Bruce Erickson, Sarah Wylie Krotz, 2021-03-26 Popularly thought of as a recreational vehicle and one of the key ingredients of an ideal wilderness getaway the canoe is also a political vessel A potent symbol and practice of Indigenous cultures and traditions the canoe has also been adopted to assert conservation ideals feminist empowerment citizenship practices and multicultural goals Documenting many of these various uses this book asserts that the canoe is not merely a matter of leisure and pleasure it is folded into many facets of our political life Taking a critical stance on the canoe The Politics of the Canoe expands and enlarges the stories that we tell about the canoe s relationship to for example colonialism nationalism environmentalism and resource politics To think about the canoe as a political vessel is to recognize how intertwined canoes are in the public life governance authority social conditions and ideologies of particular cultures nations and states Almost everywhere we turn and any way we look at it the canoe both affects and is affected by complex political and cultural histories Across Canada and the U S canoeing cultures have been born of activism and resistance as much as of adherence to the mythologies of wilderness and nation building The essays in this volume show that canoes can enhance how we engage with and interpret not only our physical environments but also our histories and present day societies Canadian Books in Print. Across Canada by Story Douglas Gibson, 2015-09-01 More adventures from one of Canada's premier editors and storytellers. Canada is a country rich in stories and few take as much joy as Douglas Gibson in discovering them. As one of the country's leading editors and publishers for 40 years he coaxed modern classics out of some of Canada's finest minds and then took to telling his own stories in his first memoir Stories About Storytellers. Gibson turned his memoir into a one man stage show that eventually played almost 100 times in all ten provinces from coast to coast. As a literary tourist he discovered even more about the land and its writers and harvested many more stories from distant past and recent memory to share. Now in Across Canada by Story Gibson brings new stories about Robertson Davies, Jack Hodgins, W. O. Mitchell, Alistair MacLeod and Alice Munro and adds lively portraits of Al Purdy, Marshall McLuhan, Margaret Laurence, Guy Vanderhaeghe, Margaret Atwood, Wayne Johnson, Linwood Barclay, Michael Ondaatje and many many others. Whether fly fishing in Haida Gwaii or sailing off Labrador, Douglas Gibson is a first rate ambassador for Canada and the power of great stories.

Who Goes Canoeing With Their Mother-in-Law? Kyle Penner, 2019-11-01 Swirling rapids and daring rescues. Forgotten maps and stolen canoes. Bigfoot encounters and yes even canoeing with his mother in law. Gather round the campfire and let your imagination be captivated by these canoeing stories. Laugh at the things that went wrong. Live the suspense of each tale. Learn what not to do on your next paddling trip. Love both the adventures and the absurdities. Delight in Kyle Penner's story telling as he recounts 17 canoe trips from his home province of Manitoba. Marvel at the artwork of his beloved mother in law Patti Enns as she brings each story to life with her meticulous maps. And be inspired to pack your bags, load up your canoe and call your friends or mother in law to go paddling.

Stories About Storytellers Douglas Gibson, 2011-10-01 The legendary Canadian book editor presents this remarkable four decade romp through the back rooms of publishing. Toronto Sun. Scottish born Douglas Gibson was drawn to Canada by the writing of Stephen Leacock and eventually made his way across the Atlantic to find a job in book publishing where he edited a biography of none other than Leacock. But over the decades his stellar career would lead him to work with many more of the country's leading literary lights. This memoir shares stories of working and playing alongside writers including Robertson Davies, Mavis Gallant, Brian Mulroney, Val Ross, W. O. Mitchell and many more. Gibson reveals the projects he brainstormed for Barry Broadfoot, how he convinced future Nobel Prize winner Alice Munro to keep writing short stories, his early morning phone call from a former prime minister and his recollection of yanking a manuscript right out of Alistair MacLeod's reluctant hands which ultimately garnered the author one of the world's most prestigious prizes for fiction. Insightful and entertaining, this collection of tales goes behind the scenes and between the covers to divulge a treasure trove of literary adventures. He makes his life in publishing sound like great fun. The Globe and Mail, Toronto.
