Nigeria Evolution Of Africas Major Nations:

Foreign Aid and Development in South Korea and Africa Kelechi A. Kalu, Jiyoung Kim, 2021-08-15 This book compares the rapid development of South Korea over the past 70 years with selected countries in sub Saharan Africa to assess what factors contributed to the country's success story and why it is that countries that were comparable in the past continue to experience challenges in achieving and sustaining economic growth In the 1950s South Korea's GDP per capita was 876 roughly comparable with that of Cote d'Ivoire and somewhat below Ghana's The country's subsequent transformation from a war ravaged international aid dependent economy to the 13th largest economy in the world has been the focus of considerable international admiration and attention But how was it that South Korea succeeded in multiplying its GDP per capita by a factor of 23 while other Less Developed Countries continue to experience challenges This book compares South Korea's politics of development and foreign assistance with that of Ghana Nigeria and Zambia which were also major recipients of the U S aid to investigate the specific contexts that made it possible for South Korea to achieve success Overall this book argues that effective state capacity in South Korea's domestic and international politics provided an anchor for diplomatic engagement with donors and guided domestic political actors in the effective use of aid for economic development This book will be of interest to researchers and students working on development comparative political economy and foreign aid and to policy makers and practitioners looking for a greater understanding of comparative development trajectories

An evolving paradigm of agricultural mechanization development: How much can Africa learn from Asia? Synopsis Diao, Xinshen, ed., Takeshima, Hiroyuki. ed., Zhang, Xiaobo, ed., 2020-12-07 Agricultural mechanization in Africa south of the Sahara especially for small farms and businesses requires a new paradigm to meet the needs of the continent's evolving farming systems Can Asia with its recent success in adopting mechanization offer a model for Africa An Evolving Paradigm of Agricultural Mechanization Development analyzes the experiences of eight Asian and five African countries The authors explore crucial government roles in boosting and supporting mechanization from import policies to promotion policies to public good policies Potential approaches presented to facilitating mechanization in Africa include prioritizing market led hiring services eliminating distortions and developing appropriate technologies for the African context The role of agricultural mechanization within overall agricultural and rural transformation strategies in Africa is also discussed The book s recommendations and insights should be useful to national policymakers and the development community who can adapt this knowledge to local contexts and use it as a foundation for further research

Heaton, 2022 Thirty six chapters covering the history of Nigeria from prehistoric times to the twenty first century Accessible overviews of both the political narrative as well as the deeper histories of social organization identity formation and inter group relationships cutting edge analysis of key themes from highly respected scholars in a single forward facing volume Book jacket

The History of Africa Molefi Kete Asante, 2024-01-31 The new edition of this comprehensive survey of African history provides an accessible overview of the continent s narrative focusing on the autonomy and achievements of the African people The book brings readers closer to an authentic Africa by paying close attention to the lives of everyday people and highlighting insights and ideas that are often missed in typical survey texts The fourth edition offers expanded coverage of smaller linguistic and ethnic groups in Africa in order to provide a more inclusive history noting a few individual groups while also analyzing their contributions to the overall narrative and African culture Liberia s hidden history is given greater attention in this updated volume as well as the ethnic and religious tensions in Nigeria and Sudan While the book emphasizes that African history is always being made the fourth edition brings the record up to date and grapples with contemporary issues in culture and politics The History of Africa is an indispensable text for students and researchers in African history cultural studies philosophy and politics

African Perspectives on Global Development Mahmoud Masaeli, Rico Sneller, 2019-01-22 Africa is not merely an invention with a modern imperial or colonial background Nor is it simply a continent in need of foreign aid from the richer more affluent societies Africa might be economically needy politically unstable and in part socially chaotic and suffering from civil wars and social unrest However the continent and its peoples are certainly different from the negative image portrayed in the mass media Africa had been the cradle of civilization in the pre colonial era and is today undergoing a diverse cultural philosophical and spiritual development with great potential contributing to contemporary debates around the ethics of globality The novelty of this book derives from its multidisciplinary approach Although the authors generally come from the fields of development and economics global studies political science philosophy and ethics and sociology they present Africa s alternative view of human wellbeing in order to provide theories and policy recommendations which inspire the specific developmental patterns for the growth of the continent The volume discusses the meaning of development for the continent by drawing on culture identity ethnicity and philosophy of nature The contributors examine a variety of issues and themes directly related to the opportunities provided by globality to promote the development of the continent They also discuss solutions for underdevelopment and poverty and how those perspectives might be effectively integrated into the global agenda for the development of Africa African

Economic Development Steven Langdon, Archibald R.M. Ritter, Yagadeesen Samy, 2018-03-05 Sub Saharan Africa is at a turning point The barriers to economic growth seen in the 1980 2000 era are disappearing and new optimism is spreading However difficult goals of eliminating poverty achieving equity and overcoming environmental threats continue This much needed and insightful textbook has been written to help us understand this combination of emerging improvements and significant challenges Opening with an analysis of the main theories relating to development in Sub Saharan Africa the book explores all the key issues including Human development Rapid urbanization Structural and gender dimensions Sustainable development and environmental issues and Africa s role in the world economy The authors use economic tools and concepts throughout in a way that makes them accessible to students without an economics background Readers are also aided by a wide range of case studies on the ground examples and statistical information which provide a detailed analysis of each topic This text is also accompanied by an e resource featuring additional sources for students and instructors African Economic Development is a clear and comprehensive textbook suitable for courses on African economic development development economics African studies and development studies Science, Policy and Development in Africa R.

Diagnosis of aquaculture employment governance in selected African countries Menezes, A.,Ligeon, C.,Murekezi, P.,Jolly, C.,2024-04-17 Many countries are promoting aquaculture as one of the prime drivers of the rural economy and the employment of women and youth Author However the industry is criticized for inadequately representing the needs of workers Author Most African countries have shown a willingness to advance industry goals through domestic programme planning and facilitating foreign direct investment Author However there is a need for coherent strategies for employment governance Author Hence immediate change is required to modify the governance of aquaculture employment to foster industrial transformation Author The objective of this research is to enhance understanding of the governance of aquaculture employment in ten African countries Egypt Ghana Kenya Malawi Nigeria Rwanda Senegal South Africa Uganda and Zambia and to determine their level of compliance with existing employment legislation in those countries Author The ultimate goal is to learn from both positive and negative lessons and propose possible corrective measures for substandard practices in order to improve the public perception of aquaculture Author The study seeks to evaluate existing employment governance in the aquaculture industry and to use the acquired knowledge to inform policymakers and industry leaders on the status of governance in employment Author
