planning political control social inclusion participation learning education and appropriation in the production of everyday urbanism In the context of the Greater Bay Area such spaces and practices also present opportunities for reconfiguring design driven urban practice beyond traditional interventions manifested by the design of physical objects and public amenities to the design of new social protocols processes infrastructures and capabilities This is a captivating new dimension of urbanism and critical urban practice and will be of interest to academics students and practitioners interested in urbanization in China

Public Space Unbound Sabine Knierbein, Tihomir Viderman, 2018-03-15 Through an exploration of emancipation in recent processes of capitalist urbanization this book argues the political is enacted through the everyday practices of publics producing space This suggests democracy is a spatial practice rather than an abstract professional field organized by institutions politicians and movements Public Space Unbound brings together a cross disciplinary group of scholars to examine spaces conditions and circumstances in which emancipatory practices impact the everyday life of citizens We ask How do emancipatory practices relate with public space under post political conditions In a time when democracy solidarity and utopias are in crisis we argue that productive emancipatory claims already exist in the lived space of everyday life rather than in the expectation of urban revolution and future progress

Public Space Reader Miodrag Mitrašinić, Vikas Mehta, 2021-03-30 Recent global appropriations of public spaces through urban activism public uprising and political protest have brought back democratic values beliefs and practices that have been historically associated with cities Given the aggressive commodification of public resources public space is critically important due to its capacity to enable forms of public discourse and social practice which are fundamental for the well being of democratic societies Public Space Reader brings together public space scholarship by a cross disciplinary group of academics and specialists whose essays consider fundamental questions What is public space and how does it manifest larger cultural social and political processes How are public spaces designed socially and materially produced and managed How does this impact the nature and character of public experience What roles does it play in the struggles for the just city and the Right to The City What critical participatory approaches can be employed to create inclusive public spaces that respond to the diverse needs desires and aspirations of individuals and communities alike What are the critical global and comparative perspectives on public space that can enable further scholarly and professional work And what are the futures of public space in the face of global pandemics such as COVID 19 The readers of this volume will be rewarded with an impressive array of perspectives that are bound to expand critical understanding of public space

Informality through Sustainability

Antonino Di Raimo,Steffen Lehmann,Alessandro Melis,2020-12-30 Informality through Sustainability explores the phenomenon of informality within urban settlements and aims to unravel the subtle links between informal settlements and sustainability Penetrating its global profile and considering urban informality through an understanding of local implications the authors collectively reveal specific correlations between sites and their local inhabitants The book opposes simplistic calls to legalise informal settlements or to view them as problems to be solved It comes at a time when common notions of informality are being increasingly challenged In 25 chapters the book presents contributions from well known scholars and practitioners whose theoretical or practical work addresses informality and sustainability at various levels from city planning and urban design to public space and architectural education Whilst previous studies on informal settlements have mainly focused on cases in developing countries approaching the topic through social cultural and material dimensions the book explores the concept across a range of contexts including former Communist countries and those in the so called Global North

Contributions also explore understandings of informality at various scalar levels region precinct neighbourhood and individual building Thus this work helps reposition informality as a relational concept at various scales of urbanisation This book will be of great benefit to planners architects researchers and policymakers interested in the interplay between informality and sustainability

Living Politics in the City Marion Hohlfeldt ,Carmen Popescu,2023-03-15 Public space and performativity from the perspective of architecture In recent decades architecture has been seen as a field of practice that contributes greatly to the performativity of public space In spite of the explosion of virtual communities through social media and the limitations imposed by pandemics architecture today still holds an active role in literally building our societies Bearing in mind its acute politicisation in past years Living Politics in the City looks at public space from the perspective of architecture and its effective contribution not as a prop but as an actual catalyst for embodying politics The essays gathered here span five continents activating various disciplinary approaches to architecture and examining it in different contexts from a Palestinian refugee camp to the most vibrant urban axis in Sao Paolo from the numerous city squares around the world crowded with rebellious populations to the proximal politics of housing in Australia Contributors Endriana Audisho University of Technology Sydney Maja Babic Charles University Alexandra Biehler Ecole Nationale Sup rieure d Architecture de Marseille Tracey Bowen University of Toronto Mississauga Etienne Delprat Rennes 2 University Claudia Faraone IUAV Venice School of Architecture ETICity Caterina Frisone Oxford Brookes University Catherine Grout ENSAPL Lille Pavel Kunysz University of Li ge Flavia Marcello Swinburne University of Technology Eric Le Coguiec University of Li ge Tova
