ARTICLE B

Three people have been killed and 15 injured after a gunman attacked a food festival in California.

The gunman was shot dead by police shortly after he began firing, although police are investigating reports that a second suspect may still be at large.

The Gilroy Garlic Festival was about to end for the weekend on Sunday evening, when shots were fired at the site.

Six-year-old Stephen Romero is the first of the dead to be identified. His mother and grandmother were wounded.

It was the 246th mass shooting in the US this year, according to US tracking website Gun Violence Archive.

The killer has been identified as 19-year-old Santino William Legan, according to CBS News.

Witnesses say he was wearing camouflage, and used a rifle during the attack.

The suspect entered the festival after cutting through a perimeter fence, Gilroy Chief of Police Scot Smith told reporters. He said witnesses reported that a second suspect may have been involved, possibly in a support role.
