Mike Ashley's four volume study of the science fiction magazines focuses on the turbulent years of the 1970s when the United States emerged from the Vietnam War into an economic crisis. It saw the end of the Apollo moon programme and the start of the ecology movement. This proved to be one of the most complicated periods for the science fiction magazines. Not only were they struggling to survive within the economic climate they also had to cope with the death of the father of modern science fiction John W Campbell Jr while facing new and potentially threatening opposition. The market for science fiction diversified as never before with the growth in new anthologies the emergence of semi professional magazines the explosion of science fiction in college the start of role playing gaming magazines underground and adult comics and with the success of Star Wars media magazines. This volume explores how the traditional science fiction magazines coped with this from the death of Campbell to the start of the major popular science magazine Omni and the first dreams of the Internet. Haunts Stephen Jones, 2011-10-11 A Simon Schuster eBook. Simon Schuster has a great book for every reader. The Mammoth Book of Folk Horror Stephen Jones, 2021-09-07 Welcome to a landscape of ancient evil with stories by masters of horror Arthur Machen Algernon Blackwood H P Lovecraft M R James Ramsey Campbell Storm Constantine Christopher Fowler Alison Littlewood Kim Newman Reggie Oliver Michael Marshall Smith Karl Edward Wagner and more. The darkness that endures beneath the earth the disquiet that lingers in the woodland surrounding a forgotten path those ancient traditions and practices that still cling to standing stone circles earthworks and abandoned buildings elaborate rituals that invoke elder gods or nature deities the restless spirits and legendary creatures that remain connected to a place or object or exist in deep wells and lonely pools of water waiting to ensnare the unwary traveler. These concepts have been the archetypes of horror fiction for decades but in recent years they have been given a name Folk Horror. This type of storytelling has existed for more than a century. Authors Arthur Machen Algernon Blackwood H P Lovecraft and M R James all published fiction that had its roots in the notion of the supernatural being linked to objects or places left behind. All four writers are represented in this volume with powerful and hopefully unfamiliar examples of their work along with newer exponents of the craft such as Ramsey Campbell Storm Constantine Christopher Fowler Alison Littlewood Kim Newman Reggie Oliver and many others. Illustrated with the atmospheric photography of Michael Marshall Smith the stories in The Mammoth Book of Folk Horror tap into an aspect of folkloric tradition that has long been dormant but never quite forgotten while the depiction of these forces as being in some way natural in no way detracts from the sense of nameless dread and escalating horror that they inspire.
