Leonard, 2006 A comprehensive work on the historical and current status of developing countries A Primer for Teaching Pacific Histories Matt K. Matsuda, 2020-05-22 A Primer for Teaching Pacific Histories is a guide for college and high school teachers who are teaching Pacific histories for the first time or for experienced teachers who want to reinvigorate their courses It can also serve those who are training future teachers to prepare their own syllabi as well as teachers who want to incorporate Pacific histories into their world history courses Matt K Matsuda offers design principles for creating syllabi that will help students navigate a wide range of topics from settler colonialism national liberation and warfare to tourism popular culture and identity He also discusses practical pedagogical techniques and tips project based assignments digital resources and how Pacific approaches to teaching history differ from customary Western practices Placing the Pacific Islands at the center of analysis Matsuda draws readers into the process of strategically designing courses that will challenge students to think critically about the interconnected histories of East Asia Southeast Asia Australia the Pacific Islands and the Americas within a global framework

Twenty-First Century World Order and the Asia Pacific J. Hsiung, 2001-08-10 After examining the global system's political volatility at the dawn of the new millennium the book looks at how some of the identifiable system wide trends e.g. globalization democratization fragmentation etc may find repercussions in the Asia Pacific The book also addresses the question of comprehensive security in comparison with other regions in a wide range of areas subsuming economic security geoeconomics environmental security ecopolitics and human security In addition the book recognizes the idiosyncrasies of the region such as the defensiveness of most Asian governments toward the protection of their financial markets against external forces following the regional financial crisis of the late 1990s

Indo Pacific Region Rajiv K Bhatia, Vijay Sakhuja, 2014-03-01 The geographic constructs and the geo political imaginations have dictated the formation of informal dialogue mechanisms and multilateral structures During Cold War the power bloc politics have subsumed these geographical definitions and have transcended national sovereign boundaries In the contemporary discourse new formulations like Asia Pacific East Asia and Indian Ocean have defined new politico security thinking The concept of Indo Pacific is an over arching geopolitical imagination which addresses new challenges in political economic and maritime domains This book addresses this new concept and debates its viability

The Far East and Australasia 2003 Europa Publications, 2002 A unique survey of each country in the region It includes an extensive collection of facts statistics analysis and directory information in one accessible volume

Exploring Iberian Counterpoints in the Eighteenth- and Nineteenth-Century Pacific Rainer F. Buschmann, David Manzano Cosano, 2024-04-01 Through a number of significant case studies this volume examines changing Iberian dynamics in the Pacific bridging the gaps between English and Spanish speaking scholarship to highlight understudied actors and debates in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries The book shifts the predominant emphasis on Anglo American studies and the historical neglect of Iberian endeavors in this ocean by focusing on several episodes that illuminate Spanish engagement in the Pacific It describes Spain's treatment of this sea from its discovery to the end of the overseas empire in 1899 becoming the first book to place its analytical focus in the heart of the islands rather than the Pacific Rim In tracing shifting Spanish positions and policies the book cautions against making generalities about the distinct histories of Pacific islands and their Indigenous populations uncovering a much more heterogeneous world than previous research may convey Exploring Iberian Counterpoints in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Century Pacific is the perfect resource for students and researchers of the Iberian world Hispanic studies and the Pacific Ocean in early modern and modern eras

Maritime History at the Crossroads Frank Broeze, 2017-10-18 This volume seeks to critically review the contemporary state of maritime historiography as it stands at the volume's publication date of 1995 The volume is comprised of thirteen essays each focused on the recent research into the maritime concerns of a particular geographical location listed as follows Australia Canada China Denmark Germany Greece Ibero America India the Netherlands the Ottoman Empire Spain the United States and a final chapter concerning historians and maritime labour in Britain Australia and New Zealand One concern made evident by the collection is the lack of stable identity and cohesive aims within maritime history the subject holds many conflicting definitions and concepts The purpose of this volume is to explore the recent developments in maritime history plus the growth of scholarly interest to provide a beacon and stimulus for future work and to clearly direct and define maritime historiography toward a solid position in the field of history Asia-Pacific Raymond Frederick Watters, T. G. McGee, Ginny Sullivan, 1997 The great processes reshaping our world today can be summed up by the term globalisation Together with the communications revolution and massive urbanisation it is reshaping the organisation of global space It is illustrated by technological change pronounced economic growth the dominance of giant corporations ever more open markets and universal consumption Dramatic developments have occurred in Asia Pacific trade investment labour movements and political cooperation marked for example by APEC a giant free trade area designed to encompass about 60% of the world's population and half the world's economy But the processes also create social tension political reaction and local resistance as a result of regional restructuring widening regional disparities the neglect of backward areas or imposed modernisation Asia Pacific New Geographies of the Pacific Rim written by leading scholars from the region examines the extent to which Pacific Rim economies especially East Asia and Southeast Asia are increasingly integrated and considers the economic political and cultural forces at work In the process many new geographies are being created or reconstructed At the same time the local global dialectic whereby local forces react to negotiate with resist or capitulate to global forces is examined Part I analyses globalisation and the emergence of sub global regions Part II the processes of change in Asia Pacific and Part III the national responses to globalisation Part IV addresses local reactions to global forces resistance negotiations or capitulation Finally the editors enumerate the challenges to the region which centre on the crucial need to manage this era of globalisation so that sustainable societies can continue This vast region needs careful management of globalisation in which the forces of free trade and economic growth are the central determinants For the time being these forces seem to be in the ascendant The Rise and Decline of the Asian Century Christopher Lingle, 2019-03-25 First published in 1997 this volume reflects an attempt to put order in the place of what appears to be chaos amidst East Asia's rapid dash toward economic development With experiences of Turkey during and after martial law Italy during the Red Brigade England during the Winter of Discontent post Franco Spain's stumbling embrace of democracy Poland in the beginning of the solidarity movement South Africa in the crumbling of apartheid China during the early student protests and Europe when the Iron Curtain was lifted Christopher Lingle applies these ideas to modern developments in East Asia providing an intriguing counter intuitive refreshing take on its economies What Is in a Rim? Arif Dirlik, 1998-03-05 This pathbreaking multidisciplinary work challenges our unthinking acceptance of such terms as Asia Pacific and Pacific Rim Clarifying the hidden power relationships and hegemonic struggles that are disguised by ideological constructions of the region the contributors uncover fundamental contradictions_including the human costs and consequences_that underlie the much celebrated economic boom In evaluating the idea of Asia Pacific the book shifts our focus from abstract relationships between capital and commodities to the human interactions that have played a formative part in the region's constitution The contributors agree that it is these interactions that constitute the region rather than the physical boundaries of the Pacific This revised and updated edition brings in additional essays focusing on conceptualizations of the Pacific considers more fully interactions among countries and strongly emphasizes peoples within the Pacific who are routinely ignored in most discussions of the Rim

The Asia-Pacific, Regionalism and the Global System Christopher M. Dent, Jörn Dosch, 2012-01-01

Dent and Dosch have put together a superb volume that explores new dimensions of the world events for the past five decades and take decrypting the processes of regionalism global system and world society to a new height The contributors have enhanced our understanding of how regionalism has been changing when a world society will be created and why East Asia's centrality matters in this unfolding drama Policymakers academics and mass media opinion makers will find the book useful provocative and refreshing Eul Soo Pang Institute of Southeast Asian Studies Singapore Ever since the Asia Pacific transformed from an institutional desert into one of the most networked areas in the world questions of the region's future and the future of the global system have become closely intertwined This volume explores the key issues of regional cooperation economic and political integration security relations and international affairs within and across the Asia Pacific The expert contributors shed critical light on how significant developments are impacting on the global system In particular they consider emerging forms of global governance and how the Asia Pacific as a region individual countries such as China Japan South Korea and the US and regional organisations and forums like APEC are shaping the world Uniquely the discussion is not limited to East Asia but also takes Latin America prominently into the equation This timely book will prove to be a stimulating read for academics students researchers and policymakers with an interest in Asian studies development and agriculture economics international studies

America and the Pacific Rim Gerald L. Houseman, 1995 Recognizing the dawning of the Pacific century and its implications for the United States this textbook explores the economic political and social development of the countries of the Asia Pacific and analyzes past present and future US policy responses Houseman compares and contrasts various levels of development within the region emphasizing especially trade security and human rights issues He concludes with recommendations for US policymaking acknowledging the realities of shrinking political and economic influence in the post Cold War era
