

5 effective styles of conflict management

1

Accommodating

The accommodating style is used when the intention is to maintain peace and the issue is given lesser importance.

2

Avoiding

This style is recommended if the issue is trivial, or when you don't have the time for resolution, or feel that the chances of winning are low.

3

Compromising

It is useful whenever there is a need for rapid resolution. Though it aims to achieve a win-win solution, it might leave some parties dissatisfied.

4

Collaborating

This method is resorted to when there is no urgency for resolving the conflict.

5

Competing

This style is highly assertive and involves less cooperation. Usually, it is used when unpopular decisions have to be implemented.

Managing Conflict in Organizations M. Afzalur Rahim, 2017-07-12

After much debate by business professionals organizational conflict is now considered normal and legitimate it may even be a positive indicator of effective organizational management Within certain limits conflict can be essential to productivity This book contributes to the investigation of organizational conflict by analyzing its origins forms benefits and consequences Conflict has benefits it may lead to solutions to problems creativity and innovation In contrast little or no conflict in organizations may lead to stagnation poor decisions and ineffectiveness

Managing Conflict in Organizations is a vigorous analysis of the rational application of conflict theory in organizations Conflict is inevitable among humans It is a natural outcome of human interaction that begins when two or more social entities engage one another while striving to attain their own objectives Relationships among people or organizations become incompatible or inconsistent when two or more of them desire a similar resource that is in short supply when they do not share behavioral preferences regarding their joint action or when they have different attitudes values beliefs and skills This book examines these root causes of organizational conflict and offers constructive perspectives on its consequences

Administrative Thinkers D. Ravindra Prasad, V. Sivalinga Prasad, P. Satyanarāyaṇa, 1991

Managing Church Conflict Hugh F. Halverstadt, 1991-01-01 This instructive useful book which can be used as a model for addressing ministries church systems and other non profit organizations in conflict offers ways of constraining those who act as antagonists and ways of collaborating with opponents

Creative Strategies for Conflict Management & Community Building Christian Ndubueze Anyanwu, 2009-11 This book in applying the asset mapping theory of Kretzmann and McKnight 1993 developed a positive communication strategy for minimizing conflicts and building a more Collaborative Communities in Organizations and Churches with much emphasis on inclusivity consensus and commitment to common vision and ideals While critically reviewing the traditional conflict theories in their approaches to conflict management the book uses the new lens provided by the asset mapping theory to recommend for a paradigm shift in the way people look at organizations and conflicts A new emphasis therefore is on the positive elements in organizations the assets that lie within individuals and groups as the key to minimizing conflict in organizations Besides unlike the traditional conflict theories which sees conflict as a problem this new lens sees conflict within organizations as functional and opportunities for growth The book equally identifies some of the significant factors that cause ethnic conflicts within organizations such as Prejudices among Ethnic Groups Differences of Ethnic Groups Power Struggle among Ethnic Groups Discrimination and Injustice against Groups Lack of Participatory Communication and Lack of Participatory Leadership Finally in reviewing the relevant literatures on Community Building the book underlines the various variables that make

Community Building possible Such variables include Discovering and Mobilizing the Assets of Individuals and Groups within Organizations Building Relationships among Individuals and Groups within Organizations Building a more Participatory Leadership within Organizations Building a more Participatory Communication within Organizations Creating more Awareness on the necessity of Collaborative Initiatives as well as Promoting the Common Cultural Values and Ideals that holds Individuals and Groups together within Organization
