transformed himself into the disguise of a beggar and went calling at the door of Obi When Obi saw that who was calling was a beggar he indignantly said Take a bath and get dressed before calling at my door can you not see that you are dirty do you want to dirty my furniture too and with that he slammed the door in the face of Olodumare Olodumare took a few steps from Obi's house and then with a strong voice called Obi Obi Meye Emi Ofe which means Obi see who I am When Obi was seen aware that it was Olodumare who had come calling at his door he tried to excuse himself and beg forgiveness but Olodumare said to him Obi it is too late I thought you were natural and unpretentious that is why I placed you high in the coconut tree making you white inside and out But having placed so high you have to become vain and have thrown the beggar from your house Obi those are my children too I am going to leave you in the coconut tree so that you may realize that no matter how high you are placed you can never be higher than myself Olodumare the creator God or my divine laws Therefore for as long as the earth exists you will roll on the ground and be transformed to green and black on the outside but to remain white on the inside for your immortal soul The black to remind you of the offense you made to the beggars and the green for the hope that someday you will be forgiven when you come to understand that all persons are my children Meanwhile you will predict the good and bad and the death that will occur on earth And with that began the tradition of reading the Obi at the feet of Elegba and the other Orishas
