Performance at the Urban Periphery Cathy Turner, Sharada Srinivasan, Jerri Daboo, Anindya Sinha, 2022-06-30 This edited volume considers performance in its engagement with expanding Indian cities with a particular focus on festivals and performances in Karnataka Tamil Nadu and Kerala The editors ask how performance practices are affected by urbanisation the effects of such changes on their cultural economy and the environmental impacts of performance itself This project also considers how performance responds to its context and the potential for performance to be critical of the city's development and of its own compromises Bringing together perspectives from the humanities natural and social sciences the book takes a multi faceted analytical view of live performance connecting contemporary with heritage forms and human with more than human actors The three sections themed around heritage everyday life and future ecologies will be of great interest to students and scholars in performance heritage studies ecology and art history Limca Book of Records ,2001
