attention and yet only a handful of countries account for 75% of the world's visitor arrivals. The other 200 or so are left to fight for a share of the remaining 25%. Therefore destination marketers at city, state and national levels have arguably a far more challenging role than other services or consumer goods marketers. Destination Marketing: an integrated marketing communication approach focuses on the five core tenets of integrated marketing communications. These embody both the opportunities and challenges facing Destination Marketing Organisations (DMOs) and are:

1. Profitable customer relationships
2. Enhancing stakeholder relationships
3. Cross functional processes
4. Stimulating purposeful dialogue with customers
5. Generating message synergy

The author seeks to provide a rationale for DMOs to develop a structure, roles and goals of DMOs, to examine the key challenges and constraints facing DMOs, to impart a destination branding process, to develop a philosophy of integrated marketing communications, to lead the emergence of visitor and stakeholder relationship management and to set forth options for performance measurement.

Trust and Brand Management Hanna Górska-Warsewicz, 2024-12-23

Trust and Brand Management covers the main topics of heritage based corporate brand management and its relationship to external factors and performance. The benefits for readers of this book lie in several aspects: knowledge of corporate brand management, brand heritage and related concepts, theoretical and practical foundations of brand management and brand heritage, and empirically supported research on the relationship among brand heritage, brand management practices, antecedents and outcomes of heritage based corporate brand management. This book consists of two parts. The first part provides a literature review and theoretical and practical background on brand heritage, its antecedents and outcomes, brand management approaches and heritage based corporate brand management. The second part presents the results of an empirical study as structural equation modeling to establish the relationship among brand heritage, corporate brand management practices, antecedents, brand history, culture, identity and authenticity and outcomes of heritage based corporate brand management, brand trust, brand equity and performance. In addition, the book includes 31 case studies of well known heritage brands presenting their history, marketing communications development and positioning strategies. The benefit for managers is the presentation of terms and specific tools related to corporate brand management in the market and customer outcomes.
