Critical Perspectives on Corporate Land Deals Ben White, Saturnino Borrás Jr., Ruth Hall, Ian Scoones, Wendy Welford, 2013-09-13 This collection explores the complex dynamics of corporate land deals from a broad agrarian political economy perspective with a special focus on the implications for property and labour regimes labour processes and structures of accumulation This involves looking at ways in which existing patterns of rural social differentiation in terms of class gender ethnicity and generation are being shaped by changes in land use and property relations as well as by the reorganization of production and exchange as rural communities and resources are incorporated into global commodity chains It goes further than the descriptive what and who questions in order to understand the how and why of these patterns It is empirically solid and theoretically sophisticated making it a robust and boundary changing work Contributors come from various scholarly disciplines Covering nearly all regions of the world the collection will be of interest to researchers from various disciplines policymakers and activists This book was originally published as a Special Issue of the Journal of Peasant Studies Critical Perspectives on International Political Economy J. Abbott, O. Worth, 2002-08-21 Critical

Perspectives on International Political Economy considers and revises the progress of critical thinking within IPE and engages with issues such as finance the practices of health and work the relevance of new social movements and the political economy of the Internet In so doing it provides a possible map for the next stage of critical development in the study of International Political Economy The Critical Turn in Education Isaac Gottesman, 2016-03-17 The Critical Turn in Education traces the historical emergence and development of critical theories in the field of education from the introduction of Marxist and other radical social theories in the 1960s to the contemporary critical landscape The book begins by tracing the first waves of critical scholarship in the field through a close contextual study of the intellectual and political projects of several core figures including Paulo Freire Samuel Bowles and Herbert Gintis Michael Apple and Henry Giroux Later chapters offer a discussion of feminist critiques the influx of postmodernist and poststructuralist ideas in education and critical theories of race While grounded in U S scholarship The Critical Turn in Education contextualizes the development of critical ideas and political projects within a larger international history and charts the ongoing theoretical debates that seek to explain the relationship between school and society Today much of the language of this critical turn has now become commonplace words such as hegemony ideology and the term critical itself but by providing a historical analysis The Critical Turn in Education illuminates the complexity and nuance of these theoretical tools which offer ways of understanding the intersections between individual identities and structural forces in an attempt to engage and overturn social injustice

Challenges for Transnational Solidarity Andreas Bieler, Ingemar Lindberg, 2010-10-04 Globalisation has put national labour movements under severe pressure due to the increasing transnationalisation of production with the production of many goods being organised across borders and the informalisation of the economy Through a range of case studies this volume examines the possibilities and obstacles to transnational solidarity of labour in a period of global restructuring and changing global political economy It brings together a range of international and transnational case studies examining successful and failed transnational solidarity covering inter trade union co operation as well as co operation between trade unions and social movements within the formal and informal economy and the public and private sector It is structured in six parts and examines Globalisation and the new challenges for transnational solidarity Inter trade union co operation across borders The dynamics of co operation between trade unions and social movements across borders looking at developing and developed countries The struggles to defend the public sector against private service providers The possible ways forward towards transnational solidarity of formal and informal labour in the global economy This book will be of interest to students and scholars of International Political Economy International Relations Industrial Relation Globalisation Geography and History

Marxism and National Identity Robert Stuart, 2006-06-01 Post Marxists argue that nationalism is the black hole into which Marxism has collapsed at today s end of history Robert Stuart analyzes the origins of this implosion revealing a shattering collision between Marxist socialism and national identity in France at the close of the nineteenth century During the time of the Boulanger crisis and the Dreyfus affair nationalist mobs roamed the streets chanting France for the French while socialist militants marshaled proletarians for world revolution This is the first study to focus on those militants as they struggled to reconcile Marxism s two national agendas the cosmopolitan conviction that workingmen have no country on the one hand and the patriotic assumption that the working class alone represents national authenticity on the other Anti Semitism posed a particular problem for such socialists not least because so many workers had succumbed to racist temptation In analyzing the resultant encounter between France s anti Semites and the Marxist Left Stuart addresses the vexed issue of Marxism s involvement with political anti Semitism Terrorism in Perspective Sue Mahan, Pamala L.

Griset, 2012-11-21 The Third Edition of Terrorism in Perspective like its two successful predecessors takes a broad based approach that emphasizes the historical cultural political religious social and economic factors that underlie an understanding of both global and domestic terrorism This unique text reader combines original essays with the best of the existing literature on terrorism Each chapter of this text begins with an overview essay written by the authors followed by two relevant and engaging articles culled from a wide variety of popular academic and governmental sources This is the only major terrorism text to incorporate readings from top terrorism experts into a traditional textbook format allowing readers to deepen their understanding of each aspect of terrorism Academic Life and Labour in the New University Ruth

Barcan, 2016-03-23 What does it mean to be an academic today What kinds of experiences do students have and how are they

affected by what they learn Why do so many students and their teachers feel like frauds Can we learn to teach and research in ways that foster hope and deflate pretension Academic Life and Labour in the New University Hope and Other Choices addresses these big questions discussing the challenges of teaching and researching in the contemporary university the purpose of research and its fundamental value and the role of the academy against the background of major changes to nature of the university itself Drawing on a range of international media sources political discourse and many years professional experience this volume explores approaches to teaching and research with special emphasis on the importance of collegiality intellectual honesty and courage With attention to the intersection of large scale institutional changes and intellectual shifts such as the rise of transdisciplinarity and the development of a pluralist curriculum this book proposes the pursuit of more ethical compassionate and critical forms of teaching and research As such it will be of interest not only to scholars of cultural studies and education but to all those who care about the fate of the university as an institution including young scholars seeking to join the academy

Reporting Genocide David Patrick, 2017-12-13 The Western world's responses to genocide have been slow unwieldy and sometimes unfit for purpose So argues David Patrick in this essential new contribution to the aid and intervention debate While the UK and US have historically been committed to the ideals of human rights freedom and equality their actual material reactions are more usually dictated by geopolitical noise pre conceived ideas of worth and the media attention spans of individual elected leaders Utilizing a wide ranging quantitative analysis of media reporting across the globe Patrick argues that an over reliance on the Holocaust as the framing device we use to try and come to terms with such horrors can lead to slow responses misinterpretation and category errors in both Rwanda and Bosnia much energy was expended trying to ascertain whether these regions qualified for genocide status The Reporting of Genocide demonstrates how such tragedies are reduced to stereotypes in the media framed in terms of innocent victims and brutal oppressors which can over simplify the situation on the ground This in turn can lead to mixed and inadequate responses from governments Reporting on Genocide also seeks to address how responses to genocides across the globe can be improved and will be essential reading for policy makers and for scholars of genocide and the media

Understanding Media Cultures Nick Stevenson, 2002-04-02 The Second Edition of this book provides a comprehensive overview of the ways in which social theory has attempted to theorize the importance of the media in contemporary society Understanding Media Cultures is now fully revised and takes account of the recent theoretical developments associated with New Media and Information Society as well as the audience and the public sphere
