Oxidative Stress and Aging R.C. Cutler, L. Packer, J. Bertram, A. Mori, 2012-12-06 Oxidative stress and aging Over the past several years there has been an extraordinarily rapid growth in our knowledge of free radical chemistry and its possible involvement in both normal essential biology and age related disease and dysfunction Much of this growth in the traditionally separate sciences of chemistry and molecular gerontology occurred independently with little interaction or communication between the scientists working in these two fields In view of the growing maturity of the two fields and the potential importance of advancing our knowledge in the area of oxidative stress and aging we perceived a critical need to organize an international conference the First International Conference on Oxidative Stress and Aging in Hawaii in 1994 to bring together the world's leading scientists in the fields of reactive oxygen species and molecular gerontology The objective of this conference was to provide a unique opportunity for scholars working in these two related and rapidly growing fields to participate in the exchange integration and synthesis of new concepts and ideas to engage in constructive criticism and to initiate new collaborative research projects The conference focused on the molecular and cellular aspects of aging as related to oxidative stress It was one of the largest and most comprehensive international conferences held in molecular gerontology At this conference a call was made for submission of papers to be used in the publication of a book covering the major contributions of the meeting

Ross, Giuseppe Coppotelli, Lars Olson, 2018-09-28 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Mitochondrial Dysfunction in Ageing and Diseases that was published in IJMS SIRT Family in Endocrinology Yang Yang, Russel J. Reiter, 2019-09-26 Micronutrients and Brain Health Lester Packer, Helmut Sies, Manfred Eggersdorfer, Enrique Cadenas, 2009-10-06 Micronutrients and Brain Health addresses cutting edge research related to processes of oxidative stress that affect brain function an area of increasing significance for those concerned and involved with public health and translational medicine Edited by four leading micronutrient researchers the book brings together the investigative work of m The Metabolic-Inflammatory Axis in Brain Aging and Neurodegeneration Fei Yin, Jia Yao, Roberta Diaz Brinton, Enrique Cadenas, 2017-08-16 Impairment of energy metabolism is a hallmark of brain aging and several neurodegenerative diseases such as the Alzheimer's disease AD Age and disease related hypometabolism is commonly associated with oxidative stress and they are both regarded as major contributors to the decline in synaptic plasticity and cognition Neuroinflammatory changes entailing microglial activation and elevated expression of inflammatory cytokines also correlate with age related cognitive decline It is still under debate whether the mitochondrial dysfunction induced metabolic deficits or the microglia activation mediated neuroinflammation is the initiator of the cognitive changes in aging and AD Nevertheless multiple lines of evidence support the notion that mitochondrial dysfunction and chronic inflammation exacerbate each other and these mechanistic diversities have cellular redox dysregulation as a common denominator This research topic focuses on the role of a metabolic inflammatory axis encompassing the bioenergetic activity brain inflammatory responses and their redox regulation in healthy brain aging and neurodegenerative diseases Dynamic interactions among these systems are reviewed in terms of their causative or in tandem occurrence and how the systemic environment e g insulin resistance diabetes and systemic inflammation impacts on brain function Molecular Basis of Nutrition and Aging Marco Malavolta, Eugenio Mocchegiani, 2016-04-15 Molecular Basis of Nutrition and Aging A Volume in the Molecular Nutrition Series focuses on the nutritional issues associated with aging and the important metabolic consequences of diet nutrition and health The book is subdivided into four parts that reflect the impact of nutrition from a biomolecular level to individual health In Part One chapters explore the general aspects of aging aging phenotypes and relevant aspects of nutrition related to the elderly and healthy aging Part Two includes molecular and cellular targets of nutrition in aging with chapters exploring lipid peroxidation inflammaging anabolic and catabolic signaling epigenetics DNA damage and repair redox homeostasis and insulin sensitivity among others Part Three looks at system level and organ targets of nutrition in aging including a variety of tissues systems and diseases such as immune function the cardiovascular system the brain and dementia muscle bone lung and many others Finally Part Four focuses on the health effects of specific dietary compounds and dietary interventions in aging including vitamin D retinol curcumin folate iron potassium calcium magnesium zinc copper selenium iodine vitamin B fish oil vitamin E resveratrol polyphenols vegetables and fruit as well as the current nutritional recommendations Offers updated information and a perspectives on important future developments to different professionals involved in the basic and clinical research on all major nutritional aspects of aging Explores how nutritional factors are involved in the pathogenesis of aging across body systems Investigates the molecular and genetic basis of aging and cellular senescence through the lens of the rapidly evolving field of molecular nutrition
