Nice Book Development Motivation Tomkins Relational Perspectives:

Health at Work Leah Tomkins, Katrina Pritchard, 2019-08-23 Engaging with some of the most debated topics in contemporary organizations Health at Work Critical Perspectives presents a critical contingent view of the healthy employee and the very notion of organizational health Drawing on expressions such as blowing a fuse cracking under pressure or health MOT this book suggests that meanings of workplace health vary depending on how we frame the underlying purpose and function of organization Health at Work takes some of the most powerful and taken for granted discourses of organization and explores what each might mean for the construction of the healthy employee Not only does it offer a fresh and challenging approach to the topic of health at work it also examines several core topics at the heart of contemporary research and practice including technology innovation ageing and emotions This book makes a timely contribution to debates about well being at work relevant to practitioners policy makers and designers of workplace health interventions as well as academics and students This book will be illuminating reading for students and scholars across management studies occupational health and organizational psychology

Paradox and Power in Caring Leadership Leah Tomkins, 2020-03-28 Why does it matter that our leaders care about us What might we reasonably expect from a caring leader and what price are we prepared to pay for it Is caring leadership something soft or can it be linked to strategy and delivery International scholars from the fields of ancient and modern philosophy psychology organization studies and leadership development offer a strikingly original debate on what it means for leaders to care

Well-Being Daniel Kahneman, Edward Diener, Norbert Schwarz, 1999-07-08 The nature of well being is one of the most enduring and elusive subjects of human inquiry Well Being draws upon the latest scientific research to transform our understanding of this ancient question With contributions from leading authorities in psychology social psychology and neuroscience this volume presents the definitive account of current scientific efforts to understand human pleasure and pain contentment and despair The distinguished contributors to this volume combine a rigorous analysis of human sensations emotions and moods with a broad assessment of the many factors from heredity to nationality that bear on our well being Using the tools of experimental science the contributors confront the puzzles of human likes and dislikes Why do we grow accustomed and desensitized to changes in our lives both good and bad Does our happiness reflect the circumstances of our lives or is it determined by our temperament and personality Why do humans acquire tastes for sensations that are initially painful or unpleasant By examining the roots of our everyday likes and dislikes the book also sheds light on some of the more extreme examples of attraction and aversion such as addiction and depression Among its wide ranging inquiries Well Being examines systematic differences in moods and behaviors between genders explaining why women suffer higher rates of depression and anxiety than men but are also more inclined to express positive emotions The book also makes international comparisons finding that some countries populations report higher levels of happiness than others The contributors deploy an array of methods from the surveys and questionnaires of social science to psychological and physiological experiments to develop a comprehensive new approach to the study of well being They show how the sensory pleasures of the body can tell us something about the higher pleasures of the mind and even how the effectiveness of our immune system can depend upon the health of our social relationships From Self to Social Relationships Martijn van Zomeren, 2016 Martijn van Zomeren develops salvation theory and proposes that human motivation is based around changes in social relationships
