Nigerian Romantic Message With Pidgin English:

Current Trends in Nigerian Pidgin English Akinmade T. Akande, Oladipo Salami, 2021-10-25 This book focuses on the structure and sociolinguistics of Nigerian Pidgin English. Its major aim is to serve as a compendium which touches different major aspects of NPE as it has been observed that earlier works in this area have focused only on one aspect or the other. It will offer a broad survey of the form and functions of Nigerian Pidgin NP in different domains. The book promises to investigate the use of NP in such domains as popular culture, advertisement, social media, and online discussion fora. One major strong point of this volume is the fact that it will direct attention to different fertile areas of NP by focusing inter alia on its social functions, its morphology and syntax, its regional varieties, its possible use as a viable medium of instruction in school, the changing attitudes of people towards its use, the place of NP in relation to language planning and policy in Nigeria, as well as sociolinguistic variation within NP. The book will make a significant contribution to the existing literature on NP as unlike earlier studies in this area it will explore the grammatical, sociolinguistic, and perceptual aspects of the language. By bringing together the expertise of renowned Nigerian and international scholars who have conducted research in this area, the volume will be an essential resource for researchers, graduate and undergraduate students interested not only in Nigerian Pidgin but also on contact linguistics.

Manual of Romance Forensic Linguistics Victoria Guillén-Nieto, Dieter Stein, 2025-06-02 It is evident that published serious science-based work in Forensic Linguistics is predominantly written in English and focuses on casework from the English-speaking world. While the first aspect is understandable given that English serves as an international lingua franca in scientific discourse, the second aspect presents a significant limitation for the field. Should researchers assume that there is simply less crime in non-English speaking areas of the world? A more pertinent question might be: What cultural, disciplinary, legal, or legal-cultural factors contribute to the lack of research in and on languages other than English? In addition to addressing the underrepresentation of Romance languages in scientific publications related to forensic work, the chapters in this handbook will also explore the reasons behind this unfortunate situation. Designed to engage readers whether they are linguists, legal professionals, or simply interested individuals and to spark interest in Romance Forensic Linguistics, this handbook follows three key objectives. First, we are committed to providing a comprehensive overview of the casework and research conducted in and on several Romance languages including Peninsular Spanish, Catalan, Brazilian Portuguese, French, Canadian French, Italian, and Romanian. Second, the chapters in this volume seek to understand why Forensic Linguistics has thrived more in some Romance-speaking countries than in others. Finally, we aim to uncover the reasons for the slower development of Forensic Linguistics in regions where Romance languages are predominantly spoken.

Sounds of Resistance Eunice Rojas, Lindsay Michie, 2013-10-08 From the gospel music of slavery in the antebellum South to anti-apartheid freedom songs in South Africa, this two-volume work documents how music has fueled resistance and revolutionary movements in the United States and worldwide. Political resistance movements and the creation of music two seemingly unrelated phenomenon often result from the seed of powerful emotions opinions or experiences This two volume set presents essays that explore the connections between diverse musical forms and political activism across the globe revealing fascinating similarities regarding the interrelationship between music and political resistance in widely different geographic or cultural circumstances The breadth of specific examples covered in Sounds of Resistance The Role of Music in Multicultural Activism highlights strong similarities between diverse situations for example protest against the Communist government in Poland and drug discourse in hip hop music in the United States and demonstrates how music has repeatedly played a vital role in energizing or expanding various political movements By exploring activism and how music relates to specific movements through an interdisciplinary lens the authors document how music often enables powerless members of oppressed groups to communicate or voice their concerns Nigerian Pidgin in Lagos Dagmar Deuber,2005 Accompanying CD ROM contains the complete corpus 40 text files background information on each text in the corpus 40 Word files samples from the corpus with English translations and clickable audio 6 Word files Appendix C PDF list of speakers PDF and 7 tracks playable on a CD player p iv Handbook of Research on Discourse Behavior and Digital Communication: Language Structures and Social Interaction Taiwo, Rotimi,2010-05-31 A compendium of over 50 scholarly works on discourse behavior in digital communication The African Palimpsest Chantal Zabus,2007-01-01 Uniting a sense of the political dimensions of language appropriation with a serious yet accessible linguistic terminology The African Palimpsest examines the strategies of indigenization whereby West African writers have made their literary English or French distinctively African Through the apt metaphor of the palimpsest a surface that has been written on written over partially erased and written over again the book examines such well known West African writers as Achebe Armah Ekwensi Kourouma Okara Saro Wiwa Soyinka and Tutuola as well as lesser known writers from francophone and anglophone Africa Providing a great variety of case studies in Nigerian Pidgin Akan Igbo Maninka Yoruba Wolof and other African languages the book also clarifies the vital interface between Europhone African writing and the new outlets for African artistic expression in auto translation broadcast television radio and film Music and Messaging in the African Political Arena Onyebadi, Uche T.,2019-01-15 Political campaigning affects numerous realms under the communication umbrella with each channel seeking to influence as many individuals as possible In higher education there is a growing scholarly interest in communication issues and subjects especially on the role of music in the political arena Music and Messaging in the African Political Arena provides innovative insights into providing music and songs as an integral part of sending political messages to a broader spectrum of audiences especially during political campaigns The content within this publication covers such topics as framing theory national identity and ethnic politics and is designed for politicians campaign managers political communication scholars researchers and students Sociolinguistics in the Nigerian Context Dele Adeyanju,2007 Nigerian Languages, Literatures, Culture and Reforms Ozo-mekuri

Decolonizing Translation Kathryn Batchelor, 2014-04-08 The linguistically innovative aspect of Francophone African literature has been recognized and studied from a variety of angles over recent decades yet little attention has been paid to what happens to such literature when it is translated into another language Taking as its corpus all sub Saharan Francophone African texts that have ever been published in English this book explores the ways in which translators approach innovative features such as African language borrowings neologisms and other deliberate manipulations of French depictions of sociolinguistic variation and a variety of types of wordplay The implications of their translation decisions are drawn out with reference to the broader significances that are often accorded to postcolonial literature and earlier critics calls for a decolonized translation practice are explored from both a practical and theoretical angle These findings are used to push towards a detailed investigation of the postcolonial turn in translation studies drawing on the work of key postcolonial theorists such as Homi K Bhabha and Gayatri Spivak This is a timely and incisive critical assessment of contemporary discourses on the ethics and politics of translation

Approaches to the African Novel Charles E. Nnolim, 2010 This Third Edition of Approaches to the African Novel is a child of necessity Because of the unfortunate death of the publisher of Saros International who issued the First Edition and high demand this third enlarged edition has become imperative Three new essays all previously published are added two expectedly on Achebe the father of the African novel and one on Mongp Beti's Mission to Kala which was partially anthologised in Contemporary Literary Criticism Volume 27 1984 Achebe's Things Fall Apart as an Igbo national epic has evoked a spate of reactions from critics of African literature especially the troika Chinweizu et al in Toward the Decolonization of African Literature It was also anthologised in Modern Black Literature edited by S Okechukwu Menu 1971 The essay on Arrow of God whose structure and meaning has been largely avoided by other critics is included here for further airing For gender balance as the previous volume contained no essays on women writers an essay on Flora Nwapa has been added Since the novels discussed in this volume exclusively are on the African literature south of the Sahara the last essay on Peter Abrahams comes in to round out this collection of essays with a study of a south African writer for geographical balance
