Grano, 2017-06 In his persuasive study The Eternal Present of Sport, Daniel Grano rethinks the sport religion relationship by positioning sport as a source of theological trouble. He examines issues of transcendence, legacy, e.g. greatest ever or all time and witnessing through instant replay which undermine institutional authority. Grano also reflects on elite athletes representing especially powerful embodiments of religious and social conflict including around issues related to gender, sexuality, ability, doping, traumatic brain injury and institutional greed.
