The Silent Films of Harry Langdon (1923-1928) James L. Neibaur, 2012-07-06 Harry Langdon was a silent screen comedian unlike any other Slower in pace more studied in movement and quirkier in nature Langdon challenged the comic norm by offering comedies that were frequently edgy and often surreal After a successful run of short comedies with Mack Sennett Langdon became his own producer at First National Pictures making such features as Tramp Tramp Tramp The Strong Man and Long Pants before becoming his own director for Three's a Crowd The Chaser and Heart Trouble In The Silent Films of Harry Langdon 1923 1928 film historian James Neibaur examines Langdon's strange fascinating work during the silent era when he made landmark films that were often ahead of their time Extensively reviewing the comedian's silent screen work film by film Neibaur makes the case that Langdon should be accorded the same lofty status as his contemporaries Charlie Chaplin and Buster Keaton With fascinating insights into the work of an under appreciated artist this book will be of interest to both fans and scholars of silent cinema
