Orange County Ca Postcard History Series:

Orange County, 2005 The formerly wide open space southeast of Los Angeles blossomed from cattle ranches into a center of citrus production by the early 20th century Orange County separated from Los Angeles County in 1889 soon Anaheim and Santa Ana changed from farming communities to major cities while coastal communities grew beyond anyone's imagination One of the most populous counties in the United States today Orange County began in the mid 20th century to evolve from its bedroom community status to become an urban suburban region with its own identity This collection of vintage postcards follows the county's diverse development illustrating such spots as Disneyland and the area's world renowned beaches as well as remembering the pastoral origins industries unique buildings and cityscapes that have added dimension to its history

Santa Ana in Vintage Postcards Guy Ball, 2001 Santa Ana began as the dream of early pioneers in the 1800s when the dry desolate area was little more than windswept fields of wild mustard grass Santa Ana celebrates this area's pioneer heritage and the people who created it and chronicles the development of this city with fascinating vintage postcards Santa Ana was one of the earliest incorporated cities and became the county seat in 1889 Wealthy businessmen successful political leaders and even an occasional maharajah chose Santa Ana as their home Today Orange County is one of the most dynamic counties in California

Inland Empire John Howard Weeks, 2008-09-29 Southern California's vast Inland Empire is one of the fastest growing regions of the United States It is a wonderland of old growth vineyards citrus groves hot water resorts Wild West landmarks and Native American territories America's fabled Mother Road Route 66 runs right through it Its fertile valleys are encircled by mountains with famous resort areas such as Idyllwild Big Bear Lake and Lake Arrowhead Those mountains are surrounded in turn by some of the world's best known desert resort and recreational areas including Palm Springs the Mojave Death Valley and Joshua Tree National Park Inland Empire is the first book of its kind offering a postcard perfect grand tour of the entire region

Newport Beach's Balboa and Balboa Island Jeff Delaney, 2007 The village of Balboa lies on the eastern half of a 4 mile long peninsula a natural barrier that protects the neighboring Balboa Island from Pacific storms Both the village and the island have constituted a sun soaked paradise for residents and vacationers from all over the world for more than a century Famous for luxury homes miles of beautiful sandy beaches and one of the largest pleasure harbors on the West Coast Balboa has enjoyed a colorful history filled with backroom gambling midnight deliveries during Prohibition and frequent visits from Hollywood's biggest stars Such legends as John Wayne James Cagney Errol Flynn Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall spent many a day sailing Balboa's harbor and many nights enjoying its justifiably famous nightlife of dance halls restaurants and clubs Balboa and Balboa Island represent all of the extremes perhaps best exemplified in the quaintness of today's city of Newport Beach an Orange County enclave where great wealth commingles with the carefree charm of a barefoot community

Vanishing Los Angeles County Cory Stargel, Sarah Stargel, 2010-08-30 Home to more than 10 million people modern Los Angeles County

bears little resemblance to the largely agricultural landscape dotted with small towns of just over a century ago Los Angeles County has surged forward on a path of phenomenal growth and constant transformation Over this course much of what was both famous and familiar to Angelenos 100 or even 50 years ago has been lost in the name of progress This collection of more than 200 vintage postcards explores a sampling of these vanishing sites including the once ubiquitous orange groves views from the early days of the countys towns yesteryears famed attractions landmarks hotels and restaurants and scenes from the roadside era

Riverside in Vintage Postcards Steve Lech, 2005 Riverside has been a vital center of agriculture and government throughout the growth of Southern California Postcards sent from this city to those far away usually depict it as a resort situated on the western edge of the Colorado Desert where the historic Mission Inn has been a vacation destination for generations Illustrating many facets of this world renowned garden like gathering spot these attractive images also showcase Riverside s Main Street public buildings parks broad avenues the sharply rising Mt Rubidoux on the edge of town and the influence of the citrus industry

Early Santa Ana Marge Bitetti, Guy Ball, 2006 Located at the heart of Orange County Santa Ana has been the civic and community center as the OC grew and prospered Thirty three miles from Los Angeles and 12 miles from the Pacific Ocean the city was founded by William Spurgeon who in 1867 purchased just over 74 acres of what was once the Yorba family s Rancho Santiago de Santa Ana to start a new community This book revisits those formative years that left a rich history in architecture and culture laying the foundation for today s 350 000 city residents Santa Ana boasts two historic districts and 20 buildings on the National Register of Historic Places Growing with the ranching and citrus industries as well as the transportation routes they spawned the city also contains 400 locations of historic significance on its own citywide historic register

West Orange Joseph Fagan, 2009-04-20 Although West Orange is best known for Thomas Edison there is much more to this New Jersey town than its famous inventor Through vintage postcards West Orange explores the towns history from the days of cable cars that once climbed the mountain to the long gone amusement park at Crystal Lake Postcards illustrate how Llewellyn Park and Eagle Rock share a common beginning and West Orange once had two train stations The familiar roads of home come alive as images reveal West Oranges rich history

Jenkins,2023-07-10 As Southern California recovered from the collapse of the cattle industry in the 1860s the arrival of railroads attacked by newspapers as the greedy octopus and the expansion of citrus agriculture transformed the struggling region into a vast idealized and prosperous garden New groves of the latest citrus varieties and new towns like Riverside quickly grew directly along the tracks of transcontinental railroads The influx of capital industrial technology and workers especially people of color energized Southern California and tied it more closely to the economy and culture of the United States than ever before Benjamin Jenkins s Octopus s Garden argues that citrus agriculture and railroads together shaped the economy landscape labor systems and popular image of Southern California Orange and lemon growing boomed in the 1870s and 1880s while railroads linked the region to markets across North America and ended centuries of geographic isolation for the West Coast Railroads competed over the shipment of citrus fruits from multiple counties engulfed by the orange empire resulting in an extensive rail network that generated lucrative returns for grove owners and railroad businessmen in Southern California from the 1890s to the 1950s While investment from white Americans particularly wealthy New Englanders formed the financial backbone of the Octopus s Garden citrus and railroads would not have thrived in Southern California without the labor of people of color Many workers of color took advantage of the commercial developments offered by railroads and

citrus to economically advance their families and communities however these people also suffered greatly under the constant realities of bodily harm low wages and political and social exclusion Promoters of the railroads and citrus cooperatives touted California as paradise for white Americans and minimized the roles of non white laborers by stereotyping them in advertisements and publications These practices fostered conceptions of California s racial hierarchy by praising privileged whites and maligning the workers who made them prosper The Octopus s Garden continues to shape Southern Californians understanding of their past In bringing together multiple storylines Jenkins provides a complex and fresh perspective on the impact of citrus agriculturalists and railroad companies in Southern Californian history The Long Shadow Ellen Walker Rienstra,Jo Ann Stiles,2016-09-20 Using a wealth of primary materials this lively biography traces the lives of three generations of the Lutch Stark family of Orange Texas who are renowned for their business achievements and generous philanthropy Orange County (CA) History Series ,1968 History of Military Cartography Elri Liebenberg,Imre Josef Demhardt,Soetkin Vervust,2016-01-28 This volume gathers 19 papers first presented at the 5th International Symposium of the ICA Commission on the History of Cartography which took place at the University of Ghent Belgium on 2 5 December 2014 The overall conference theme was Cartography in Times of War and Peace but preference was given to papers dealing with the military cartography of the First World War 1914 1918 The papers are classified by period and regional sub theme i e Military Cartography from the 18th to the 20th century WW I Cartography in Belgium Central Europe etc America, History and Life ,1996 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada Vermont History ,1990 California History ,1998 American Book Publishing Record ,2002 Orange County History Series Orange County Historical Society (Calif.),1931
