account of motherhood and mothering as spatial practices that are embedded in relations of power across time and place While some contributors explore how dominant discourses of motherhood seek to keep mothers in their place others take up the notion of maternal geographies as productive in their own right and follow their subjects as they create a new sense of place Collectively the authors demonstrate that mothers are produced and regulated as subjects in relation to space and place and also that practices of mothering produce spatial relationships
