The Media-Savvy Middle School Classroom Susan Brooks-Young, 2020-10-19 The Media Savvy Middle School Classroom is a practical guide for teachers of Grades 5-8 who want to help their students achieve mastery of media literacy skills. Today's fake news, alternative facts, and digital manipulations are compromising the critical thinking and well-being of middle-grade learners already going through significant personal changes. This actionable book prepares teachers to help their students become informed consumers of online resources. Spanning correct source use, personal versus expert opinions, deliberate disinformation, social media, and more, these ready-to-use activities can be integrated directly into existing language arts and mathematics lesson plans. Directory of Organizations in Educational Management, 1994

Enriching Your Math Curriculum Lainie Schuster, 2010 Presents practices and routines designed to support and nourish teachers as they prepare and present a meaningful year of mathematics instruction for fifth-grade mathematicians. Offers activities, lessons, and narration that can be easily adapted or adjusted to fit the particular needs of the students or the requirements of a prescribed curriculum. Connected Newsletter, 2003 Marketing for Special and Academic Libraries Valerie S. Gordon, Patricia C. Higginbottom, 2016-03-15 Here's an easy-to-follow practical marketing book for academic and special libraries. Written by two practicing librarians who are passionate about communicating with users, the book provides both the inspiration and drive to market your library and practical tips and suggestions on how to do that effectively. Topics covered include: The process of planning a marketing campaign and how some time spent on planning at the outset can help keep you focused and help you determine your level of success. The importance of using brands and brand identity to help you establish your library's brand and market that aggressively to your users and potential users. Brand consistency is stressed here. Marketing tools: Digital publications, Social media, Visual and print marketing materials, Personal interactions, Events you can use throughout the year. For each topic, we will talk about best practices, what works, what often doesn't, and we share best concise case studies from all types of academic and special libraries. Marketing Your School Simon Hepburn, 2014-10-02 A thoroughly worthwhile read. Marketing Your School is a perfect guide for all those charged with schools' marketing. Especially good for those just starting out or for schools who do not have a large marketing function. Packed with many excellent ideas and a really useful chapter on evaluating marketing. Rachel Hadley Leonard, Founder of RHL Consulting. The book includes advice from experts in design: Helen West, customer relationship marketing: Tim Latham, and primary school marketing: Nic Eversett, as well as case studies from private and state schools. Each chapter concludes with a handy checklist. To find out more about the ideas behind the book, visit www.marketingadviceforschools.com. AI for School Leaders Vickie F. Echols, 2024 This practical guide helps school leaders leverage the power of AI to explore possible solutions to problems and generate actionable steps toward positive change. Imagine a world where educators can boost their productivity, task management, and overall well-being with the aid of an AI assistant. In this groundbreaking book, an experienced school leader offers practical strategies for leveraging AI to support a more efficient and effective way to work. The 62 strategies in this book will help leaders including those with limited technical knowledge use AI tools to address critical aspects of leadership in education such as collaborative decision making, building relationships and trust, personalized professional learning, data analysis and improvement, and parent and community engagement. Featured examples show how using AI can speed up or eliminate administrative tasks, leaving more time for human interaction. With detailed prompts and instructions on how to write them, the book offers fun, innovative ideas that promote work-life balance and sustainable wellness in leadership roles with strategies for managing workload and fostering personal growth. The book follows a structured format with each example offering a problem, solution, action steps, acceleration tips, and cautions. Shows how to formulate effective AI prompts that yield accurate and meaningful responses from AI tools. Addresses safety and ethical considerations, highlighting potential risks, challenges, and cautions school leaders need to be aware of when using AI-powered solutions. Whether you're an experienced leader or just starting out, this book equips you with the tools and insights needed to lead with confidence, collaboration, and compassion. Stay ahead of the curve and embrace the transformative potential of AI with this essential resource. Audience: Education leaders and administrators. School Library Journal, 2006

Education Ferguson, 2010. Presents an introduction to careers in education as well as tips on how to get students started on their career path and other ways of exploring career possibilities. Classrooms Without Borders James A. Bellanca, Terry Stirling, 2015-04-17. This practical resource shows educators how to use the Internet to help students communicate electronically, reaching beyond the borders of traditional classroom walls. The authors, a lifelong professional developer and a dedicated facilitator of improved K-12 education through her work with graduate students in school leadership, provide the how-to for teaching essential foundation elements including teamwork, Internet research, evaluation of information sources, cross-cultural communication, and thinking skills. Emphasizing practical tools and techniques, their model integrates the Internet, common school software, and free online technology tools to create engaging projects that advance 21st-century skills. What Works! Bobbie Faulkner, 2012-12-06. WHAT WORKS provides a roadmap for Middle Childhood Generalist National Board Candidates as they work through each of the four entries to be submitted and the Assessment Center Exercises. The chapters contain dozens of tips on What Works and Why These Work; the tips are practical, specific, and written in a user-friendly format with easy-to-read bullet lists and charts. WHAT WORKS will guide Middle Childhood Generalists through the maze of requirements and prompts found in the four portfolio entries and prepare them for the Assessment Center Exercises. This is the go-to resource for Middle Childhood Generalists. The School Library Manager Blanche Woolls, Joyce Kasman Valenza, April M. Dawkins, 2023-06-15. The seventh edition of this comprehensive school library management text expands upon the role of the school librarian, especially in the ever-growing digital realm, and highlights the importance of school librarian leadership and outreach. In an era of budget cuts, reduced staffing, and a global pandemic, it's more important than ever for new LIS professionals and established school librarians and administrators to demonstrate the value of school libraries to decision makers This revised and updated edition of a classic text adds two well known authors to help lead readers through the many essential management tasks and skills required to administer the successful school library program It emphasizes the importance of the school librarian in providing digital access to information for teachers and students describes how facilities are being modified to accommodate new resources and programming and offers new ways to use AASL standards to evaluate programs All chapters are updated and the text addresses such timely subjects as providing information resources when students teachers and librarians are interacting online A new chapter highlights the importance of the school librarian s leadership in schools districts and communities This invaluable textbook teaches practical skills for school library management and offers inspiration and guidance for growing LIS careers Library Media Connection ,2004
