Formulating American Indian Policy in New York State, 1970-1986 Laurence M. Hauptman, 1988-07-08 This is the first descriptive analysis of how American Indian policies are made both at the statewide and at agency levels Pertinent to all states the study describes New York s historic policies and emphasizes that improving Indian lifestyles or attracting Indians to government employment is handicapped by their overall distrust of state intentions a distrust caused by the continued impasse on American Indian land claims Employing archival records never before used as well as a plethora of interviews with state officials and American Indians over a fifteen year period Hauptman concludes that critical policy changes are needed to build lasting trust Subject Catalog of the Institute of Governmental Studies Library, University of
