Credo Credit Crisis Aidan Tynan, Laurent Milesi, Christopher John Müller, 2017-08-25 Money facilitates the rites and rituals we perform in everyday life More than a mere medium of exchange or a measure of value it is the primary means by which we manifest a faith unique to our secular age But what happens when individual belief credo I believe and the systems into which it is bound credit it believes enter into crisis Where did the sacredness of money come from and does it have a future Why do we talk about debt and repayment in overtly moral terms How should a theological critique of capitalism proceed today With the effects of the 2008 economic crises continuing to be felt across the world this volume brings together some of the most important contemporary voices in philosophy literature theology and critical and cultural theory together in one volume to assert the need to interrogate and broaden the terms of the theological critique of capitalism

Between Levinas and Heidegger John E. Drabinski, Eric S. Nelson, 2014-08-25 Investigates the philosophical relationship between Levinas and Heidegger in a nonpolemical context engaging some of philosophy s most pressing issues Although both Levinas and Heidegger drew inspiration from Edmund Husserl s phenomenological method and helped pave the way toward the post structuralist movement of the late twentieth century very little scholarly attention has been paid to the relation of these two thinkers There are plenty of simple and accurate oppositions and juxtapositions French and German ethics and ontology and so on But there is also a critical intersection between Levinas and Heidegger on some of the most fundamental philosophical questions What does it mean to be to think and to act in late modern life and culture How do our conceptions of subjectivity time and history both reflect the condition of this historical moment and open up possibilities for critique resistance and transformation The contributors to this volume take up these questions by engaging the ideas of Levinas and Heidegger relating to issues of power violence secularization history language time death sacrifice responsibility memory and the boundary between the human and humanism volume collects more than 30 new essays by prominent scholars on what remains philosophically provocative in Heidegger's thought. His writings continue to invite analysis and application, particularly in the light of his political affiliations; they must also be critiqued. Philosophy today takes place after Heidegger in that his views should not be accepted naively and there are new issues that he did not address but also in that we continue to think in the wake of important questions that he raised. The contributors to this volume ask questions such as: What does it mean to think after Heidegger? What is valuable in his early work on finite existence and in his early and late phenomenology? What is the root of his political errors? Are there still elements in his thought that can yield helpful political insights? Should we emulate his turn toward releasement? Can he help us understand the postmodern condition? Readers will find thought-provoking echoes and points of contention among these engaging and lively essays.

Rousseau Between Nature and Culture Anne Deneys-Tunney, Yves Charles Zarka, 2016-03-07. Rousseau has been seen as the inventor of the concept of nature in this collective volume; philosophers and literary specialists from France and the United States examine how Rousseau's philosophy can be reinterpreted from the point of view of a constant dialectical debate between nature and culture. In this, Rousseau is our true contemporary.

Tragedy, the Greeks, and Us Simon Critchley, 2019-04-16. From the moderator of The New York Times philosophy blog The Stone, a book that argues that if we want to understand ourselves we have to go back to theater to the stage of our lives. Tragedy presents a world of conflict and troubling emotion, a world where private and public lives collide and collapse. A world where morality is ambiguous and the powerful humiliate and destroy the powerless. A world where justice always seems to be on both sides of a conflict and sugarcoated words serve as cover for clandestine operations of violence. A world rather like our own. The ancient Greeks hold a mirror up to us in which we see all the desolation and delusion of our lives but also the terrifying beauty and intensity of existence. This is not a time for consolation prizes and the fatuous banalities of the self-help industry and pop philosophy. Tragedy allows us to glimpse in its harsh and unforgiving glare the burning core of our aliveness. If we give ourselves the chance to look at tragedy we might see further and more clearly.

Renaissance Futurities Charlene Villaseñor Black, Mari-Tere Álvarez, 2019-11-05. At publication date a free ebook version of this title will be available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program. Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more. Renaissance Futurities considers the intersections between artistic rebirth, the new science, and European imperialism in the global early modern world. Charlene Villaseñor Black and Mari-Tere Álvarez take as inspiration the work of Renaissance genius Leonardo da Vinci (1452-1519), prolific artist and inventor, and other polymaths such as philosopher Giulio Delminio Camillo (1480-1544), physician and naturalist Francisco Hernández de Toledo (1514-1587), and writer Miguel de Cervantes (1547-1616). This concern with futurity is inspired by the Renaissance itself, a period defined by visions of the future as well as by recent theorizing of temporality in Renaissance and Queer Studies. This transdisciplinary volume is at the cutting edge of the humanities, medical humanities, scientific discovery, and avant-garde artistic expression.
