From Page to Screen / Vom Buch zum Film Manuel Almagro-Jiménez,Eva Parra-Membrives,2020-10-05 For a long time now women have struggled for the vindication of their rights and for their visibility This struggle may seem a story of success maybe not complete or equal for all women but at least one which slowly but surely carries with it the promise of equality for all women However a closer look reveals that in various fields of culture the representation of women frequently undergoes a manipulation which makes the image of women lose the intention initially attempted This is often the case with adaptations of literary texts to the screen when the initial literary message is changed because of for example marketing demands or some ideological stance Rarely do we find the opposite case where the indifferent or emasculated original female characters are turned into guardians and or apologists of feminine power The present volume focuses precisely on the way in which the image of women is modified in films and TV series when compared with the original literary texts Difficult Death, Dying and the Dead in Media and Culture Sharon Coleclough, Bethan Michael-Fox, Renske Visser, 2023-11-25 This book responds to a growing interest in death dying and the dead within and beyond the field of death studies The collection defines an understanding of difficult death and examines the differences between death dying and the dead as well as exploring the ethical challenges of researching death in mediated form The collection is attendant to the ways in which difficult deaths are imbricated in power structures both before and after they become mediatised in culture As such the work navigates the many political and social complexities and inequalities what might be deemed the difficulties of death dying and the dead The book seeks to expand understandings of the difficulty of death in media and culture through a wide range of chapters from different contexts focused on literature film television and in online environments as well as several chapters examining news reportage of difficult deaths
