

Night Reading Guide Chapter 2-3

Chapter 2

1. After the train stopped, a German officer shouted that anyone who still owns what must hand them over now?

Gold, silver, or watches

2. Who started screaming "Fire! I see a fire! I see a fire!"?

Mrs. Schachter

3. What smell was in the air?

Smell of burning flesh

Think/Write/Share

The purpose of the Think/Write/Share activity is to give students time to think, process, and write before sharing with partners, small groups, or in whole group. (Suggested time: Give students 1-2 minutes to think and write before sharing.)

Do you think Mrs. Schachter actually saw fire?

Students might discuss:

No, Mrs. Schachter didn't see fire; she was under stress and was grieving; she was crazy; it was just a premonition; this is an example of foreshadowing; the fire is a symbol for the events of the Holocaust, etc.

Yes, Mrs. Schachter did see fire. Perhaps she saw some fire in the distance; For Mrs. Schachter, her premonitions were very real, etc.

Why do you think Weiss includes this person in his memoir?

Students might discuss how Mrs. Schachter was expressing the fears they were all trying to avoid, how the others treated her and continued to ignore the danger, how she foreshadowed the crematoria, how this scene created a lot of suspense and tension, how it is might relate to her and her son because he is also just a child.

There are no Right Answers to Wrong Questions Peter C. Wilcox, 2016-06-28 Abraham Joshua Heschel said that We are closer to God when we are asking questions than when we have the answers He believed that to be a Christian is not to be a person who knows all the answers but one who lives in the part of the self where the question is constantly being born Most of us don't think very much about our questions In our culture we are accustomed to being able to find out answers to nearly any question just by typing it into Google search or asking Siri But behind any answer there is always a question Sometimes the question isn't clear to us sometimes it is not very well articulated even to ourselves But it is always there In over thirty years as a psychotherapist and spiritual director Peter C Wilcox has seen how the questions people ask themselves have shaped their lives in some very important ways This book is an invitation to see how important it is to learn how to ask the right questions about our lives This is because our choice of questions leads us on a path of discovery towards answers that help us to grow spiritually and psychologically Our questions orient our lives and give direction to us We will see that they enable us to make fifteen choices that have a tremendous impact on the kind of person we become Night, Elie Wiesel Mary Ellen Snodgrass,1998 Instructional materials for use with Elie Wiesel s autobiography Night Includes a synopsis time line of the action themes and motifs activities to promote comprehension cross curricular activities a vocabulary test two comprehension tests and answer key Reference Guide to Holocaust Literature Thomas Riggs,2002 Covering the entire spectrum of the literature of the Holocaust era from the beginnings of Nazism through the concentration camp experience survivor syndrome and second generation response this detailed survey includes entries on more than 200 authors and 300 works Author entries include detailed biographical information as well as expert analytical interpretation Work entries discuss each work in detail and include a critical essay written by an expert in the field Value added features include chronologies further reading lists and nationality concentration camp and title indexes Co-Teaching for English Learners Maria G.
