Ngos Africa And The Global Order:

NGOs, Africa and the Global Order R. Pinkney, 2015-12-04 Formal political structures have produced little more than electoral democracy in Africa without tackling the problems of poverty and elite exploitation This book looks at the opportunities for and limitations of voluntary bodies in seeking a more just order at both African and global levels

Democratization Jean Grugel, Matthew Louis Bishop, 2013-12-04 The second edition of this popular and authoritative text provides a truly global assessment of democratization in theory and practice in the contemporary world It has been systematically revised and updated throughout to cover recent developments from the impact of 9 11 and EU enlargement to the war in Iraq

Education for Sustainable Development in the Postcolonial World Leon Tikly, 2019-12-06 Education for Sustainable Development ESD lies at the heart of global regional and national policy agendas with the goal of achieving socially and environmentally just development through the provision of inclusive equitable quality education for all Realising this potential on the African continent however calls for radical transformation of policy and practice Developing a transformative agenda requires taking account of the learning crisis in schools the inequitable access to a good quality education the historical role of education and training in supporting unsustainable development and the enormous challenges involved in complex system change In the African continent sustainable development entails eradicating poverty and inequality supporting economically sustainable livelihoods within planetary boundaries and averting environmental catastrophe as well as dealing with health pandemics and security threats. In addressing these challenges, the book explores the meaning of ESD for Africa in the context of the postcolonial condition, critically discusses the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) as well as regional development agendas, draws on a wealth of research evidence and examples from across the continent, engages with contemporary debates about the skills, competencies and capabilities required for sustainable development, including decolonising the curriculum and transforming teaching and learning relationships, sets out a transformative agenda for policy makers, practitioners, NGOs, social movements and other stakeholders based on principles of social and environmental justice. Education for Sustainable Development in the Postcolonial World is an essential read for anyone with an interest in education and socially and environmentally just development in Africa. Necessary Noise Chérie Rivers Ndaliko, 2016. Written by a scholar and activist in the center of the current public policy debate in the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Necessary Noise presents a compelling view on the uneasy balance of accomplishing change through art against the unsteady background of war. African, Lusophone, and Afro-Hispanic Cultural Dialogue Yaw Agawu-Kakraba, Komla F. Aggor, 2018-11-27. African Lusophone and Afro Hispanic Cultural Dialogue is a collection of essays of broad historical and geographic scope that advances analytical perspectives regarding a highly transcultural and changing African continent enmeshed in the vestiges of slavery and colonialism and the complex dynamics of post colonialism. Mostly grounded in literary studies, the essays discuss the interconnections between Africa and its Lusophone and Afro Hispanic diaspora. Particular focus is given to how they relate to the politics of identity and assimilation, migration and displacement, the concept of nation, Eurocentrism and racial essentialisms as well as Black aesthetics. The African Revolution Richard Reid, 2025-01-28. A panoramic global history of Africa in the age of imperialism, Africa's long nineteenth century was a time of revolutionary ferment and cultural innovation for the continent's states, societies and economies. Yet the period preceding what became known as the Scramble for Africa by European powers in the decades leading up to World War I has long been neglected in favor of a Western narrative of colonial rule. The African Revolution demonstrates that the Scramble and the resulting imperial order were as much the culmination of African revolutionary dynamics as they were of European expansionism. In this monumental work of history, Richard Reid paints a multifaceted portrait of a continent on the global stage. He describes how Africa witnessed the emergence of new economic and political dynamics that were underpinned by forms of violence and volatility not unlike those emanating from Europe. Reid uses a stretch of road in what is now Tanzania, one of the nineteenth century's most vibrant commercial highways, as an entry point into this revolutionary epoch, weaving a broader story around characters and events on the road. He integrates the African experience with new insights into the deeper currents in European societies before and after conquest, and he shows how the Africans themselves created opportunities for European expansion. Challenging the portrayal of Africa's transformative nineteenth century as a mere prelude to European colonialism, The African Revolution reveals how this turbulent yet hugely creative era for Africans intersected with global intrusions to shape the modern age

Non-governmental Organizations (NGOs) and Sustainable Development in Sub-Saharan Africa Robert A. Dowie, 2008-01-01 Written to provide guidance for civil society organizations and their client groups this book examines the role of NGOs in the development processes on the African continent It raises questions about the influence of funding agencies over the NGOs they support and explores the challenges NGOs face The book argues that increased knowledge and cooperation on all parts is essential to achieve sustainable development This book also concludes that sustainable development activities are not beneficial to every community in Africa Taking into consideration globalization and studies of sub Saharan countries this book concludes that new models of leadership are necessary for the success of Africa and NGOs are a vital part of achieving that development

The NGO Factor in Africa Maurice N. Amutabi, 2013-09-13 The book breaks new ground in understanding the role of Non Governmental Organizations NGOs in Africa The book historicizes NGOs using the Rockefeller Foundation as a case study looking at its tripartite paradoxical roles as an agent of colonialism globalization and development underdevelopment It deploys interdisciplinary devices to show how the RF projects have engaged in marginalization patronage and othering of African values and customs and the ensuing controversies Using globalization postmodern and postcolonial theories the book deconstructs the long held myths about NGO inviolability and opens ground for understanding their strengths It interrogates sites of contestation apprehension and possibilities that the RF has produced Using RF projects it looks at structures of hegemony race power class and gender that the RF has created The book illustrates the extent to which the RF has been instrumental in spreading capitalism imperialism in economic political cultural and social realms through globalization It desists from the grand narrative approach that has dominated African history in the past but instead gives agency and voice to those that have previously been marginalized

NGOs and Lifeworlds in Africa Melina C. Kalfelis, Kathrin Knodel, 2021-06-11 Non governmental organizations NGOs have become ubiquitous in the development sector in Africa and attracting more academic attention However the fact that NGOs are an integral part of the everyday lives of men and women on the continent has been overlooked thus far In Africa NGOs are not remote but familiar players situated in the midst of cities and communities By taking a radical empirical stance this book studies NGOs as a vital part of the lifeworlds of Africans Its contributions are immersed in the pasts presents and futures of personal encounters memories decision making and politics organisations contribute deliver intervene and position themselves in various societies It explores the lessons learnt by various CSOs in identifying societal problems understanding grassroots demands prioritising development agendas and campaigning for peacebuilding Grounded in a firm theoretical framework and based on up to date empirical research the book reflects on the leadership shown by civil society organisations in development politics and business and their impact on community development initiatives and local change process This book will be an important resource for researchers policymakers donors NGO practitioners and the beneficiaries themselves within the areas of international development peacebuilding civil society politics and international relations

International Human Rights Law and Practice Ilias Bantekas,Lutz Oette,2020-04-23 This unique textbook merges human rights law with its practice from the courtroom to the battlefield Human rights are analysed in their particular context and the authors assess among other things the impact of international finance the role of NGOs and the protection of rights in times of emergency including the challenges posed by counter terrorism In parallel a series of interviews with practitioners case studies and practical applications offer multiple perspectives and challenging questions on the effective implementation of human rights Although the book comprehensively covers the traditional areas of international human rights law including its regional and international legal and institutional framework it also encompasses through distinct chapters or large sections areas that have a profound impact on human rights worldwide such as women s rights human rights and globalisation refugees and migration human rights obligations of non state actors debt and human rights and others

Africa in the Age of Globalisation Edward Shizha,Lamine Diallo,2016-03-09 This is a collection of bold and visionary scholarship that reveals an insightful exposition of re visioning African development from African perspectives It provides educators policy makers social workers non governmental agencies and development agencies with an interdisciplinary conceptual base that can effectively guide them in planning and implementing programs for socio economic development in Africa The book provides up to date scholarly research on continental trends on various subjects and concerns of paramount importance to globalisation and development in Africa politics democracy education gender technology global relationships and the role of non governmental organisations The authors challenge the familiar paradigms in order to show how imperfectly if at all assumptions about globalisation and development theories have failed in their depictions and applications to Africa The scholars in this volume both inform and advocate for a re visioning of perceptions on Africa and how it navigates global processes

Africa at the Crossroads Nhemachena, Artwell,Mawere, Munyaradzi,2017-04-11 This volume interrogates and theorises various forms of fundamentalism and fetishism that impinge on Africa and the African people The book valiantly rethinks and unpacks these forms of fundamentalisms and fetishisms offering in the process critical vistas for students scholars and activists on matters of decoloniality and transformation By meticulously and painstakingly unpacking pertinent issues the book provides unparalleled intellectual milestones and platforms for the oncoming revolution and quest for justice in the form of decoloniality and transformation Drawing from several disciplinary domains such as Development Studies Security Studies Political Anthropology and Sociology Economic Anthropology and Social studies English Studies History Philosophy and Religious Studies and drawing from scholars from across different universities in the Southern African region the book provides multiple lenses from which to understand the complex goings on in a continent that can no longer afford to simply fold hands and watch while its citizens suffer multiple forms of coloniality fetishisms and fundamentalisms

Government-NGO Relationships in Africa, Asia, Europe and MENA Raffaele Marchetti, 2018-04-27 This volume brings together some of the most recent scholarship on government and civil society It examines the axis of the relationship between national governments and civil society organisations NGOs by highlighting commonalities as well as differences among four key regions in the world Using the stability vs instability framework the book explores a range of pertinent issues including human rights development foreign policy state building regime change governance frameworks wars and civil liberties It studies diverse situations from those entailing comprehensive cooperation to those involving politically contentious and revolutionary activities With case studies from Africa Asia Europe and the Middle East and North Africa MENA this volume will be useful to scholars and researchers of political science global politics international relations sociology development studies global governance and public policy as well as to those in the development sector and NGOs

From Revolution to Rights in South Africa Steven L. Robins, 2010-11-18 The author argues for the continued importance of NGOs social movements and other civil society actors in creating new forms of citizenship and democracy in South Africa Critics of liberalism in Europe and North America argue that a stress on rights talk and identity politics has led to fragmentation individualisation and depoliticisation But are these developments really signs of the end of politics In the post colonial post apartheid neo liberal new South Africa poor and marginalised citizens continue to struggle for land housing and health care They must respond to uncertainty and radical contingencies on a daily basis This requires multiple strategies an engaged practised citizenship one that links the daily struggle to well organised mobilisation around claiming rights Robins argues for the continued importance of NGOs social movements and other civil society actors in creating new forms of citizenship and democracy He goes beyond the sanitised prescriptions of good governance so often touted by development agencies Instead he argues for a complex hybrid and ambiguous relationship between civil society and the state where new negotiations around citizenship emerge Steven L Robins is Professor of Social Anthropology in the University of Stellenbosch and editor of Limits to Liberation after Apartheid James Currey Southern Africa South Africa Botswana Namibia Lesotho Swaziland University of KwaZulu Natal Press PB

Public Policy Lessons from the AIDS Response in Africa Fred Eboko, 2020-10-29 Public Policy Lessons from the AIDS Response in Africa examines how the interplay between national state dynamics in Africa and the global political arena has shaped the global AIDS response and in this context develops a framework for analysing public policy action more broadly in contemporary Africa By applying comparative political sociology to AIDS public action this book identifies four political models that are applicable to public initiatives Fred Eboko goes on to test these in other domains namely the malaria and tuberculosis health subsectors and the education and environment sectors By articulating global and national connections and contributing a critical perspective grounded in African scholarship and French political science the author builds a bold and ambitious framework with the potential to enable coherent and effective public policy action in Africa This book will be of interest to scholars and students of public health global health political science and development studies as well as policy level practitioners in the areas of global health and development

The NGO Moment Kevin O'Sullivan,2021-10-14 Offers a fresh interpretation of the social cultural and ideological foundations that shaped the rapid expansion of the global NGO sector Kevin O Sullivan explains how and why NGOs became the primary conduits of popular compassion for the global poor and how this shaped the West s relationship with the post colonial world

Civil Society Regionalization in Southern Africa Andréas Godsäter,2016-05-12 This book investigates civil society regionalization in Southern Africa The point of departure is the study of new regionalism which refers to the wave of regional integration globally since the 1980s However whilst the current regionalism studies undoubtedly contributes to a deeper understanding of regional processes important gaps remain in particular the relatively scant emphasis given to civil society This particularly relates to regions in the global South including Southern Africa The overarching aim of this book is therefore to analyse the dynamics of civil society regionalization in Southern Africa both empirically and from a theoretical perspective through analysing the cases of trade and HIV AIDS The study finds that CSOs can be more active in regional governance than has previously been conceptualized and are also highly active in terms of constructing regionalization through framing issues and to a less extent making identities regional Furthermore the book enhances knowledge of the heterogeneous nature of civil society regionalization Lastly it is demonstrated that going regional is only partly an autonomous process and also has to be understood as under the influence of the deeper statist and capitalist social structures marking the regional order in Southern Africa

Humanitarian Fictions Megan Cole Paustian,2024-01-02 Humanitarianism has a narrative problem Far too often aid to Africa is envisioned through a tale of Western heroes saving African sufferers While labeling white savior narratives has become a familiar gesture it doesn t tell us much about the story as story Humanitarian Fictions aims to understand the workings of humanitarian literature as they engage with and critique narratives of Africa Overlapping with but distinct from human rights humanitarianism centers on a relationship of assistance focusing less on rights than on needs less on legal frameworks than moral ones less on the problem than on the nonstate solution Tracing the white savior narrative back to religious missionaries of the nineteenth century Humanitarian Fictions reveals the influence of religious thought on seemingly secular institutions and uncovers a spiritual collectivist streak in the discourse of humanity Because the humanitarian model of care transcends the boundaries of the state and its networks touch much of the globe Humanitarian Fictions redraws the boundaries of literary classification based on a shared problem space rather than a shared national space The book maps a transnational vein of Anglophone literature about Africa that features missionaries humanitarians and their so called beneficiaries Putting humanitarian thought in conversation with postcolonial critique this book brings together African British and U S writers typically read within separate traditions Paustian shows how the novel with its profound sensitivity to narrative can enrich the critique of white saviorism while also imagining alternatives that give African agency its due
