Packard The Pride An Automobile Quarterly Magnificent Marque:

Packard Julie M. Fenster, J. Fenster, 2005-08-21 Discover the passion of Packard From the 1899 Model A to the 1956 Caribbean these magnificently presented cars tell the story of the company Lavish color photography and rare documentary offerings have made this a classic favorite with serious collectors "Ask the Man Who Owns One" Arthur W. Einstein, Jr., 2014-01-10 A major force in the American automobile scene through the 1950s Packard made a mark on American advertising as well The cars themselves seemed built for promotion the red hexagon in the hubcap the yoke grille and the half arrow belt line molding acted as a logo of sorts setting a new standard in visual continuity and branding The company's image became so firmly established in fact that Packard eventually ran advertisements which pictured the cars but purposely omitted the name instead asking readers to guess what name it bears This book traces Packard's advertising history from 1900 through 1958 based on original research that includes several first hand interviews with the people who made it happen Filled with reproductions of Packard ads some in color the book looks beyond the surface to examine how the advertisements reflect and interpret the company's management and business convictions how they were influenced by business conditions and competitive pressure and how they changed with the times Automobile Quarterly, 2001

Foster, 2017-10-03 In the long and exciting history of the American automobile business one name stands out above others Packard For many years the cars produced by the Packard Motor Car Company were considered the best a line of sedans coupes convertibles and limousines in a wide variety of factory body styles and a seemingly endless array of Custom coachwork It wasn't because they were the most costly a Duesenberg cost more And it wasn't because they were the fastest Stutz usually took that honor The reason why Packard was so universally admired was because they built an entire range of luxury cars that were fast sleek luxurious stylish tasteful wonderfully quiet durable reliable and rode well Packard combined the finest attributes luxury buyers wanted in one beautiful package and built them with pride Packard quality was legendary its engineering considered among the best in the world And they were built by a company that was known as one of the best run businesses in the world solid profitable conservative and dependable Packard stock was the envy of the market its management was widely admired Packards it was sometimes said were built by gentlemen for gentlemen From the 1920s to the early 1950s Packard cars were among the most coveted in the world and was the luxury car market sales leader by a wide margin Cadillac and Lincoln struggled to compete In this new book author Patrick Foster details the history of a great marque from its triumphant rise to its sad ending detailing the tremendous cars it produced and the legend it created
