Rediscovering U.S. Newsfilm Mark Garrett Cooper,Sara Beth Levavy,Ross Melnick,Mark Williams,2018-06-14 The twentieth century generated tens of thousands of hours of American newsfilm but not the scholarly apparatus necessary to analyze and contextualize them Assembling new approaches to the study of U S newsfilm in cinema and television this book makes a long overdue critical intervention in the field of film and media studies by addressing the format s inherent intermediality its mediation of events for local national and transnational communities its distinctive archival legacies and consequently its integral place in film and television studies more broadly This collection brings fresh contemporary methodologies and analysis to bear on a vast amount of material that has languished in relative obscurity for far too long

Utopias in Nonfiction Film Simon Spiegel,2022-01-11 Comprehensive and thorough Utopias in Nonfiction

Film takes a new direction in its surprise application to documentary that has the potential to shake up the field Jane Gaines Columbia University USA Spiegel has introduced a new sub genre to utopian studies the documentary film The book covers an impressive range of films making the book one of the few truly international and comparative works in utopian studies Lyman Tower Sargent University of Missouri St Louis USA Simon Spiegel s magisterial overview of utopian documentaries and nonfiction films is a treasure trove of information and unearths many forgotten and half forgotten films providing perceptive discussions of sidelined movies that deserve his and our critical scrutiny Eckart Voigts University of Braunschweig Institute of Technology Germany This book is the first major study on utopias in nonfiction film Since the publication of Thomas More s Utopia more than 500 years ago countless books have been written which describe a better world But in film positive utopias seem to be nonexistent So far research has focused almost exclusively on dystopias since positive outlooks seem to run contrary to the media s requirement Utopias in Nonfiction Film takes a new approach starting from the insight that literary utopias are first and foremost meant as a reaction to the ills of the present and not as entertaining stories it looks at documentary and propaganda films an area which so far has been completely ignored by research Combining insights from documentary research and utopian studies a vast and very diverse corpus of films is analysed Among them are Zionist propaganda films cinematic city utopias socialist films of the future as well as web videos produced by the Islamist terrorist group ISIS

Philosophical History of Documentary, 1960-1990 Dan Geva, 2025-08-03 A Philosophical History of Documentary 1960-1990 is the second book in a three-volume set. It offers a systematic hermeneutical reading of thirty definitions of Documentary from 1960 to 1990, by then a familiar, already used and abused dialectical object of thought and practice. The book progresses chronologically through three decades of ongoing efforts by documentarians, theorists, historians, and philosophers to define Documentary, examining the philosophical foundations, ethical implications, and evolving documentarological sensibilities of these definitions. It also reassesses the intense ontological debates about Documentary, highlighting the discourse's expanding definitional landscape. Building on the first volume, which examined thirty definitions from 1895 to 1959, this work weaves an intricate hermeneutical network of interconnections among all sixty definitions. It further anticipates the third volume, which will analyze forty additional definitions of Documentary from 1991 to the present, offering a comprehensive philosophical history of the evolution of Documentary as both concept and practice. Multiculturalism, Multilingualism and the Self: Literature and Culture Studies Jacek Mydla, Małgorzata Poks, Leszek Drong, 2017-07-31 This edited collection explores the conjunction of multiculturalism and the self in literature and culture studies and brings together essays by prominent researchers interested in literature and culture whose critical perspectives inform discussions of specific examples of multicultural contexts in which individuals and communities strive to maintain their identities. The book is divided into two major parts, the first of which comprises literary representations of multiculturalism and discussions of its impasses and impacts in fictional circumstances. In turn, the second part primarily focuses on culture at large and real-life consequences. Taken together, the two complementary parts offer an illuminating and well-rounded overview of representations of multiculturalism in literature and contemporary culture from a variety of critical perspectives. Get Close Rustin Thompson, 2019-01-02 A refreshing new practical approach to documentary filmmaking. Get Close Lean Team Documentary Filmmaking equips new and veteran filmmakers with the knowhow to make artistically rewarding documentaries for less money, less hassle, and less time. Author and veteran filmmaker Rustin Thompson shows that by stripping away sidestepping or reassessing the entrenched industry hurdles—long waits for funding, the unwieldy crews, the unnecessary gear, the gauntlet of film festivals, pitch forums, and distribution networks—filmmakers can move quickly from idea to execution to finished film. Throughout the book, Thompson demystifies and de-clutters the way docs are produced today, illustrating the use of a few simple and accessible tools and techniques while still engaging with the aesthetic possibilities of the medium, its creative opportunities, and its satisfying rewards of giving back to the world. Using the essential lessons in Get Close, filmmakers will learn to eliminate physical and financial barriers between themselves and their subject matter ultimately leading them to tell more artful illuminating stories and find the joy in documentary filmmaking

Freedom of Expression in Russia's New Mediasphere Mariëlle Wijermars, Katja Lehtisaari, 2019-11-14 In recent years the Russian government has dramatically expanded its restrictions on the internet while simultaneously consolidating its grip on traditional media The internet however because of its transnational configuration continues to evade comprehensive state control and offers ever new opportunities for disseminating and consuming dissenting opinions Drawing on a wide range of disciplines including media law human rights political science media and cultural studies and the study of religion this book examines the current state of the freedom of speech freedom of expression and media freedom in Russia focusing on digital media and cross media initiatives that bridge traditional and new media spheres It assesses how the conditions for free speech are influenced by the dynamic development of Russian media including the expansion of digital technologies explores the interaction and transfer of practices formats stylistics and aesthetics between independent and state owned media and discusses how far traditional media co opt strategies developed by and associated with independent media to mask their lack of free expression Overall the book provides a deep and rich understanding of the changing structures and practices of national and transnational Russian media and how they condition the boundaries of freedom of expression in Russia today

Self-Made Tara Isabella Burton, 2023-06-27 An exploration into the curation of the self in Western civilization from Da Vinci to Kim Kardashian In a technologically saturated era where nearly everything can be effortlessly and digitally reproduced we re all hungry to carve out our own unique personalities our own bespoke personae to stand out and be seen As the forces of social media and capitalism collide and individualism becomes more important than ever across a wide array of industries branding ourselves or actively defining our selves for others has become the norm Yet this phenomenon is not new In Self Made Tara Isabella Burton shows us how we arrived at this moment of fervent personal branding As attitudes towards religion politics and society evolved our sense of self did as well moving from a collective to individual mindset Through a series of chronological biographical essays on famous and infamous self creators in the modern Western world from the Renaissance to the Enlightenment to modern capitalism and finally to our present moment of mass media Burton examines the theories and forces behind our never ending need to curate ourselves Through a vivid cast of characters and an engaging mix of cultural and historical commentary we learn how the personal brand has come to be
