Our Navy's Part in the Great War (Classic Reprint) John Wilber Jenkins, 2017-12-26 Excerpt from Our Navy's Part in the Great War The growth of our Navy to more than half a million Officers and men manning two thousand vessels has been almost phenomenal but no less so than the spirit and efficiency these men have displayed their courage and enterprise in facing every danger and performing every duty imposed upon them There has been no more striking instance of sea power than in this war in which the Allies held control of the seas and in spite of ruthless submarine warfare and the activity of raiders at last compelled the surrender of the German High Seas Fleet It is gratifying that our own Navy had a part in accomplishing this result About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
