Periodical Title and Abbreviation by Title Leland G. Alkire, Cheryl Westerman-Alkire, 2006 Volume 2 is arranged alphabetically by periodical title rather than by abbreviation Racial Science in Hitler's New Europe, 1938-1945 Anton Weiss-Wendt, Rory Yeomans, 2020-04-01 In Racial Science in Hitler's New Europe 1938-1945 international scholars examine the theories of race that informed the legal political and social policies aimed against ethnic minorities in Nazi dominated Europe The essays explicate how racial science preexisting racist sentiments and pseudoscientific theories of race that were preeminent in interwar Europe ultimately facilitated Nazi racial designs for a New Europe The volume examines racial theories in a number of European nation states in order to understand racial thinking at large the origins of the Holocaust and the history of ethnic discrimination in each of those countries The essays by uncovering neglected layers of complexity diversity and nuance demonstrate how local discourse on race paralleled Nazi racial theory but had unique nationalist intellectual traditions of racial thought Written by rising scholars who are new to English language audiences this work examines the scientific foundations that central eastern northern and southern European countries laid for ethnic discrimination the attempted annihilation of Jews and the elimination of other so called inferior peoples Neuf années de bibliographie érasmiennne, 1962-1970 Jean-Claude Margolin, 1977 Economics Abstracts International Online User Manual, 1979 Online user manual information retrieval economic development economic and social development data base Eurosynt, 1997 Jehovah's Witnesses in Europe Gerhard Besier, Katarzyna Stokłosa, 2021-08-18 The history of Jehovah's Witnesses in Europe has always been one of persecution This third volume documents this history turning eastward For the first time the circumstances of a religious minority under different political systems can be compared across the continent The studies gathered here provide insight into the methods of repression used by governments and mainstream churches the survival strategies of Jehovah's Witnesses and their various experiences under Eastern European dictatorships The initially cordial relationship with Jehovah's Witnesses that developed after 1990 has steadily reverted to religious discrimination culminating in Russia's renewed ban of Jehovah's Witnesses in 2017 and the confiscation of their properties By violating the universal human right of religious freedom the same conditions that prevailed in the Soviet era have now returned to modern Russia With severest discrimination and abusing jurisdictional procedures to reach their political aspirations the State tries to crush a religious community Against this background it is all the more important not to turn a blind eye to the situation of religious minorities in Eastern Europe but instead to take an honest public stance against it Muslims in Europe Rauf Ceylan, Marvin Mücke, 2024-02-29 Since the migration movements from Islamic countries a Muslim diaspora has developed in many Western societies While in classical Islamic theology residence in non Muslim countries has always been a controversial issue in the course of globalization and internationalization processes the classical distinction between Islamic world and non Islamic world has been put into perspective Now nearly 30 million Muslims live in Europe The book offers an overview over Muslim communities in Europe their history present issues and future challenges

The New Regulatory Framework for Consumer Dispute Resolution Pablo Cortés,2016-11-24 Consumer out of court redress in the European Union is experiencing a significant transformation indeed the current changes are the most important that have occurred in the history of the EU This is due to the recent implementation of the Alternative Dispute Resolution ADR Directive 2013 11 EU and the Online Dispute Resolution ODR Regulation EU 2013 524 The Directive ensures the availability of quality ADR schemes and sets information obligations on businesses and the Regulation enables the resolution of consumer disputes through a pan European ODR platform The New Regulatory Framework for Consumer Dispute Resolution examines the impact of the new EU law in the field of consumer redress Part I of the volume examines the new European legal framework and the main methods of consumer redress including mediation arbitration and ombudsman schemes Part II analyses the implementation of the ADR Directive in nine Member States with very different legal cultures in consumer redress namely Belgium Ireland Italy Germany France Portugal Spain the Netherlands and the UK as well as the distinct approach taken in the US Part III evaluates new trends in consumer ADR CDR by identifying best practices and looking at future trends in the field In particular it offers a vision of the future of CDR which is more than a mere dispute resolution tool it poses a model on dispute system design for CDR it examines the challenges of cross border disputes it proposes a strategy to promote mediation and it identifies good practices of CDR and collective redress The book concludes by calling for the mandatory participation of traders in CDR

Economic Titles/abstracts ,1986-07 The Transformation of the Christian Churches in Western Europe Leo Kenis,Patrick Pasture,2010 KADOC Studies on Religion Culture and Society Volume 6Research continues to show that the Christian religion is gradually disappearing from the public cultural and social spheres in Western Europe Even on the individual level institutionalized religion is becoming increasingly marginalized New forms of religious life and community however may point toward a resurgence of Christian churches in postmodern Europe This book focuses on the complex transformations Christian churches in Western Europe have undergone since World War II In English and French Europe, the Nordic Countries Alan Swanson,Egil Törnqvist,1998 ISBN 9042003170 paperback NLG 60 00 From the contents Scandinavian or Nordic Egil Tornqvist The position of the Scandinavian languages in a unified Europe Harry Perridon East is east and west is west on the cultural identity of the Finns Paivi Schot Saikku Echoes from the North in the heart of Europe public and published opinion about Scandinavia in Belgium Godelieve Laureys and Michael Maertens Van wie is de burger? Wim de Jong ,2014-09-24 Dissertatie Radboud Universiteit Nijmegen 2014 Europe ,1982 Young Muslims and Christians in a Secular Europe Daan Beekers,2021-01-14 Engaging with debates about lived religion pluralism and secularism this book presents an ethnographic study of committed young Muslims and Christians in the predominantly secular context of the Netherlands Daan Beekers breaks with conventional frameworks that keep these groups apart by highlighting the common ground between revivalist minded Protestant Christians and Sunni Muslims Based on in depth fieldwork Young Muslims and Christians in a Secular Europe shows that these young adults embark on reflexive projects of cultivating personal faith that are rife with struggles setbacks and doubts Beekers argues that this shared precarious condition of everyday religious pursuits is shaped by young believers active participation in today s high capitalist and largely secular society where they encounter other modes of imagining and living in the world Yet he reveals that this close engagement with secular culture also fosters a reinvigorated religious commitment that demands constant care and nourishment Written in a clear and accessible style this book reaches beyond longstanding divisions in the study of religion in Europe It both provides rich insights into everyday religious lives and disrupts persistent binary oppositions between categories such as minorities and majorities migrants and natives and Islam and the West

Blackness in Western Europe Dienke Hondius,2017-09-29 While the study of race relations in the United States continues to inspire and influence European thinking Europeans have yet to confront their own history To be black in Europe whether during the sixteenth century or today means sharing one crucial experience being part of a small but visible minority European slave owners company directors and investors in the distant past maintained an ocean wide gap between themselves and the enslaved in the plantation colonies of the Caribbean In the following centuries this distance persisted Even today to be black in Europe often means to be one of a few black persons in a group A racial pattern of exclusion has characterized European policy for more than four centuries Dienke Hondius identifies ideas and attitudes toward blackness the concept of race as visible difference developed in western Europe She argues that racial discourses are generally dominated by paternalism a concept usually used to explain power structures that is often applied to the nineteenth century Hondius identifies five patterns of paternalism that influenced Europe much earlier and initiated trends of imagery and perception Taking a chronological and thematic approach Hondius first focuses on southern European societies in the Early Modern period and moves to northwest European societies in the Modern period Addressing religion law and science she concludes with a synthesis of developments from the twentieth century to the present

The Union of European Federalists Sergio Pistone,2008 Brinkman's catalogus van boeken en tijdschriften ,1882 With 1901 1910 1956 1960 Repertorium is bound Brinkman s Titel catalogus van de gedurende 1901 1910 1956 1960 Title varies slightly

La Reconstruction en Europe Après la Première Et la Seconde Guerre Mondiale Et Le Rôle de la Conservation Des Monuments Historiques Luc Verpoest,2011 Living with History focuses on a particular aspect of heritage preservation in the twentieth century destruction and postwar reconstruction in Belgium France Germany Great Britain and The Netherlands This book establishes a status quaestionis for the historiography of wartime and postwar preservation and sets these particular developments in preservation history in the context of the general evolution of architecture and urbanism The authors investigate the specific role of conservationists and heritage institutions and administrations in the overall reconstruction and examine the part played by architects and planners in heritage preservation

The Reception of Jane Austen in Europe Anthony Mandal, Brian Southam, 2007-10-13 This volume of international research provides a wide ranging account of Jane Austen's reception across the length and breadth of Europe from Russia and Finland in the North to Italy and Spain in the South In historical terms the survey ranges from the near contemporary since Austen's novels were available in French very soon after their original publication to modern times in those countries which for various reasons linguistic historical or ideological have taken up the novels only in recent years For many Austen's novels are valued for their romantic content as love stories but increasingly they are being perceived as sophisticated ironic narratives In this the quality of translation has been a significant factor and the many film and television adaptations have played an important part in establishing Austen's reputation amongst the public at large It will be seen from this that across Europe Austen's reception history is far from uniform and has been shaped by a complex of extra literary forces
