Nice Book Migrants Political Participation Exclusionary Contexts:

Migrants' Participation in Exclusionary Contexts K. Pilati, 2016-04-30 This insightful book analyzes the political engagement and marginalization of three of Milan's migrant groups: Filipinos, Egyptians, and Ecuadorians. Bringing together data relating to the civic and political engagement of individual migrants and of migrant organizational networks, the result is an examination of the consequences of the political exclusion of migrants, exploring the different ways in which they cope with this predicament. Such exclusion, the author argues, has three major impacts: It can transform migrant groups into political subcultures and engender externally driven participation, but it can also lead to radicalization.

Popular Contention, Regime, and Transition Eitan Y. Alimi, Avraham Sela, Mario Sznajder, 2016 Through a diverse array of case studies from countries around the world, Popular Contention, Regime, and Transition places the Arab Spring uprisings in comparative perspective, demonstrating the similarities and parallels between contentious events in democratic and authoritarian-like regimes. By analyzing factors such as the set of initial conditions involved in the protest prospects of contention and forms of protest, the volume generates powerful insights into the impetus, dynamics, and consequences of contention in all contexts.

Migration, Urbanity and Cosmopolitanism in a Globalized World Catherine Lejeune, Delphine Pagès-El Karoui, Camille Schmoll, Hélène Thiollet, 2021-05-10 This open access book draws a theoretically productive triangle between urban studies, theories of cosmopolitanism, and migration studies in a global context. It provides a unique, encompassing and situated view on the various relations between cosmopolitanism and urbanity in the contemporary world. Drawing on a variety of cities in Latin America, Europe, Asia, Africa, and North America, it overcomes the Eurocentric bias that has marked debate on cosmopolitanism from its inception. The contributions highlight the crucial role of migrants as actors of urban change and targets of urban policies, thus reconciling empirical and normative approaches to cosmopolitanism. By addressing issues such as cosmopolitanism and urban geographies of power, locations, and temporalities of subaltern cosmopolites, political meanings, and effects of cosmopolitan practices and discourses in urban contexts, it revisits contemporary debates on superdiversity, urban stratification, and local incorporation, and assesses the role of migration and mobility in globalization and social change.

The Politics of New Immigrant Destinations Stefanie Chambers, 2017-07 Migration to new destinations in Europe and the United States has expanded dramatically over the past few decades. Within these destinations, there is a corresponding greater variety of ethnic, cultural, and/or religious diversity. This timely volume, The Politics of New Immigrant Destinations, considers the challenges posed by this proliferation of diversity for governments, majority populations, and immigrants. The contributors assess the effectiveness of the policy and political responses that have been spawned by increasing diversity in four types of new immigrant destinations: intermediate destination countries (Ireland and Italy), culturally distinct regions experiencing new migration (such as Catalonia in Spain or the American South), new destinations within traditional destination countries (like the state of Utah), and rural towns in England and early migration cycle countries including Latvia and Poland The Politics of New Immigrant Destinations examines how these new destinations for immigrants compare to traditional destinations with respect to their policy responses and success at integrating immigrants offering perspectives from both immigrants and natives Contributors include Dace Akule Amado Alarc n Rhys Andrews Francesca Campomori Tiziana Caponio Scott Decker Erica Dobbs Melissa M Goldsmith Aleksandra Grzymka Kaz owska Claudio A Holzner Magdalena Lesi ska Paul Lewis Helen B Marrow Laura Morales Katia Pilati Marie Provine Monica Varsanyi and the editors Social Capital, Political Participation and Migration in Europe L. Morales, M. Giugni, 2016-02-09 How can European societies more effectively promote the active engagement of immigrants and their children in the political and civic life of the countries where they live This book examines the effect of migrants individual attributes and resources their social capital and the political opportunities on their political integration Sociopolitical Conditions and Migrant Integration in Western Europe Michael Neureiter, 2025-01-02 This book brings new insight from social psychology to explore migrant integration in Western Europe Through a series of survey studies it illustrates the importance of sociopolitical conditions such as political polarization and discriminatory climates for understanding cross national variation in migrant integration outcomes The author investigates how migrants integrate what factors facilitate or hinder successful integration and how successes and failures along the way affect subsequent integration outcomes An inspiring read for researchers and students alike interested in migration studies political behaviour social psychology and international policy this book aims to promote more effective migrant integration policies within the European Union and elsewhere Handbook of Citizenship and Migration Marco Giugni, Maria Grasso, 2021-06-25 Taking an integrated approach this unique Handbook places the terms citizenship and migration on an equal footing examining how they are related to each other both conceptually and empirically Reframing Immigrant Resistance Teresa Cappiali, 2021-12-24 The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license This book focuses on the political participation and grassroots mobilization of immigrants and racialized communities in the European context Based on extensive data collected in Italy it explores the role that alliances among pro immigrant groups play in shaping political participation asking why and how immigrant activists mobilize in hostile environments why and how they create alliances with some white allies rather than others and what might explain variations in forms of political participation and grassroots mobilization at the local level Using social movement critical race and post colonial theories the author examines the ways in which both institutional and non institutional actors including immigrant activists become involved and compete in the local arena over immigration and integration issues and assesses the mechanisms by which both conventional and non conventional forms of participation are made possible or obstructed By placing immigrant activists at the center of the analysis the book offers a valuable and novel insider perspective on political activism and the claims making of marginalized groups It also demonstrates how pro immigrant groups can play a role in racializing immigrant activists A study of the effects on participation in social mobilization of coalitions conflicts and racialization processes among pro immigrant groups and immigrant activists this volume will appeal to scholars of sociology political science and political sociology with interests in migration ethnic and racial relations social movements and local governance

Un-Settling Middle Eastern Refugees Marcia C. Inhorn, Lucia Volk, 2021-06-11 Since the Iraq war the Middle East has been in continuous upheaval resulting in the displacement of millions of people Arriving from Afghanistan Iraq Palestine and Syria in other parts of the world the refugees show remarkable resilience and creativity amidst profound adversity Through careful ethnography this book vividly illustrates how refugees navigate regimes of exclusion including cumbersome bureaucracies financial insecurities medical challenges vilifying stereotypes and threats of violence The collection bears witness to their struggles while also highlighting their aspirations for safety settlement and social inclusion in their host societies and new homes

Ethnopolitical Entrepreneurs Daniel Fittante, 2023-12-15 Ethnopolitical Entrepreneurs presents the story of the Armenians of Glendale California Coming from Argentina Armenia Egypt Iran Jordan Lebanon Russia Syria and many other countries this group is internally fragmented and often has limited experience with the American political system Nonetheless Glendale s Armenians have rapidly mobilized and remade an American suburban space in their own likeness In telling their story Daniel Fittante expands our understanding of US political history From the late nineteenth century onward Irish Italian Jewish and several other immigrant populations in large American cities began changing the country s political reality The author shows how Glendale s Armenians as well as many other immigrants are now changing the country s political reality within its dynamic multiethnic suburbs The processes look different in various suburban contexts but the underlying narrative holds immigrant populations converge on suburban areas and ambitious political actors develop careers by driving coethnics political incorporation

Migrants and Expats: The Swiss Migration and Mobility Nexus Ilka Steiner, Philippe Wanner, 2019-02-13 This open access book provides insight on current patterns of migration in Switzerland which fall along a continuum from long term and permanent to more temporary and fluid These patterns are shaped by the interplay of legal norms economic drivers and societal factors The various dimensions of this Migration Mobility Nexus are investigated by means of newly collected survey data the Migration Mobility Survey The book covers different aspects of life in the host country including the family dimension the labour market and political participation as well as social integration The book also takes into account the chronological dimension of migration by considering the migrants arrival their stay and their expectations regarding return Through applying conclusions drawn from the Swiss context to the migration literature on other European and high income countries this book contributes to new knowledge on current migration processes in high income countries As such it will be a valuable reference work to scholars and students in migration social scientists and policy makers

Transnational Families, Migration and Gender Elisabetta Zontini, 2010-02-01 By linking the experiences of immigrant families with the increased reliance on cheap and flexible workers for care and domestic work in Southern Europe this study documents the lived experiences of neglected actors of globalization migrant women as well as the transformations of Western families more generally However while describing in detail the structural and cultural contexts within which these women have to operate the book questions dominant paradigms about women as passive victims of patriarchal structures and brings out instead their agency and the creative ways in which they take control of their lives in often difficult circumstances Based on extensive ethnographic fieldwork and interviews the author offers a valuable dual comparison between two Southern European countries on the one hand and between two migrant groups one Christian and one Muslim on the other thus bringing to light unique detailed data on migration decision making settlement and on the multiple ways in which different women cope with the consequences of their transnational lives

Collective Movements and Emerging Political Spaces
Angharad Closs Stephens, Martina Tazzioli, 2024-05-31

Collective Movements and Emerging Political Spaces addresses the politics of new forms of collective movements ranging from anti austerity protests to migrant struggles and anticolonial demonstrations Drawing on examples from various countries as well as struggles taking place across borders this book traces the emergence of new practices of being political described as collective movements These represent something looser than a common identity long held as necessary for a political struggle to cohere They also suggest a different understanding of emancipation to the promise of transformation in time By addressing various examples of collective movements the chapters in this book examine other ways of being political together formed through relations carved in cramped spaces or small movements that rearrange our ideas about what is possible Drawing on the temporary and fleeting nature of many migrants struggles the chapters develop concepts and approaches that acknowledge how such mobilisations trouble many standard political sociological categories including nation identity and citizenship In combining an attentiveness to theories of affect emotion and atmosphere they also go beyond a focus on either individuals or collectives to address the ways bodies are moved by the world and by others Overall the chapters propose new questions methods and starting points for addressing collective movements in emerging political spaces and for understanding how what counts as politics is being redrawn on the ground This book will interest students researchers and scholars of international political sociology human geography international relations critical security studies and migration studies

Kurds of Modern Turkey Cenk Saraçoglu, 2010-10-30

The role of the Kurds in Turkey has long been a controversial issue although discussion has generally been focused around the political and cultural rights and activities of the Kurds This book aims to bring a new approach to this contentious subject by shifting attention to the changing popular image of the Kurds in Turkish cities It focuses particularly on the ways in which the middle class in Turkish cities develop an exclusionary discourse against the Kurds Cenk Saracoglu investigates the social origins of such a perception by bringing into focus how neoliberal economic policies and Kurdish migration have transformed urban life in Turkey

Everyday Bordering in Migrants' Access to Rights İtir Aladağ

Görentaş, Marie Mallet-Garcia, Jérémy Mandin, Elsa Mescoli, Buket Özdemir Dal, 2025-10-03 This book delves into how everyday bordering rules and practices used by states for migration governance impacts migrants access to social rights and shapes their post migration life It focuses on the interactions between institutional bodies agents and migrants of various profiles highlighting how these dynamics condition migrants experiences and access to rights This book offers significant insights into the complex relationship between access to social and fundamental rights and bordering practices examined at various levels and from complementary perspectives This book will be of special interest to scholars and students of migration studies and welfare studies as well as practitioners working in the field of migration

Sanctuary cities and urban struggles Jonathan Darling, Harald Bauder, 2019-07-04 Sanctuary Cities and Urban Struggles makes the first sustained intervention into exploring how cities are challenging the primacy of the nation state as the key guarantor of rights and entitlements It brings together cutting edge scholars of political geography urban geography citizenship studies socio legal studies and refugee studies to explore how urban social movements localised practices of belonging and rights claiming and diverse articulations of sanctuary are reshaping the governance of migration By offering a collection of empirical cases and conceptualisations that move beyond seeing like a state Sanctuary Cities and Urban Struggles proposes not a singular alternative but rather a set of interlocking sites and scales of political imagination and practice In an era when migrant rights are under attack and nationalism is on the rise the topic of how citizenship rights and mobility can be recast at the urban scale is more relevant than ever

European Glocalization in Global Context R. Robertson, 2016-11-09 This book consists of a collection of essays that deal with glocalization in Europe including the idea of Europeanization as glocalization The contributors deal with a range of topics including migration media football beauty Christianity democracy and the European Union

Mobilities in Life and Death Avril Maddrell, Sonja Kmec, Tanu Priya Uteng, Mariske Westendorp, 2023-06-06 This open access book focuses on migrant and minority cemetery needs through the conceptual lens of the mobilities of the living and the dead In doing so the book brings migration and mobility studies into much needed dialogue with death studies to explore the symbolically and politically important issue of culturally inclusive spaces of cemeteries and crematoria for migrants and established minorities The book addresses majority and minority cemetery and crematoria provisions and practices in a range of North West European contexts It describes how the planning management and use of cemeteries and crematoria in multicultural societies can tell us about the everyday lived experiences of migration and migrant heritage urban diversity social inclusion and exclusion in Europe and how these relate to migrant and minority experience of lived citizenship practices of territoriality and bordering colonial postcolonial narratives The book will be of interest to readers in the fields of migration mobilities studies and death studies as well as policy makers and practitioners such as local government officers cemetery managers and city planners

Engendering Democracy in Africa Niamh Gaynor, 2022-06-01 This book investigates women s political participation in Africa Going beyond the formal institutions of electoral politics it explores a range of spaces where everyday politics take place at national and at local levels In recent years there have been significant improvements in the number of women elected to parliament in Africa However there is little indication that this is translating into better developmental outcomes and indeed there is mounting evidence that it could in fact help to bolster some authoritarian regimes Starting from the premise that politics is a far broader project than securing a seat in national or local legislatures alone this book explores the opportunities for women s political participation across a number of informal spaces where women and men gather organise and interact in a more regular and systematic manner Combining insights from political science sociology and feminist theory and drawing on detailed cases from the Congo Kenya Malawi Nigeria and Rwanda it examines how power in its multiple dimensions circulates across a range of everyday political spaces while drawing attention to the links between domestic gender inequalities and the global political economy Inviting scholars practitioners and activists to broaden their focus beyond formal electoral institutions if they want to support women to become more politically active this book provides fresh insights into major issues at the heart of African studies development studies gender and development democratisation and international relations Ethnic Minorities, Media and Participation in Hong Kong Lisa Y.M. Leung, 2021-02-15 Second and third generation South and Southeast Asian minorities in Hong Kong being marginalized from mainstream social and political affairs have developed an ambivalent sense of belonging to their host society Unlike their forefathers who first settled in Hong Kong under British colonial rule these younger generations have spent their formative years in the territory As such they have increasingly engaged in the public and political realms of society partly in response to the territory s rapid political changes Leung discusses and analyses the complex and diverse engagement of migrant and minority youths in Hong Kong and their struggle for recognition while desiring to be long to a place they call home Some are joining the calls for democratic changes in the territory In particular she argues that much of this struggle can be seen in minorities involvement in creative sectors of society While it will be of especial interest to scholars with an interest in Hong Kong this book presents a compelling case study for anyone interested in the dynamics of migrant and minority engagement in the creative sector as a strategy for engagement
