John Hersey got into Hiroshima and managed to report the truth to the world. When the magazine published Hiroshima in August 1946, it became an instant global sensation and inspired pervasive horror about the hellish new threat that America had unleashed. Since 1945, no nuclear weapons have ever been deployed in war, partly because Hersey alerted the world to their true devastating impact. This knowledge has remained among the greatest deterrents to using them since the end of World War II. In 1975, the agency was renamed and reorganized to permit greater Japanese input.
