Mothers Tell Your Daughters Stories:

Mothers, Tell Your Daughters Bonnie Jo Campbell, 2025-04-25 Bonnie Jo Campbell is a master of rural America's postindustrial landscape Boston Globe Named by the Guardian as one of our top ten writers of rural noir Bonnie Jo Campbell is a keen observer of life and trouble in rural America and her working class protagonists can be at once vulnerable wise cruel and funny The strong but flawed women of Mothers Tell Your Daughters must negotiate a sexually charged atmosphere as they love honor and betray one another against the backdrop of all the men in their world Such richly fraught mother daughter relationships can be lifelines anchors or they can sink a woman like a stone In My Dog Roscoe a new bride becomes obsessed with the notion that her dead ex boyfriend has returned to her in the form of a mongrel In Blood Work 1999 a phlebotomist's desire to give away everything to the needy awakens her own sensuality In Home to Die an abused woman takes revenge on her bedridden husband In these fearless and darkly funny tales about women and those they love Campbell's spirited American voice is at its most powerful

Michigan Salvage Lisa DuRose, Ross Tangedal, Andy Oler, 2023-05-01 Michigan Salvage is the first scholarly collection on celebrated writer Bonnie Jo Campbell the author of two novels and three short story collections including National Book Award finalist American Salvage 2009 Her writing captures a diverse and bustling rural America brimming with complex characters who struggle with addiction poverty and land degradation issues that have become undeniably part of the southwestern Michigan landscape that she calls home The essays in this volume demonstrate many rich ways to approach Campbell's writing from historical and cultural overviews to essays examining the class and gender implications of her stories and novels to teaching essays highlighting how to use her work in the classroom and beyond Along with each essay Michigan Salvage also features lesson plans and writing prompts meant to spark discussion and encourage further investigation into these stories and novels This essential and teachable collection makes plain Campbell's contributions to contemporary American literature

Iron Butterfly, The Choon-Ok Jade Harmon, Ana Maria Rodriguez, 2011-02-08 Choon Ok Harmon was born soon after the Korean War when South Korea was experiencing extreme poverty This memoir describes the hardships she tried to overcome to achieve a better life She moves to the U S and through patience and perseverance pursues her dream of becoming a martial artist

Lock and Load Deirdra McAfee, Betty Joyce Nash, 2017-11-01 Nothing says America louder than a gun As the short stories assembled here demonstrate firearms loom as large in our imaginations as in the news In this unforgettable anthology the common theme and the essential object is the gun These striking stories from such famous authors as Annie Proulx Bonnie Jo Campbell and John Edgar Wideman plus a talented group of newcomers range widely from tender to violent from chilling to hilarious Tales of love war coming of age and revenge they occur in landscapes familiar or ordinary distant or dystopian and reflect Americans' particular obsession with and paranoia about guns This masterful and thought provoking collection moves beyond the polarized rhetoric surrounding firearms to spark genuine discussion

McBride, 2017-10-31 When women are told that what is important about us is how we look it becomes increasingly difficult for us to feel comfortable with our appearance and how we feel about our bodies We are told over and over if we just lost weight fit into those old jeans or into a new smaller pair we will be happier and feel better about ourselves The truth is so many women despise their appearance weight and shape that experts who study women s body image now consider this feeling to be normal But it does not have to be that way It is possible for us as women to love ourselves our bodies as we are We need a new story about what it means to be a woman in this world Based on her original research Hillary L McBride shares the true stories of young women and their mothers and provides unique insights into how our relationships with our bodies are shaped by what we see around us and the specific things we can do to have healthier relationships with our appearance and all the other parts of ourselves that make us women In Mothers Daughters and Body Image McBride tells her own story of recovery from an eating disorder and how her struggles led her to dream of a new vision for womanhood from one without body shame negative comparisons or insecurities to one of freedom connection and acceptance In Her Mother's House Wendy Ho, 1999 Unwilling to see Asian American women silenced beneath the noisy discourses of feminists cultural nationalists and Eurocentric historians Wendy Ho turns to specific spoken stories of mothers and daughters Against reductive tendencies of scholarship she places her own conversations with her China born grandmother and her U S born mother and her own readings of other Asian American women writers She finds in the writings of Maxine Hong Kingston Amy Tan and Fae Myenne Ng not only complex mother daughter relationships but many faceted relationships to fathers family community and culture Always resisting the simplistic explanations In Her Mother s House brings Asian American women s experience as mothers and daughters to the forefront of gender and ethnicity American Motherhood, 1908 I Have the Answer Kelly Fordon, 2020-04-07 Short stories that manage to feel both fantastical and disturbingly familiar If you thought the suburbs were boring think again Kelly Fordon s I Have the Answer artfully mixes the fabulist with the workaday and illuminates relationships and characters with crisp elegant prose and dark wit The stories in Fordon s latest collection are disquieting humorous and thought provoking They might catch you off guard but are always infused with deep humanity and tenderness In these thirteen short stories Fordon presents people dealing with the grayness of reality and longing for transcendence Characters within these stories are often as surprised by their own behavior as that of their neighbors In Jungle Life the narrator attempts to clarify and document the stories of his father a war veteran before he descends into dementia In Where's the Baby a woman reflects on her difficult childhood as she grudgingly cares for her more successful yet exasperating sister In In the Dog House a woman visits an estate sale and sifts through the layers of lifetimes past while grappling with her long standing jealousy of a mysterious neighbor In The Shorebirds and The Shaman a woman who has just lost her husband winds up at a kooky weekend retreat role playing her way out of debilitating grief Award winning author Desiree Cooper has called the stories in I Have the Answer pitch perfect Fordon takes us to the precipice where trauma and triumph are equal possibilities The people in these stories are so hauntingly real that long after I put the book down I found myself wondering what had become of them Readers of contemporary fiction and short stories will enjoy mulling over the complicated feelings this collection evokes

The Language of Mothers Rain Wright, 2025-02-12 The Language of Mothers is a hybrid memoir grounded in the power of prose and poetry It is an imaginative tapestry of women's storytelling that punctures narrative craft to illuminate the inheritance of domestic trauma and the voicing of familial stories that are healing spaces that carry through time The Language of Mothers is about two mothers caught in abusive relationships impoverished with children with few avenues of escape These stories shed light on the culture of American motherhood as a failure for women perpetuating a system of patriarchal ideals that only values the nuclear family as whole spaces of abundance love and worth At nineteen Rain Wright's mother left Dronfield England traveling through Europe before landing in New York in the turbulent 1960s Swept up in the changing societal wave Elizabeth her mother travels to California where she meets her future abuser Rain's father This memoir is the story of Elizabeth's courageous escape with three young children and it is the story of Rain's escape decades later The Language of Mothers navigates the inheritance of trauma finding that storytelling and art for both women become the impetus for healing Elizabeth packs her children's belongings in black plastic bags and hides them in the brush along Elk Ridge Road in California making her daring escape with the help of friends and an ex lover She flies with her children across an ocean to the safety of Hawai'i where she finds art lomi lomi music and security After Elizabeth's passing from breast cancer in 1996 her stories inherited from years of car rides around Hawai'i Island are the language of mythmaking The Language of Mothers is an intimate look at why women stay too long in abusive relationships and an act of defiance and regenerative love Rain's story is a tapestry of early childhood trauma as witness to her mother's abuse domestic terror at the hands of her children's father and her own escape narrative The Language of Mothers deeply sees the aftereffects of domestic abuse including her eldest daughter's suicide attempts her middle daughter's strive for perfection and her youngest daughter's need for control through anorexia Women's stories can heal Rain interweaves traumatic parts of her past but recounts acts of love telling her daughters stories and becoming their storyteller Healing the Infertile Family Gay Becker,2023-11-15 Unlike most infertility books that focus on medical treatment Healing the Infertile Family examines the social and emotional problems experienced by couples confronting infertility and suggests how they can be alleviated In this updated edition Gay Becker discusses her most recent study of couples experiencing infertility and offers guidelines for resolution of this common problem that will enable couples to face the future with hope This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1990 Talking Up a Storm Gregory Lynn Morris,2016-07 In interviews with fifteen contemporary writers of the American West Gregory L Morris demonstrates what these widely divergent talents have in common they all redefine what it is to be a western writer No longer enthralled though sometimes inspired by the literary traditions of openness place and rugged individualism each of the writers has remained true to the demand for clarity strength and honesty virtues sustained in their conversations Morris talks with Ralph Beer Mary Clearman Blew Elizabeth Cook Lynn James Crumley Ivan Doig Gretel Ehrlich Richard Ford Molly Gloss Ron Hansen John Keeble William Kittredge David Long Thomas McGuane Amy Tan and Douglas Unger Their lives and fiction stretch from Montana to Texas from ranches to universities from sea level to mountain slopes New Micro James Thomas,Robert Scotellaro,2025-04-25 A new collection of very short stories selected by Flash Fiction editor James Thomas and Robert Scotellaro All of the stories in this book are exceptionally short revealing themselves in no more than 300 words With a foreword by Robert Shapard and an afterword by Christopher Merrill this book brings you fresh approaches to an exacting form that demands precision a species of brevity that is surprisingly expansive Writers say the pieces are hard to compose but readers say they are easy to appreciate a pleasure to envision a wonder to watch life spun out and painted in small places Real and surreal lyrical and prosaic here are 135 stories by 89 authors certain to make you think The PTA Magazine ,1914 Renegotiating Patriarchy Naila Kabeer,2024-09-26 The idea of the Bangladesh paradox describes the unexpected social progress that Bangladesh has made in recent decades that has been both pro poor and gender equitable This began at a time when the country was characterised by extreme levels of poverty poor quality governance an oppressive patriarchy and rising Islamic orthodoxy This paradox has evoked a great deal of interest within the international development community because Bangladesh had been dubbed an international basket case at the time of its independence in 1971 seemingly trapped in a development impasse Previous attempts to explain this paradox have generally taken a top down approach focusing on the role of leading institutional actors donors government NGOs and the private sector In Renegotiating Patriarchy Gender Agency and the Bangladesh Paradox Naila Kabeer starts with the rationale that policy actions taken at the top are unlikely to materialise into actual changes if they are not acted on by the mass of ordinary women and men But what led these women and men to act And why did they act in ways that modified some of the more oppressive aspects of patriarchy in the country That is what this book sets out to investigate It describes the history of the Bengal delta and the forces that gave rise to the kind of society that Bangladesh was at the time of its independence It considers the policy and politics that characterised post independence Bangladesh and how these contributed to the progress captured in the idea of the Bangladesh paradox But the key argument of the book is that much of this progress reflected the agency exercised by ordinary often very poor women in the course of their everyday lives Their agency helped to translate institutional actions into concrete changes on the ground To explore why and how this happened the book draws on a rich body of ethnographic qualitative and quantitative research on social change in Bangladesh including studies by the author herself The book is therefore about how norms and practices can change in progressive ways despite unpropitious circumstances as a result of the efforts of poor women in Bangladesh to renegotiate what had been described as one of the most non negotiable patriarchies in the world
