It is based on primary original music manuscripts and secondary correspondence diaries and varied historical materials sources recovered from Neapolitan archives, libraries and private collections. The book takes as its focus the figure of Guillaume Cottrau (1797-1847), a musician and publisher who left a significant breadth of original songs and arrangements issued in the song collection and series entitled Passatempo musicali. Cottrau was a cultural auteur who integrated his diverse activities as editor, folklorist and patron of salon music and musicians, including the commissioning of original works and adaptations to establish a tradition of Neapolitan song.
