Pure's entry, Falling Leaves, is the favorite to win, and the wine flows freely until, after Simon's toast, when smiles give way to looks of horror. Ivy's twin sister Amy has been murdered. Turns out the poison that killed her was actually meant for David. But who wants him dead? A rival vintner? Or someone closer to home? This time the truth may be a bitter vintage to swallow. together they foraged for mushrooms berries herbs and other wild food in the surrounding countryside especially her grandfather's nearby farm where they also fished in its pond and young Iliana explored the accumulated family treasures stored in its dusty barn Her father would share stories of his own grandmother Busia who'd helped run a family inn while growing up in eastern Europe from which she imported her own wild legends of her native forests before settling in Gary Indiana and opening Jennie's Caf a restaurant that fed generations of local steelworkers He also shared with Iliana a steady supply of sharp knives and as she got older guns Iliana's mother had family stories as well not only of her own years marrying young raising headstrong girls and cooking at Jennie's but also of her father Wayne who spent much of his boyhood hunting with the men of his family in the frozen reaches of rural Canada The stories from this side of Regan's family are darker riven with alcoholism and domestic strife too often expressed in the harm physical and otherwise perpetrated by men harm men do to women and families and harm men do to the entire landscapes they occupy As Regan explores the ancient landscape of Michigan's boreal forest her stories of the land its creatures and its dazzling profusion of plant and vegetable life are interspersed with her and Anna's efforts to make a home and a business of an inn that's suddenly as of their first full season there in 2020 empty of guests due to the COVID 19 pandemic She discovers where the wild blueberry bushes bear tiny fruit where to gather wood sorrel and where and when the land's different mushroom species appear even as surrounding parcels of land are suddenly and violently decimated by logging crews that obliterate plant life and drive away the area's birds Along the way she struggles not only with the threat of COVID but also with her personal and familial legacies of addiction violence fear and obsession all while she tries to conceive a child that she and her immune compromised wife hope to raise in their new home With Burn the Place Regan announced herself as a writer whose extravagant unconventional talents matched her abilities as a lauded chef In Fieldwork she digs even deeper to express the meaning and beauty we seek in the landscapes and stories that reveal the forces which inform shape and nurture our lives
