fundamentally rethought architectural types that shaped modern life including the office building apartment building and private home True to his alleged dictum less is more Mies van der Rohe's style is characterized by utmost simplicity elegance of materials and radical formal and functional innovation as exemplified by such iconic projects as the Farnsworth House in Plano Illinois and the Seagram Building in New York In this book renowned architectural historian Dietrich Neumann presents a new critical look at Mies and complicates the established narrative about him Diverging from the reverential posture of many existing accounts Neumann insists on the importance of the contemporary context social political and architectural for understanding the architect's life and work The book draws on many overlooked archival and primary sources to demonstrate how and why Mies's designs were shaped and received foregrounding contemporary critics responses and the work of Mies's collaborators and peers It presents several previously unknown buildings projects and furniture designs and challenges long established interpretations of key works Comprehensively illustrated and covering the entirety of Mies's career this ambitious book is the most substantial account to date of the life and work of one of the most important architects of the twentieth century Mies in America Ludwig Mies van der Rohe, Werner Oechslin, Whitney Museum of American Art, 2001 Mies in America offers readers a deeper immersion into Mies's thought than has been attempted before Venturing a more complex response than the familiar reading of Mies as a grand master of modernism these essays retrace the genesis of Mies's design in order to uncover his ambitions investigate the implicit outlines of the Miesian city follow the process of designing for America and look at Mies as a touchstone for contemporary practice Jacket

Mies Van Der Rohe in Berlin Terence Riley, Ludwig Mies van der Rohe, Barry Bergdoll, 2001 This in depth look at Mies van der Rohe's early career published to accompany an exhibition opening at New York's Museum of Modern Art in June 2001 and traveling to Berlin and other European venues is the first to examine the architect's work in Europe in terms of specific historical and cultural context rather than the more abstract and formal arguments of the International Style While earlier studies have described a fundamental break between Mies's neo classical work prior to 1919 and the more avant garde work of the 1920s recent research demonstrates that the transformation was much more gradual Here 11 scholars and architectural historians explore particular aspects of Mies's work together shedding new light on the continual interplay of tradition and innovation nature and abstraction in the evolution of his design theories and methods With a wealth of photographs and drawings many not previously published this book conveys for the first time the dynamic intellectual ferment of this formative period in the life of one of architecture's towering figures Almost Nothing Christian Bjorne, 2019 Ludwig Mies van der Rohe 1886 1969 undoubtedly is one of the most significant and influential architects ever His designs and realized buildings as well as his thinking and writings until the present day continue to initiate many controversial debates on achievement and failure in modern architecture Yet not only architects and urban designers have been inspired or appalled by Mies van der Rohe This new book demonstrates that his influence reaches far beyond the Ludwig Mies van der Rohe 1886-1969 is one of the most important architects of the 20th century. Until 1938 he worked in Europe ten years of which he cooperated with a small group surrounding the Krefeld collector and silk manufacturer Hermann Lange. During this extraordinary long term collaboration between Mies van der Rohe and his partner Lilly Reich with the Krefeld friends numerous important buildings were designed that are extensively presented in this splendid book. Mies van der Rohe's planned but not realized projects are introduced with large size computerized visualisations that have never been published before. This publication illuminates the close relationship of the architect and the Velvet and Silk City and gives fascinating insight into Mies van der Rohe's work. Back cover: Programs and Manifestoes on 20th-Century Architecture Ulrich Conrads, 1975-11-15.

The present volume offers eloquent testimony that many of the master builders of this century have held passionate convictions regarding the philosophic and social basis of their art. Nearly every important development in the modern architectural movement began with the proclamation of these convictions in the form of a program or manifesto. The most influential of these are collected here in chronological order from 1903 to 1963. Taken together they constitute a subjective history of modern architecture compared with one another their great diversity of style reveals in many cases the basic differences of attitude and temperament that produced a corresponding divergence in architectural style. In point of view the book covers the aesthetic spectrum from right to left from programs that rigidly generate designs down to the smallest detail to revolutionary manifestoes that call for anarchy in building form and town plan. The documents placed in context by the editor are also international in their range among them are the seminal and prophetic statements of Henry van de Velde, Adolf Loos and Bruno Taut from the early years of the century, Frank Lloyd Wright's 1910 annunciation of Organic Architecture, Gropius's original program for the Bauhaus founded in Weimar in 1919, Towards a New Architecture, Guiding Principles by Le Corbusier, the formulation by Naum Gabo and Antoine Pevsner of the basic principles of Constructivism and articles by R. Buckminster Fuller on universal architecture and the architect as world planner. Other pronouncements, some in flamboyant style including those of Erich Mendelsohn, Hannes Meyer, Theo van Doesburg, Oskar Schlemmer, Ludwig Mies van der Rohe, El Lissitzky and Louis I. Kahn. There are also a number of collective or group statements issued in the name of movements such as CIAM, De Stijl, ABC, the Situationists and GEAM. Since the dramatic effectiveness of the manifesto form is usually heightened by brevity and conciseness it has been possible to reproduce most of the documents in their entirety; only a few have been excerpted.
