Conceptual Shifts and Contextualized Practices in Education for Glocal Interaction Ali Fuad Selvi, Nathanael Rudolph, 2017-11-03 This book employs the realm of English Language Teaching ELT as a discursive point of departure to explore how individuals groups entities and institutions apprehend embrace deal with manipulate problematize and resist glocal flows of people ideas information goods and technology It apprehends and attends to tensions arising from the fluidly local global construction and negotiation of borders of identity and interaction within a diverse array of contexts and English education therein These tensions whether conceptual or pedagogical may arise in and through governmental and institutional policymaking teacher training or curriculum and materials development and in the learning experience both within and beyond the classroom as teachers and students engage with course content and each other

Arbitration's Age of Enlightenment? Cavinder Bull, Loretta Malintoppi, Constantine Partasides, 2023-09-12 Directly presenting the considered views of a broad cross section of the international arbitration community this timely collection of essays addresses the criticism of the arbitral process that has been voiced in recent years interpreting the challenge as an invitation to enlightenment The volume records the entire proceedings of the twenty fifth Congress of the International Council for Commercial Arbitration ICCA held in Edinburgh in September 2022 Topics range from the impact of artificial intelligence to the role of international arbitration in restraining resort to unilateralism protectionism and nationalism The contributors tackle such contentious issues as the following time and cost gender and cultural diversity confidentiality vs transparency investor State dispute settlement procedures the proposed establishment of a permanent international investment court system how cross fertilisation across different disciplines may impact international arbitration determining whether a document request seeks documents that are relevant and material to the outcome of a dispute whether we would be better off if investment arbitration were to disappear and implications for international arbitration of the Russian invasion of Ukraine There is consideration of global issues that are likely to give rise to disputes in the future including climate change environmental protection access to depleting water resources energy and mining transition and human rights initiatives Several contributions focus on developments in specific countries China India and regions Africa the Middle East Arbitrators corporate counsel and policymakers will appreciate this opportunity to engage with current thinking on key issues in international commercial and investment arbitration especially given the diversity of thought presented by authors from all over the world

The Great European Stage Directors Volume 6 Clare Finburgh Delijani, Peter M. Boenisch, 2021-10-07 This volume examines the work of Joan Littlewood Giorgio Strehler and Roger Planchon demonstrating how these three directors take up key aesthetic prompts from earlier innovators Stanislavski the modernist avant garde and not least Brecht and thereby prepare the ground for contemporary politically engaged directors theatre It argues that in creating their major productions in the prosperous glorious decades that followed the devastation of the Second World War they represent a first expressly European generation of theatre directors Revisiting works from the classical dramatic canon by drawing on popular theatre traditions and reaching out to spectators beyond the educated middle class elite they put theatre in the service of uniting a traumatized continent This study posits that for Littlewood Strehler and Planchon theatre has the capacity to create communities
