Handbook of British Romanticism Ralf Haekel, 2017-09-11 The Handbook of British Romanticism is a state of the art investigation of Romantic literature and theory a field that probably changed more quickly and more fundamentally than any other traditional era in literary studies Since the early 1980s Romantic studies has widened its scope significantly The canon has been expanded hitherto ignored genres have been investigated and new topics of research explored After these profound changes intensified by the general crisis of literary theory since the turn of the millennium traditional concepts such as subjectivity imagination and the creative genius have lost their status as paradigms defining Romanticism The handbook will feature discussions of key concepts such as history class gender science and the use of media as well as a thorough account of the most central literary genres around the turn of the 19th century The focus of the book however will lie on a discussion of key literary texts in the light of the most recent theoretical developments Thus the Handbook of British Romanticism will provide students with an introduction to Romantic literature in general and literary scholars with a discussion of innovative and groundbreaking theoretical developments

The Oxford Handbook of Criminal Law Markus D Dubber, Tatjana Hörnle, 2014-11-27 The Oxford Handbook of Criminal Law reflects the continued transformation of criminal law into a global discipline providing scholars with a comprehensive international resource a common point of entry into cutting edge contemporary research and a snapshot of the state and scope of the field To this end the Handbook takes a broad approach to its subject matter disciplinarily geographically and systematically Its contributors include current and future research leaders representing a variety of legal systems methodologies areas of expertise and research agendas The Handbook is divided into four parts Approaches Methods I Systems Methods II Aspects Issues III and Contexts Comparisons IV Part I includes essays exploring various methodological approaches to criminal law such as criminology feminist studies and history Part II provides an overview of systems or models of criminal law laying the foundation for further inquiry into specific conceptions of criminal law as well as for comparative analysis such as Islamic Marxist and military law Part III covers the three aspects of the penal process the definition of norms and principles of liability substantive criminal law along with a less detailed treatment of the imposition of norms criminal procedure and the infliction of sanctions prison law Contributors consider the basic topics traditionally addressed in scholarship on the general and special parts of the substantive criminal law such as jurisdiction mens rea justifications and excuses Part IV places criminal law in context both domestically and transnationally by exploring the contrasts between criminal law and other species of law and state power and by investigating criminal law's place in the projects of comparative law transnational and international law

Mighty Fine Words and Smashing Expressions Orin Hargraves, 2003 Americans and Britons are exposed to unedited texts scripts and speech from one another's dialects at an unprecedented and accelerating rate Most people have no trouble understanding the general meaning of language in the other dialect but readers and listeners very often fail to understand or misunderstand critical words references and allusions for lack of familiarity of the social and cultural contexts that underlie various usages This book remedies this gap in understanding by cataloguing the differences that language users on either side of the Atlantic are likely to encounter in their dealings with the other dialect By taking a culturally neutral stance it addresses the needs of both British and American readers and listeners The thematic organization of the book allows the user to access language differences in various subject areas where words likely to be needed at the same time can all be found together Chapters include Politics Law and Government Business and Money Medicine and Healthcare Education Food Clothing and Shelter Transportation Sports and Profanity and Obscenity in addition to basic information on orthography weights and measures etc The appendices and extensive index provide a ready point of entry for quick look ups and there will be an extra chapter on Canadian Australian and Asian English

Making the Most of Intercultural Education Garry Robson, Virginie Trémion, Fred Dervin, 2015-06-18 Many different words are used to deal with diversity in education such as cross cultural meta cultural polycultural multicultural and intercultural as well as terms like global and international Some are trendier than others some more political Some of these words are used in certain parts of the world while others are rejected This volume concentrates on the notion of the intercultural and makes sense of its polysemy in education As such in research and practice my intercultural may not mean the same as your intercultural My intercultural might have different values and ideologies than your intercultural The contributors also propose considerations on how to make the most of renewed critical and reflexive approaches to intercultural education in a breadth of contexts and countries including Argentina Australia France Iceland Tunisia and the UK The book will appeal to students and teachers as well as to confirmed researchers who will gain inspiration and new insights into the increasingly contested notion of the intercultural in education
