Philosophy after Marx Christoph Henning, 2014-04-17 Christoph Henning writes a concise history of misreadings of Marx in the 20th century Focussing on German philosophy from Heidegger to Habermas he also addresses the influence of Rawls and Neopragmatism subsequently scrutinizing a previous history of Marx interpretations that had served as the premises upon which these later works were based Henning sketches a historical trajectory in which a theory of socialist politics enters the fields of economics sociology critical theory and theology before finally overloaded with intellectually dead freight entering into philosophy In so doing he takes a hermeneutic approach to how misreadings in a specific field proliferate into further misreadings across a variety of fields leading to an accumulation of questionable preconceptions With the recent resurgence of interest in Marx Henning's historical recursions make evident where and how academic Anti Marxism had previously got it wrong English translation of Philosophie nach Marx 100 Jahre Marxrezeption und die normative Sozialphilosophie der Gegenwart in der Kritik Transcript Verlag Bielefeld 2005
