Ellenzweig, John Zammito, 2017-07-14 This collection which includes an international roster of contributors from philosophy history literature and science is the first to ask what is new about the new materialism and place it in interdisciplinary perspective Critical Theory and New Materialisms Hartmut Rosa, Christoph Henning, Arthur Bueno, 2021-06-14

Bringing together authors from two intellectual traditions that have so far generally developed independently of one another critical theory and new materialism this book addresses the fundamental differences and potential connections that exist between these two schools of thought With a focus on some of the most pressing questions of contemporary philosophy and social theory in particular those concerning the status of long standing and contested separations between matter and life the biological and the symbolic passivity and agency affectivity and rationality it shows that recent developments in both traditions point to important convergences between them and thus prepare the ground for a more direct confrontation and cross fertilization The first volume to promote a dialogue between critical theory and new materialism this collection explores the implications for contemporary debates on ecology gender biopolitics post humanism economics and aesthetics As such it will appeal to philosophers social and political theorists and sociologists with interests in contemporary critical theory and materialism Interplay of Things Anthony B. Pinn, 2021-09-20 Drawing on literature along with the visual and performing arts Anthony B Pinn theorizes religion as a technology for interrogating human experiences understanding the ways in which things are always involved in processes of exchange and interplay

Intellectual Property and Access to Im/material Goods Jessica C. Lai, Antoinette Maget Dominicé, 2016-07-27 Traditionally in order to be protected intellectual property goods have almost always needed to be embodied or materialised and to a certain extent to be used and enjoyed regardless of whether they were copyrighted works patented inventions or trademarks This book examines the relationship between intellectual property and its physical embodiments and materialisations with a focus on the issue of access and the challenges of new technologies Expert contributors explore how these problems can re shape our theoretical notion of the intangible and the tangible and how this can have serious consequences for access to intellectual property goods The Routledge Handbook of Ecofeminism and Literature Douglas A. Vakoch,2022-09-19 The Routledge Handbook of Ecofeminism and Literature explores the interplay between the domination of nature and the oppression of women as well as liberatory alternatives bringing together essays from leading academics in the field to facilitate cutting edge critical readings of literature Covering the main theoretical approaches and key literary genres of the area this volume includes Examination of ecofeminism through the literatures of a diverse sampling of languages including Hindi Chinese Arabic and Spanish native speakers of Tamil Vietnamese Turkish Slovene and Icelandic Analysis of core issues and topics offering innovative approaches to interpreting literature including activism animal studies cultural studies disability gender essentialism hegemonic masculinity intersectionality material ecocriticism postcolonialism posthumanism postmodernism race and sentimental ecology Surveys key periods and genres of ecofeminism and literary criticism including chapters on Gothic Romantic and Victorian literatures children and young adult literature mystery and detective fictions including interconnected genres of climate fiction science fiction and fantasy and distinctive perspectives provided by travel writing autobiography and poetry This collection explores how each of ecofeminism s core concerns can foster a more emancipatory literary theory and criticism now and in the future This comprehensive volume will be of great interest to scholars and students of literature ecofeminism ecocriticism gender studies and the environmental humanities The Question of Painting Jorella Andrews,2018-11-29 Since the latter half of the 20th century committed art has been associated with conceptual critical and activist practices Painting by contrast is all too often defined as an outmoded reactionary market led venture an ineffectual medium from the perspective of social and political engagement How can paintings change the world today The question of painting in particular fuelled the investigations of a major 20th century philosopher the French phenomenologist Maurice Merleau Ponty 1907 61 Merleau Ponty was at the forefront of attempts to place philosophy on a new footing by contravening the authority of Cartesian dualism and objectivist thought an authority that continues to limit present day intellectual imaginative and ethical possibilities A central aim of The Question of Painting is to provide a closely focused chronological account of his unfolding project and its relationship with art clarifying how painting as a paradigmatically embodied and situated mode of investigation helped him to access the fundamentally intercorporeal basis of reality as he saw it and articulate its lived implications With an exclusive and extended conversation about the contemporary virtues of painting with New York based artist Leah Durner for whom the work of Merleau Ponty is an important source of inspiration The Question of Painting brings today s much debated concerns about the criticality of painting into contact with the question of painting in philosophy Media Technologies and Posthuman Intimacy Jan Stasienko,2021-12-16 Constructing a theory of intimacy describing processes occurring between a human subject and information creations Jan

Stasienko shows in what way and in what phases that relationship is built and what its nature is He discusses technologies and genres related to the construction of a new television message teleprompter interactive television forms appearing both in the analogue and digital eras composition of the film image and specificity of cinematic technologies peep show hybrid animation digital visual effects Also new media technologies and genres will be discussed for example aspects relating to computer games and Web portals making video materials available This diversity is prompted by the desire to show that the building of intimacy protocols is not the domain of the digital era and on the other hand that the posthumanism of media apparatus is a wide ranging problem i e the area encompasses various vehicles findable throughout various historical periods

The Political Possibility of Sound Salomé Voegelin, 2018-11-01 The essay is the perfect format for a crisis Its porous and contingent nature forgives a lack of formality while its neglect of perfection and virtuosity releases the potential for the incomplete and the unrealizable These seven essays on The Political Possibility of Sound present a perfectly incomplete form for a discussion on the possibility of the political that includes creativity and invention and articulates a politics that imagines transformation and the desire to embrace a connected and collaborative world The themes of these essays emerge from and deepen discussions started in Voegelin's previous books Listening to Noise and Silence and Sonic Possible Worlds Continuing the methodological juxtaposition of phenomenology and logic and writing from close sonic encounters each represents a fragment of listening to a variety of sound works to music the acoustic environment and to poetry to hear their possibilities and develop words for what appears impossible As fragments of writing they respond to ideas on geography and migration bring into play formless subjectivities and trans objective identities and practice collectivity and a sonic cosmopolitanism through the hearing of shared volumes They involve the unheard and the in between to contribute to current discussions on new materialism and perform vertical readings to reach the depth of sound

Therapeutic Aesthetics Maria Walsh, 2020-11-12 Therapeutic

Aesthetics focuses on moving image artworks as expressive of social psychopathological symptoms that arise in a climate of neoliberal cognitive capitalism such as anxiety depression post traumatic stress disorder and burnout The book is not about engaging with art as a therapy to express personal traumas and symptoms but proposes that a selective range of contemporary moving image artworks performatively mimic the psychopathologies of cognitive capitalism in a conflictual manner Engaging with a range of philosophers and theorists including Bernard Stiegler Franco Bifo Berardi Judith Butler Félix Guattari and Eva Illouz Maria Walsh proposes that there is no cure only provisional moments of reparation To address this idea she uses the concept of the pharmakon the Greek term for drug which means both remedy and poison Through this approach she maintains the conflict between the curative and the harmful in relation to moving image artworks by artists such as Omer Fast Liz Magic Laser Leigh Ledare Oriana Fox Gillian Wearing and Rehana Zaman As transitional spaces these artworks can enable a toleration of anxiety and conflict that may offer another kind of aesthetic self cultivation than the subjection to biopolitical governance in cognitive capitalism

Artist-Teacher Practice and the Expectation of an Aesthetic Life Carol Wild, 2022-07-08 This book explores why and how the personal creative practice of arts teachers in school matters It responds to ethnographic research that considers specific works of art created by teachers within the context of their classrooms Through a classroom based ethnographic investigation the book proposes that the potential impact of artist teacher practice in the classroom can only be understood in relation to the flows of power and policy that concurrently shape the classroom It shows how artist teacher practice functions as a creative practice of freedom tending to the present and future aesthetic life of the classroom countering the effects of neoliberal schooling and austerity politics The book questions what the artist teacher can produce within that context Through the unique focus on artist teacher practice the book explores the changing nature of the classroom and the social and political dimensions of the school It will be key reading for researchers and postgraduate students of arts education critical pedagogy teacher identity and aesthetics It will also be of interest to art and design educators

Education, Arts and Sustainability Mary Ann Hunter, Arnold Aprill, Allen Hill, Sheridan Emery, 2018-02-28 This book addresses this challenge by proposing an integration of sustainability and arts education in both principle and practice In a global context of intensifying social economic and environmental crises education is key to raising awareness and motivating individuals and communities to act in sustaining life in our more than human world But how is this done when the complexity and need for change becomes overwhelming and schooling systems become complicit in supporting the status quo Drawing on critical education theory and precepts of creativity curiosity and change it documents a series of case examples that demonstrate how five principles of Education for Sustainability critical thinking systems thinking community partnership participation and envisioning better futures are found at the heart of much arts practice in schools Featuring the creative work and voices of teachers working in arts based enquiry and diverse community engaged contexts the book investigates how sustainability principles are embedded in contemporary arts education thinking and pedagogy The authors are unapologetically optimistic in forming an alliance of arts and sustainability education as a creative response to the challenge of our times arguing that while they may have operated on the margins of conventional pedagogy and curriculum they have more than marginal impact
