Night Again Contemporary Fiction From Vietnam:

Night, Again Linh Dinh, 2011-01-04 A couple's scheme to get rich by killing their father backfires leaving them in charge of a cripple. In heaven a baby dead through neglect tells his playmates. Life down there is just one long sleep. A young soldier saved by a stranger can never again find her to thank her. A man carries a massive clock. Using a variety of techniques and styles in this collection of twelve short stories contemporary Vietnamese writers edited by poet short story writer and novelist Linh Dinh show us Vietnam through their own eyes. Night Again breaks with the traditional views of the Vietnamese that have focused on the Vietnam War and turns our attention to postwar life in Vietnam. These writers present impressions at once strange and familiar of postwar realities. Night Again Linh Dinh, 1996 Presents impressions of life in post war Vietnam as seen by twelve contemporary writers including stories by Bao Ninh, Le Minh Khue, Mai Kim Ngoc and Tran Vu.

Love Like Hate Linh Dinh, 2011-01-04 Linh Dinh is already one of the secret masters of short fiction. Love Like Hate is something like a traditional cross cultural novel that's been shocked into life by Dinh's uncanny ability to tell us stories we didn't even know we wanted to hear. Ed Park, editor of The Believer. In Love Like Hate Linh Dinh weaves a dysfunctional family saga that doubles as a portrait of Vietnam in the last half century. Protagonists Kim Lan and Hoang Long marry in Saigon during the Vietnam War, uniting in a setting that allows Dinh's dark deadpan humor to flourish. Describing his mushrooming cast of characters in unsentimental and sometimes absurd ways, Dinh embraces contradictions with the surreal exuberance of Matthew Sharpe and the stylistic leanings of Italo Calvino. Proceedings of the "Synergise!" Biennial National Conference of the Australian Institute of Interpreters and Translators Annamaria Arnall, 2011-07-12 The Australian national association for the translating and interpreting profession AUSIT has been organising biennial conferences for the last decade. As they steadily grew in quality and importance, the time to share their proceedings with a global readership has arrived. For the first time AUSIT is releasing in book format the proceedings of its latest conference held in November 2010 with the slogan Synergise. Presentations from an international gathering of speakers are collected in this volume, grouped into five chapters and addressing both theoretical and practical aspects of cross cultural communication, the training of future practitioners and a wide range of specific circumstances influencing the day to day work of translators and interpreters, including the business side of managing a professional practice. The hallmark of the conference was the balance it achieved between academic interest and professional reality, between research and detailed practice, between theory and the exigencies of translators and interpreters' lives. The synergies achieved were much more than the simple sum of the components. Asian American History and Culture: An Encyclopedia Huping Ling, Allan W.
